FOGARTY'S CONDITION

Mrs. Evans, the vicar's wife, was always interested in the well-being of those under her husband's care. She knew every family in the village and most of their illness as well, which is saying a good deal. One morning she met Mrs. Fogarty in the main street. "Well, and how is your husband getting on now?" asked Mrs. Evans with a kindly smile at the woman. "Well," replied Mrs. Fogarty, shaking her head, "sometimes he's better and sometimes he's worse, but from the way he grows and takes on when he's better, O! think he's better when he's worse."
