For the first time since the old Grand Trunk Railway debentures were issued (if our memory is correct) the Council Fathers are issuing township debentures, owing to the building of two new bridges. Many ratepayers are strongly opposed to mortgaging the future of the municipality.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McClocklin spent a couple of days last week with Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell at Webeck.

We believe Mr. J. A. MacDonald of Edge Hill is the oldest correspondent of the Chronicle, and the corner scribe comes next, both of them half a century older than we are, Eh!

If all reports are true, the Bell Telephone Company are likely to extend their system to the 6th Concession at long last.

The local Women's Institute met at the cosy home of Mrs. John O. Greenwood on Thursday last and had a bright afternoon's program. The Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Hazel Firth, had a good paper on "Thanksgiving." Miss Mina Edwards read a wittily worded one entitled, "Shopping for His Wife," forwarded by Mrs. H. Beaton. Miss Violet Fallaise favored them with a very sweet solo. The younger element gave a chorus. Mrs. Greenwood furnished a dainty luncheon at its close. They meet next month at the home of Mrs. M. J. Davis.

Zionites meet on Tuesday evening of this week to make arrangements for their Christmas Tree Concert. The weeks will soon slip by. A rumor has reached this vicinity that Mr. William Grant of Varney was run into on the Provincial highway and had both legs broken. If true, we regret very deeply the accident that has befallen him. For many years he was a valued member of the Chronicle's old staff correspondents, and we have ever found him upright and true with a personality to boot.

Rev. J. E. Peters has been giving very earnest, eloquent and impressive sermons in Zion of late.

(Our own Correspondent.)

The auto accident on Saturday night south of Varney in which Mr. Grant was so badly hurt, caused a deep feeling of sorrow to all who know him as he is not only a highly esteemed citizen, but one of the most industrious stalwarts of this country who has done his best both to make a home and do his share in public undertakings.

Mr. Thomas Johnson of the Dromore Mills has installed a new oil engine. The old steam outfit used on the profits in the wood it burned. Holstein Mills have been using a gas engine for the past three weeks owing to the scarcity of water.

The severe cold on Sunday caused a search for winter clothes, and on Monday, Mr. Robert Mighon put his wood cutting machine in order and has started the seasons cutting.

Mrs. Carrie Aljoe has leased her farm to Mr. Ernest Baxter and is having a sale on Tuesday next which will most likely be a good success. At a closing up sale every purchaser believes he is getting a chance.

The people of this part felt very sorry to hear of the accident to Mr. John Lawrence. He has been a life-long resident of this place, and of late, has had many mishaps.

St. Paul's Sunday School entertainment will be held in Allans' School house on Thursday evening, November 27th. Admission will be 25 cents.

Mr. Thomas McNice of Normanby purchased some cattle out here for winter feeding; in fact, stockers are about the only kind saleable at the present time.

The slight shift of snow must have made it good for fox hunting as a goodly number were captured last week and this. Judging from the number of fowl they have taken this fall, they must be in prime condition. Mr. Allan Aitken has taken over the shipping of live stock at Holstein from Mr. A. Hunter, who found it conflicted too much with his other duties of life. Allan is in the prime of life and should be a success, more especially if heredity counts for anything. His grandfather, the late William Allan, was one of the first men to buy somewhat on a co-operative plan in this part, although he bought for a price. When he sold his load and found he had more than a living profit, he returned an amount to each of his patrons. This experience was repeated for a few times, but the market slumped, and he suffered a loss but his customers made good some of the loss.

Miss Shute spent the week-end with Miss McHugh.

COST COUNTY $1 FOR ROADS

County Good Roads Complete Tour of Work of New Road; 8 Bridges Culverts Built.

Approximately $125,000 spent so far this year on construction and maintenance of bridges, culverts, etc., the county of Grey. Exact figures will not be until the next meeting of the council, which will be held on Monday week County Super Roads, John Johnston, by Warden Dan McKay, J. Taylor, of Osprey, the County Roads Com. Garrie, Sydenham; R. Koppel; and Reeve H. Toop, a trip around the county to inspect the work has been accomplished, and well pleased with the good use had been made of the money expended. We considered that there are a number of 350 miles of county to be kept in a condition that they are today in. There have been constructed bridges ranging from in length and 14 culverts, and that the county has been kept down to 8 not very much room.

The party met on morning at Glen Hill, where the work was done in that section. The most important work was cutting down the hills in the whole of the county. This has now been reduced to a grade, which is steep to travel, to a grade, and the road class in every part of the county. The county is delighted with it, more so than the section.

From here they went to Foreman J. White and looked over the Durham and Hanover very poor shape in years. Nearly four miles has been graded on the hills cut down, on the Hanover side the Durham side, a big improvement, however, and the done next year.

The party next in direction of Warden boundary line between Bruce, between Elgin township the Sinclair of Bruce roads committee of the council. The object was to inspect the bridge and about town line between Derby on the home Grey and Bruce, erected by Mr. Hill at a cost of between $10,000 and $15,000 and is now finished and is a good bridge, and to it are in good condition.

The next object township where the Geo. Hillis had been constructed three miles. This road was a month ago, but about six blocks of this road west of the party came and spent the night morning driving through the direction of Brown four and gravel and shale constructed. It is the best piece of road in the county. The shale used along the Georgian line was great results obtained. The county line through the county line through the Camperdown and collect in every part of the inspection, at up. A complete of presented at the next week.
