Flesherston.

(Our own Correspondent.) Gilchrist, Arnott.—The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Haw of Ceylon was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding at high noon on Tuesday, March 3rd, when Mrs. Nellie Jane Arnott of Ceylon, formerly of Osprey, became the bride of Mr. Thomas A. Gilchrist, a prominent citizen of Ceylon. Rev. H. H. Eaton, pastor of the Methodist Church, Flesherston, conducted the ceremony in the presence of immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride looked charming in her stylish travelling costume of navy blue with sand blouse and hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of American Beauty roses and lily of the valley and wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. There were no attendants. At the conclusion of the ceremony and congratulations, a choice wedding breakfast was served, the table decorations being white and pink carnations. The highly esteemed bride was the recipient of many beautiful wedding gifts. Showered at the depot with confetti and good wishes, Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist left on the four-thirty train to visit Toronto, Hamilton and other points. On their return, they will occupy the groom's newly renovated residence, and a wide circle of friends wish them many years of wedded bliss. On Wednesday last week, before leaving for England, Mr. F. H. W. Hickling, merchant here, was waited upon at his home by a delegation from the Trustee and Quarterly Official Boards of the Methodist Church and presented with a beautiful travelling case, travelling slips and other useful articles. Mr. Hickling has been for the past twelve years treasurer of the church and has stood in high esteem. The Official Boards, therefore, embraced the opportunity afforded them by his departure for a visit to his birthplace in the British metropolis to show their esteem for him in this tangible manner. The presentation was made by the Recording Steward, Mr. W. H. Hunt, who warmly commended the recipient for his many estimable qualities and for his valued services to the congregation which had been highly appreciated by all. He wished Mr. Hickling bon voyage and a safe return to his home here. Mr. Hickling made a happy reply thanking the donors for the appreciated token of goodwill. He left here that afternoon, and Saturday sailed on the C. P. R. steamer, Marlock, bound from St. John, N. B., for Liverpool.

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Stewart moved to town last week retiring from their farm on the West Backline. Before leaving the old home, they were given a nice token of esteem by their neighbors who presented them with three valuable pieces of furniture. An enjoyable evening was spent together. At Fenelon Falls, they passed away recently a very highly esteemed lady in the person of Mrs. George D. Isaac, formerly Miss Isabella Hogg, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Hogg of Ceylon. Her

Hints for the Household

For March

By BETTY WEBSTER

Readers, Note: If you have any questions concerning Recipes, and other Household Hints you would like to ask Betty Webster—address her in care of The Durham Chronicle.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

Appropriate Prizes for Saint Patrick's Party: A volume of Moore's poems. A dolly embroidered in shamrocks. Green tie for either lady or man.

Saint Patrick's Party Refreshments

Potato salad. Sandwiches. Celery filled with cream cheese and chopped olives. Lime ice, small cakes.

COOKING HINTS

Shamrock Salad 2 large green peppers. 2 packages favorite cheese. 1/2 cup nuts. 2 tablespoons chopped celery. 1 tablespoon chopped olives. 1/2 teaspoon chopped onion. Salt, pepper and a little mustard.

Method: Let peppers stand in water an hour. Put celery, olives and onion through food chopper. Mix with cheese and nuts. Fill peppers with mixture. Let harden, slice, arrange on lettuce leaves in 3 strips to form shamrock.

Emerald Spinach

Spinach. Seasoning. Flour. A little cream. Egg and toast trimmings.

Method: Wash and pick over spinach. Cook in an uncovered pan in salted water. Add tiny pinch of soda. Cook until tender. Drain. Chop fine. Add butter, flour and a little cream mixed together arrange in mold form on platter. Trim with egg and dainty pieces of buttered toast.

Cream Spinach Soup

2 cups cooked spinach. 2 cups milk. 2 tablespoons butter. 3 tablespoons flour. Onion. Salt. Pepper. Cup of spinach water.

