SOME "DON'TS"
Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, of the United States, gives a few financial "don'ts":

Don't buy stock in mines you know nothing about. A mine is a hole where fools dump their money.
Don't buy oil stock.
Don't buy stock in new invention schemes.

Don't buy real estate unless you have seen it. It may be a swamp.
Don't buy from one who says, "The price will soon be raised."
Don't buy from one who offers you a discount for cash.

Don't buy anything on "tips."
Have nothing to do with the "bucket shop."
Don't speculate. A rich man can afford to, but you can't.

Don't buy securities that are handled by irresponsible persons or unknown firms.
Don't buy mortgage notes on distant property.

Don't work the stock market. If the public were to win, professional operators would soon shut up shop and quit.
