ADDRESSES HAMILTON MASONIC GATHERING

Rt. W. Bro. S. D. Croft of Durham Chapter Visited Hamilton Lodge Last Week.

In our last issue, we referred briefly to the fact that Mr. S. D. Croft of this place, Superintendent of Wellington District Royal Arch Masons, had addressed the brethren of the Craft at the annual reunion of Arch Masons at Hamilton. We clip the following from the Thursday issue of The Hamilton Spectator, which will be of much interest to Mr. Croft's friends in Durham:

A most successful and important Masonic function was held last evening in the new blue room of the Masonic temple, James street north, when the Royal Arch Masons of the city held their annual reunion.

The meeting was attended by a particularly large number of the chapter members and many master Masons from the city and district, while officials from Toronto and other cities were also present and gave short, but interesting, addresses.

Included on the program of speakers were: Most Ex. Comp. Walter H. Davis, G.Z.; Rt. Ex. Comp. H. T. Smith, G.E.S.; Rt. Ex. Comp. Fred C. H. G. Smith, G.S.; Rt. Ex. Comp. Dr. A. J. Evans, G.S.; Rt. Ex. Comp. S. D. Croft, G.Z.; Rt. Ex. Comp. S. W. Seago, G.S.; while the musical program was contributed by W. Bro. Fred Davidson, F. Edenden; W. Bro. Clarke, George Newlove, W. Vollick and A. Thompson.

The speakers dealt with the history of the Royal Craft, which originated as far as the records show in 1740 and many interesting points in connection with the work during that time were touched upon, while the manner in which it is carried on in the province of Quebec, where there are two chapters in which the whole ritual is in the French language, was spoken of by the chairman.

It was remarked that in the latter part of the 18th century, the first chapter was in operation at Niagara, and shortly after that Calarqui chapter was formed at Kingston, followed still later by St. John's in Toronto.

The event last night, which was in the nature of a reunion, proved to be so successful that it will most likely become an annual affair and to the activities of Rt. Ex. Comp. Sidney Forbes, grand superintendent of district 5, full tribute was paid for its inauguration. Similar functions will be held at Milton, May 11; Ancaster, May 18, and Oakville, May 27, while the dedication of the R. A. temple at Oakville will be held on May 19, when it is expected that there will be a large attendance from this city and all the chapters throughout the district.

At the conclusion of the program last evening, a vote of thanks to the speakers and those assisting on the program was moved by R.W. Bro. F. R. Martin, D.D.G.M., and R.W. Bro. John Forth, D.D.G.M., both of whom spoke briefly on the work of the craft and the manner in which the evening's entertainment had been carried out.

APPLICATIONS IN PRINTERS' HANDS

Beer Permit Blanks To Be Sent to Hotels on Saturday.

Application blanks for 4.4 per cent beer permits are now in the printers' hands and will be sent to standard hotel proprietors in duplicate on Saturday, it was announced Tuesday morning. Up to the present, owing to the absence of Hon. W. F. Nickle, attorney-general, in Kingston, the questions asked on the application blanks could not be obtained.

Applications will be made out in duplicate. One copy will be held by the license board, and the other will be forwarded to the local O. T. A. inspector for a report. After the reports are received, the board will grant the permits if the recommendation is favorable.

It has not yet been determined whether the license board will have the final say in the granting of the permits or whether the attorney-general will sanction the application.

It is felt, however, that the license board will handle the applications with the exception of "dubious" applications, which will go before the attorney-general for final decision.