Method: Make a thick, white sauce of butter, flour and milk. Add seasoning. Chop spinach, save juice. Press spinach through a strainer into cream sauce. Add juice and spinach water. Cook all together well. This makes a delicious and dainty soup.

BAKING HINTS

Sour Milk Corn Bread

1 or two eggs. 1/2 cup sugar. 1 cup sour milk. 1/3 cup butter. Pinch salt. 1 cup corn meal. 1 cup white flour.

Method: Have tenderloin split and flattened, cut in strips. If tenderloin is good size, cut in 4 pieces. Boil prunes. Remove stones. Insert walnut meat in prune. Then wrap tenderloin around stuffed prune and a piece of raw apple. Then wrap bacon around meat. Fasten with tooth picks, bake at least 1 hour. When on platter, place cherries on top tooth picks.

Baked Apples as Trim for Platter

Bake apples in usual manner. Serve hot. Place around edge of platter. Take as many lumps of sugar as apples. Dip one end of sugar in little alcohol. Have moist end out. When you take platter in, light the ends of sugar. The effect is very pretty.

home again. Her husband, who has also been in poor health for some time, has made improvement and the esteemed couple's friends wish them further good health. Miss Maybee of Toronto, who was nurse in the home, has returned to the city, after visiting a few days with Mrs. W. H. Heard near Markdale.

Accompanied by his wife, Mr. W. B. Cross, manager of the Bank of Montreal, went to Owen Sound on Friday to undergo an operation in the hospital for removal of tonsils. Mr. D. R. McElroy is relieving here until Mr. Cross returns.

Miss Reta Bellamy, who returned recently from an extended visit in the West, is ill with inflammatory rheumatism which has developed since her return home. Her friends sympathize with her in her sudden illness.

Mrs. W. C. Parker is ill at her home here suffering from stone in the kidney, but her friends are pleased to learn some improvement is felt.

Mr. George Mitchell visited his daughter in Toronto part of last week. Mrs. D. McTavish has returned from an extended visit with her two sons and wives at Oshawa.

Miss Mildred Caswell has returned from visiting her sister at Kitchener. Rev. J. Harrower attended Presbytery at Orangeville last week.

Miss Elda Karstedt spent part of last week in Toronto purchasing spring millinery.

Communion service was held in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday. At the evening service in the Methodist Church, the pastor closed with a very effectively rendered solo.

At the Young People's meeting in the Methodist Church on Monday evening, Mrs. C. J. Bellamy gave a very fine and instructive paper on India.

Mrs. George Johnston, Jr., who was in a very critical condition last week with pneumonia, has a turn for the better, and hopes are now entertained for her recovery.

Dr. Emerson Henderson of Detroit is again on a short visit with relatives.

Mr. Wilfred McMaster is home from Aberton, nursing an injured hand caused by an accident with a drilling outfit.

Miss Jennie Winters made a weekend visit to her parents in Osprey.

Miss Cameron of the High School staff, made a visit to Owen Sound on Saturday.

Miss Kathleen McMillan has returned to her home at Swanton Park after visiting for a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. Parslow, who has recovered from illness.

Mrs. Alex. Findlay of Owen Sound visited friends here on Monday.

A load of twelve members of the W. O. B. O. here went to Faversham on Friday to join the sister lodges at Faversham and Maxwell in conducting the last rites of the Order at the funeral of a deceased member, Mrs. Thomas Cronan, a very highly respected lady at Faversham. She is survived by her husband and three children. The funeral was largely attended, and an impressive service was held in the Presbyterian Church conducted by the three local ministers.

Mr. Robert Thompson, an old resident of Ardenia, died on Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. Mammel, Port Colborne. The remains are being brought here for interment this Tuesday. Mr. Thompson, who is over 80 years of age, was among the early settlers in Ardenia and lived for many years on the Meaford Road two and a half miles from this village. He afterwards moved to the Valley near Kimberley where he spent many years. He was married three times two of his wives being daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Irwin, who lived near this village. His last wife died a little over three years ago. Six of his children survive him.
