JOHN MILLS, HANOVER, MAY RUN ON LIBERAL TICKET

vote, as well as that of the urban centres. The policy of the King Government, he said, was the one policy best suited for the people of Canada as a whole.

Canada, said the speaker, with its varied interests in manufacturing and agriculture, was hard to govern, and the only solution for the country at large was the moderate policy program of the Liberal Government. He compared King's moderate tariff with that of Mr. Meighan and the Conservative party, and said that due to retrenchments at Ottawa last year, fifty millions of dollars in taxes were cut off in twelve months. Taking out the uncontrollable expenditures, such as soldiers' pensions, and the war debt, the controllable expenditures were less today under the King Government than in 1912 under Tory regime. Contrast this with the policy of the present Government in Ontario! said Mr. Marshall. Instead of cutting down on expenditures, the Ontario Government was trying to raise six or seven millions in taxes.

The speaker referred to the legacies left by the Conservative Government in the matter of national debt, and launched into an explanation of the excellent manner in which the present Liberal Government had consolidated the Grand Trunk, the Grand Trunk Pacific and the Canadian Northern into the present Canadian National Railways. He paid tribute to Sir Henry Thornton, the general manager, for his leadership and claimed an operating surplus of $16,000,000 for the system last year.

Reference was made to the tariff reductions especially in farm implements, and to the cattle embargo removal, by which Canadian cattle are now being shipped inland into England. The credit for this, he said, belonged to no other than the Rt. Hon. William Lyon Mackenzie King, and as a result of this good work, cattle were today quoted at $8.75 a hundred weight, instead of a possible $5.00, had the embargo not been removed.

The speaker severely castigated the Conservative policy of promising a different policy in every riding. In Norfolk, a vegetable county, it was a higher duty on early vegetables, and in West Hastings, where cheese-making was the principal industry, a higher duty on cheese.

The ocean combine also received attention, and it was predicted that as a result of the subsidization of the Peterson Line, freight rates would be from $5 to $8 per ton less than at present.

The prosperous condition of the Western farmer, when they compared with 1921, when they could not even make a living, was another sample of what the present government had done for agricultural conditions in our Canadian West and in fact all over the Dominion. The prosperity had permeated the whole country, for when farmers are prosperous, every one of us is prosperous, and as a result of this, today factories all over Canada are running steadily and business is rapidly getting better.

Emigration from the United States and Scotland, he predicted, would establish a new record during the coming summer and prosperity for the Canadian farmer and manufacturer was just over the horizon. A government's duty, according to Mr. Marshall, was to reduce tariffs when practicable, and get markets for the country's products. He said the Liberal party leads all in moderation and fairness, and predicted that the King Government would sweep Canada at the next general election. The Conservatives, in his opinion, had reached the peak of incompetency under the leadership of Arthur Meighan and did nothing but borrow money and pile on the tariff. With a few renegade Grits like Hugh Guthrie, they had formed what the speaker termed a "suicide pact." The Hon. Mackenzie King was the only great leader in Canada today, said Mr. Marshall, in concluding his address.

Besides Mr. Mills, other nominees of the meeting were: D. T. Wright, Dundalk; Walter Hastie, Egremont; Dr. Sneath, Demore; Dr. Smith, Durham; Dr. Mair, Hanover; and Dr. Fortune of Ayrton. With the exception of Mr. Hastie, who had left the hall, all made short addresses, thanking their movers and seconders, but retired, leaving the field to Mr. Mills, who will make known his decision at a date in the near future.

It is expected a big Liberal picnic will be held at Eugenia on the 28th of May, the details of which were laid over for future consideration.

READING THE HOMETOWN PAPER

(Anne Campbell, Detroit News Poet) When you read the hometown paper, And you're miles away from home, There's a thrill that comes to no one But the folks compelled to roam; For the ads, look so familiar And the names are all so sweet That your fancy goes a-roaming Down a sunny hometown street.

When you read the hometown paper In a gloomy hotel room, There's something tugs your spirit; There's a lifting of the gloom; For across the miles alluring Is a picture looking grand, And your folks come out to meet you From the pages in your hand.

When you read the hometown paper In a train that's homeward bound, There's satisfaction keener Than in any you have found, And somehow while you are reading You've a heart as light as foam, For to read the hometown paper Brings you mighty close to home!

Hints for the Household

For April

By BETTY WEBSTER

Readers, Note: If you have any questions concerning Recipes, and other Household Hints you would like to ask Betty Webster—address her in care of The Durham Chronicle.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Question: "What is added to whipped cream to make it stay firm like other icing when added to top of cake?"

Answer: There are two additions which can be added to whipped cream to make it firm. A—The white of egg. B—Gelatin.

Method (A): Beat white of egg very stiff. Add gradually to cream which has been whipped very stiff until right consistency is reached.

Method (B): Cover a little gelatin with cold water. Add scant cup of boiling water. Stir well. When this starts to thicken, mix with whipped cream. This is what some bakers put in their cream filling for cream puffs.

To Keep Meat Moist

If ham or corn beef are allowed to cool in water in which they are boiled, they will keep moist for a long while.

COOKING HINTS

Lemon Sherbet 6 lemons, juice of all and grated rind of 3.

1 orange, juice and grated rind.

1 pint of hot water (2 cups).

3/4 pint of sugar.

Method: Mix juice, powdered sugar and rind. Pour hot water over mixture. Strain through cheesecloth and freeze.

To Make Frappe

After freezing, add 1 pint cold water to sherbet, and you will have a delicious frappe.

