(Our own Correspondent.)
We are having a cool spell over the week-end, and it strikes us hard after the wonderful weather we have been experiencing recently. However, spring in reality will come the sooner with this cold snap over.

Quite a number of our young folk paid the community a short visit over the Easter holiday, and will, generally speaking, be back to the city on Monday evening. Some of the visitors were: Misses Ethel Watson, Olive McLean, Flora B. McLean, Donald Nicholson, Anna M. McLean, Laura McKinnon, Margaret Tryon, and Messrs. Robert McKinnon, R. Walker, Neil Shortreed and John L. McDonald.

Mrs. Alex B. McDonald and daughter, Janet, continue to improve slowly, also Misses Lydia McKinnon, Alice Reiley and Mrs. Ramage. The severe cold that is so prevalent in the locality is keeping most households busy, as a great many little folks are quite sick. Mr. Crawford McLean is reported as somewhat improved. Miss C. Stewart, R. N., is in constant attendance, and we hope for his speedy recovery.

The local garage improvements are going ahead nicely, and will greatly add to the appearance of the frontage. Our teachers, Misses B. Jelly and L. McFarlane, are holidaying at their respective homes. The Dolson family are spending the holidays with friends locally. Mr. and Mrs. Angus Kennedy have returned home after spending the winter with Mrs. Shrapin of Mimico.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in the schoolhouse on Friday evening last at the regular monthly meeting of the U. F. O. There was a debate on "Resolved that a clean cranky woman is to be preferred to a good natured, slovenly woman," the affirmative winning by ten points. Those taking part in the debate were Messrs. John Aikins and Ford on the affirmative side and Messrs. Wilfrid Anderson and John Whiteford on the negative side.

Mr. Charles Mighon visited in Galt the end of last week. Sorry to report Mrs. Joseph Reay under the weather with the mumps. Pleased to know that Mr. Aylmer Reay is better again after his attack of the mumps.

OLD GLENELG RESID DIED IN MIC

Mrs. William Burnett Passed Friday at Engadine.—Made Yesterday in Hoopetery.

Mr. Angus Hooper of Line, Glenelg, received yesterday that his only sister, Miss Mary Burnett, had passed away at Manistiquic, Mich., and remains would arrive at Tuesday noon. Mrs. Burnett came as a great shock to Mr. and other relatives, as it had been no previous intimation she was ill. Death came suddenly from an operation at hospital, Manistiquic, Mich., caused passing away before.

Mrs. Burnett was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hooper of the old Hooper home, now owned by her only brother, Mr. Angus Hooper. She lived here until 1896, when she was married to Mr. Burnett for a time, also in the home, also in the home, occupied by his father-in-law, Mr. Burnett. After a short time, Mr. and Mrs. Burnett, Engadine, near Sault Ste. Marie, where they have lived ever since, where Mr. Burnett has been busily engaged in lumbering.

Two sons and one daughter, David and Miss Margaret, were born to Mr. and Mrs. Burnett, and an only daughter, Mrs. Burnett, died in infancy. The funeral took place to Hooper's cemetery in the services being in charge of Mr. Sutherland, pastor of the Church, Priceville.

The Chronicle sympathizes with the sorrowing family in their loss.
