(Our own Correspondent.)
Mr. R. J. Ramsey of Chesley, C. O., organizer, is in the village in the interests of the Canadian Order of Foresters.

Mr. Joseph Smith, who has been visiting friends here for the past couple of months, returned to his home at Viceroy, Sask., last Friday. Miss Edwards, principal of the Continuation School, was seriously indisposed with inflammation of the eyes and was unable to attend to her duties for a few days.

Mrs. Walter Horsbough of Gorrie spent a few days here recently with friends.

Mrs. Florence Kerr of Varney spent last Saturday in the village as guest of Miss Daydonson.

Mrs. Peter Fidler has been seriously ill with pneumonia, but under the treatment of Dr. McLellan and care of Nurse Carmount, she is much improved.

The four patrons of the Egremont Creamery Company sending the highest number of pounds of butterfat from March 16th to 28th are: Wesley Halliday 96.68, Brown brothers 81.72, Arthur Irvin 58.27 and Orme Hunt 57.57.

A meeting of the U. F. O. in this vicinity was held in Robert's Hall last Friday, the object being to appoint a shipper, as Allan Aitken had resigned on account of press of farm work. Messrs. J. Lawrence, Durham, and A. Hutchinson, Mount Forest, were the applicants, and Mr. Lawrence was chosen.

Many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sturrock met at their home, 1427 Bathurst Street, Toronto, and presented them with many useful household articles, and an enjoyable evening was spent.

In a letter received from Mrs. Edward Hey (nee Lottie Fee), she tells us that Mr. Hey had to have one of his eyes removed in the Regina Hospital. A piece of steel in the eye necessitated its removal.

We understand that Rev. W. Johnston of Churcheil has accepted the call to the Presbyterian Church here.

Swinton Park.

(Our own Correspondent.)
The funeral of the late Clark McMillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. McMillan of Ceylon, was held on Monday to Swinton Park cemetery and was largely attended by friends and neighbors both from here and Ceylon, as he was born here and was well-known. Dearest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family.

Miss Lynetta Knox is with her sister, Mrs. J. McMurdo, of Dromore, assisting to nurse little Jean who is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Sorry to hear of the serious accident which befell Mr. Joseph Campbell last week, who at time of writing is somewhat improved.

Mr. George Plester had a very successful sale last Friday and had a good quality of stock and implements. Prices soared high, as there were lots of bidders.

A very enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. George Lane on Friday evening when a large crowd of neighbors gathered there and presented Mr. and Mrs. R. Lane with a purse of money to show their good will in a time most suitable, as Mr. and Mrs. Lane lost their dwelling by fire recently.

Mr. Hugh McLean is at present moving a vacant house from Mr. George Lane's to where the one was destroyed a couple of weeks ago.

A farewell party was held at Mr. George Plester's on Monday night, and a large crowd was present. Mr. and Mrs. Plester are leaving for their new home at New England.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Harrison entertained a number of their friends on Friday evening. Roads were in a poor condition, but nevertheless, that didn't stop the real old sports from going, as they took across the fields on foot.

Glenmont

(Our own Correspondent.)
Mr. Thomas Lawrence and Mrs. J. Clark, Toronto, have been visiting their father, Mr. John Lawrence, at Crawford Harrison's. Mrs. Clark is staying up for a while.

Rocky Saugeen

(Our own Correspondent.)
The monthly meeting of the U. F. W. O. will be held at the home of Mrs. George Noble on April 9th.

A good program is in preparation for a concert to be given in the school on Good Friday night, admission 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

At a meeting at the school, it was decided to send Mr. Jack Grassy as delegate to the convention in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie and daughter, Armetta, of near town, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. McLean.

Many old friends turned out to hear Rev. Mr. Little preach on Sunday. It is over thirty years since he preached at Dornoch and Rocky. There are only a few left around here who remember him, but all were pleased to hear the fine sermon.

Corner Concerns

(Our own Correspondent.)
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mighton visited Hanover friends on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker visited their daughter, Mrs. Joseph Brown, for a couple of days the first part of this week.

Mr. George Bovington is moving his family to Durham this week having found more pleasant and profitable work than working among the farmers.

Some of our farmers have plowed a few acres and tell us the land works well.

Mr. Peter Robins has re-leased the farm he has been on for the past year from Mr. James Marshall.

At a special school meeting held on Tuesday night, Mr. Earl Mead was elected trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of Mr. Thomas Tucker to Durham.

Mr. William Gordon has purchased the fifty-acre farm from Mr. William Pollock, and has now one hundred and fifty acres to look after. The tendency at present is for more acreage.

Messrs. Dalprie Lawrence and Milford Matthews had a sore time with the mumps last week. If fellows won't take either mumps or measles until they reach manhood, they usually pay up for it.

It was either by good tact or good fortune that the Varney Church choir sang, "Whosoever Will May Come," the Sunday morning after Knox Church had voted on union, and one of the union members presented himself for acceptance. If the singing of that old familiar hymn caused him such a thrill as he speaks of, what might the consequences have been had they been singing, "Wandering boy, far away from thy God, come back to the path where thy mother has trod?"

Edge Hill.

(Our own Correspondent.)
Mr. George Williams of Toronto visited his parents here for a week. Mr. Cunningham Moore, assessor of Glenelg Township, was through this district last week and made his valuation for this year.

Mr. John Trafford is assisting Mr. Fred Staples in preparation for spring seeding.

The young people are busy in preparation of a play to be presented some time this spring.

Mr. John McFadden's house had a narrow escape during the thunder-storm last week. A tall evergreen at the edge of the verandah was struck and splintered, but the house fortunately escaped damage. The telephone was put out of commission for a few days.