How to Prepare Sweetbreads

Soak in lukewarm salted water for 2 hours. Change water several times during this period. Pour off water. Place sweetbreads in boiling water. Simmer for 10 to 15 minutes. Be sure they are firm but not hard. Put in cold water for 10 minutes. Take out. Wipe dry. Set aside until cold. They are now ready to cook any desired way.

BAKING HINTS

Coffee Cake

1 cup of brown sugar.

1 h. tablespoon of shortening.

1 cup of milk.

2 cups of flour.

2 teaspoons of baking powder.

Little salt.

Frosting: Butter, brown sugar and little cinnamon.

Method: Mix brown sugar and shortening. Add milk, flour, salt and baking powder. Mix well and pour into shallow bread pan. Dot top plentifully with butter and sprinkle with brown sugar and little cinnamon.

Lemon Pie

Different than you ever tasted.

3 eggs.

1 cup of sugar.

1 lemon (juice).

Method: Separate eggs. Beat egg yolks. Add sugar. Then put juice of 1 lemon in saucepan. Boil well. Slowly add whites—beaten stiff. Then pour into baked pastry shell. You can hold out enough white of egg just to dot top of pie artistically.

Baked Calve's Hearts

3 hearts.

Stuffing.

1/2 loaf bread, broken into pieces.

1 onion, cut up.

Seasoning.

Pour a little boiling water over mixture. Mix well.

Method: Wash hearts well. Remove fibrous tissues. Fill with dressing. Salt. Roll in flour and seal. Add salt, pepper and butter, and bake 2 or 3 hours. Baste frequently.

TRINITY CEMETERY TO BE BEAUTIFIED

Work Commenced Two Years Ago To Be Continued This Summer—More Funds Needed.

The work of beautifying and cleaning up Trinity Church cemetery, inaugurated a couple of years ago, is to be continued this summer, and already plans are being thought out for the work planned. Besides, ploughing up the whole cemetery, straightening headstones and cleaning up the place generally, we understand it is the intention of the trustees to add more beauty to the place by the judicious planting of shrubs and flowers.

So far the trustee board has contented itself with the absolutely necessary work about the place and while they have done well, they have a lot yet to do before the last resting place of many can be pronounced in the best of shape. To this end, they will need more money and more help, but as the cause is a good one, they do not anticipate much difficulty in raising the money required. The board has supplied us with a list of the receipts and expenditure which are given below, and an appeal for more funds will, no doubt, meet with a ready and generous response. As work must commence at once if it is to bear fruit this summer, all who contemplate making further donations or who will supply men and teams are requested to get in touch with Mr. Ed. Kress at once.

Sufficient Unto the Day

"Since you are discontented, why don't you sell your farm and move to the city?"

"I've heard about them prices for flats," answered Farmer Cornfassel. "I'd rather go on bein' discontented than take a chance of bein' plain desperate."—Washington Star.

WE WOULD LIKE TO FIND

A horseman or farmer who doesn't think 50 to 75 cents is too much for a horse shoe—a blacksmith who doesn't think $7.50 to $9.00 is too much for a pair of shoes—a shoe retailer who likes to pay $50 for a suit of clothes—a gentleman outfitter that likes to pay the grocer 25 cents for a tin of tomatoes—a grocer who likes to pay a hotelman 75 cents for a meal—a farm woman that wouldn't take 35 to 50 cents a dozen for eggs—a coal dealer who is ashamed to take $16 a ton for coal—a machine agent who sells a binder at $250 who doesn't think an automobile dear at $500, etc.

Don't you think it's about time that we got used to the change in the standard of living? Isn't it absurd when you see a hen man or woman take 35 to 50 cents for a dozen for eggs, then yell to high heaven when she or he finds cotton 30 cents a yard? The blacksmith who shoes a shoe-man's horse and charges him 75 cents per then wants to buy a pair of shoes next day at the pre-war price? A workman who got $2 before and has $3.50 now wanting a suit of clothes for $20.00? Who are the worst kickers? Does the above apply to you? Everybody seems to be as poor as before the high prices—nobody is building castles or over-modest homes—except the war profiteers, and that happens after every war—so who is ahead on the prices any more than they were on the deal and gone low prices? Factories are going bung every day. Our largest stores are falling one after the other. The farmer says he is busted. The business man is waiting for the Bailiff—who has got the long end of the stick? Tell us, we want to know?

We can prove an alibi at any rate to getting rich or making even a decent living, this last year. Don't you think we had just better go along buying as usual? Forget the past and what our parents used to get things for. Keep the money going! Every time you tighten your strings, you boost the price of the next thing you're going to buy. Forget it! Undoubtedly, we all spent too much when money was easy. History taught us the after effects of war. We read and forget. A bad memory gets man into bad holes; also notions. Next time, we will take a look at our local monuments, remember. "No, not us; we will do it all over again. Just writing the above, we listened to a conversation in a store. The price of the article was $1.35, that left a 9 cent profit to the store (we were shown the invoice). The customer said it was too dear by a long shot. He is selling an article for $280 that 8 years ago was selling for $180. The store man called his attention to the fact. His argument was that "we don't make the price." The store keeper conceded the point; but asked him if his commission wasn't paid on the extra $100. This silenced him. The store keeper informed him that "we don't make the price."—"Evermore" in Walkerton Telescope.

Women Should Propose

A Cleveland minister makes the plea that women be allowed to make the proposal of marriage. He says that men have bungled the job and declares that if the truth were known, it would be found that in 90 per cent of the happy marriages, the women did the picking. He is probably right in his contention that women are better qualified by nature for selecting life mates than men; but what does he mean by asking that women be allowed to do the proposing? It seems a little difficult to catch that. It sounds like a proposal to let the hunted do the hunting.
