Mr. James Murphy of Concession 8 has the framers busy preparing the timbers for a big enlargement to his barn. Each succeeding year, Zion's festivals grow in numbers in happy blending of neighborhoods and in its joyousness. The picnic on Saturday afternoon was a fine success. Good day, big crowds, bright program of songs, music, recitations, an excellent supper, candy treat, program of sports, followed by holy-contested baseball games, all combined to make every minute of intense interest. Rev. J. E. Peters added greatly to the program his portrayal of "Elyourunif" will be come an adage. A mouth organ duet by Miss Iona Beaton and Mr. Jack Petrunka was especially sweet, and the cornet solo by Mr. Bryson Morlock was his best yet. The musical numbers by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McNally and James Poat on violins and Mr. Morlock on the cornet were very finely rendered, and they had to respond to the repeated encores. Among outsiders present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Hamilton, Saskatoon, Sask., who have many warm friends hereabouts, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lennox and Misses Alice and Minnie, the latter two giving a very sweet duet, Durham, Dornoch, Markdale and the surrounding country were all well represented. The crowd enjoyed to the limit, the sports, especially the "Donkey" race. Dornoch boys played a game of baseball against combined teams of the Rocky, Edge Hill and Zion and won out with a good margin. In the match between Zion's fair ones and those of Waudby, the former were winners. Under E. R. Peart and J. R. Edwards, the booth did a thriving trade and was sold out early. Your scribe bids everyone come again. Mr. Robert Bryans has Messrs. Daniel Brodie and Arthur Varty busy this week reshingling his barn.

SERIOUSLY ILL FROM EFFECTS OF STROKE

Mrs. Allan McKinnon Stricken Yesterday Afternoon While in Her Garden, and Removed to Red Cross Hospital. Some time yesterday afternoon while in her garden, Mrs. Allan McKinnon, mother of Mrs. J. M. Burgess, was seized with a paralytic stroke and is now confined in Durham Hospital, still in an unconscious condition. How long Mrs. McKinnon was ill before being discovered is not known definitely, but is not thought to have been long. About 5 o'clock she was found by Miss E. Chadwick, a neighbor, lying in her garden, and as Mr. and Mrs. Burgess has left earlier in the afternoon on a short motoring trip, she notified the doctor, who ordered the patient taken to the hospital. Though still in an unconscious condition, we trust that Mrs. McKinnon's condition will improve and that she will soon be convalescent. Jim: "Where did you get all the money?" Jack: "I borrowed it from Tom." Jim: "From Tom? Why, I thought he was pretty tight." Jack: "He was."

MRS. A. MCKINNON DIED THURSDAY

Pioneer Resident of This City Passed Away After Brief Following Stroke. — Interred Monday Afternoon in City Church Cemetery.

Last week we reported the illness of Mrs. Allan McKinnon from a paralytic stroke. She died on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Mrs. McKinnon was in her health Wednesday morning. She had been asked to join her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Burgess, on a trip to Stayner to visit her mother. She, however, preferred to remain at home and was around as usual throughout the day. In the afternoon, about 4 o'clock, she was in her garden which was extremely fond, and had a conversation with a neighbor, Miss Edith Chadwick. Shortly after, Mrs. McKinnon was taken to the hospital. The doctor, who was summoned, found that she had suffered a paralytic stroke and her removal to the hospital was necessary. The feelings of Mrs. Burgess better be imagined than described when she returned that evening to find her mother in such a condition, as she had appeared well earlier in the day. The never recovered consciousness passed away about 11 o'clock next morning.

Mrs. McKinnon, whose name was Elizabeth, was the eldest of Messrs. Thomas and Elizabeth F. McComb of this town. She was born in Belfast, Ireland, 24, 1848, and would therefore be 77 years of age on the day of this month. When one year she came with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McComb, to Canada, the family settling at where they lived for 11 years. They then moved to Burrows, Glengly Township, near the town of Glengly, where she was 58 years of age to Mr. Allan McKinnon and where they lived up to 30 years ago when they came to Durham. She purchased the present property on the road where they lived until the death of Mr. McKinnon eight years ago. Mrs. McKinnon then resided in Upper William Street in Upper where she resided up to the day of her death. An unusually good woman, Mrs. McKinnon was a good health up to about five years ago when she commenced to feel ill. She had been in poor health during the past years, she gave no evidence of being away with such tragic illness. Immediately her serious illness was known, her two sons, Willie, Sask., and Archie, Winnipeg, were notified and immediately made preparations to come East, but before the start of their journey, the start of her death was sent them. The feature of her death is that that her son, Archie, and were making arrangements to be by motor for the East last day of the funeral, and intended spending the summer with Messrs. Dan and Archie, and J. M. Burgess of this place, only surviving members of the family, and they and other have the sympathy of the city in the loss of their mother, a woman highly respected and beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

The funeral on Monday at 10 o'clock was very largely attended by friends from both city and country who gathered their last tribute of respect whose death they so deeply grieved. The services at the grave, in charge of the Rev. Mr. Burnett of the Presbyterian church, were very comforting to the sorrowing ones, and mainly were reverently laid those of her life partner who deceased her eight years ago. Among those from a distant attendance at the funeral were Mrs. S. McComb of Paiton and son, Albert McComb, of G. O. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Moorefield, Mrs. Neil McComb, daughter Laura, son Bobs, a Walker of Toronto, Mr. Archie McComb of Toronto, Lloyd Miller of Brantford, Mrs. Thomas McComb and McComb of Williamsford, and Mrs. George Stothart of Centre.

A very enjoyable time was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ramage of Priceville on Saturday evening of this week. The Dromore choir turned out in strength and had an old-time practice with their old choir. Mr. Edgar Renwick, former Dromore, and bride, of L. Dromore, and also Mr. A. Thomas Atchison of Durham, latter a member of the choir for many years.

After choir practice a very appropriate singing, a lunch was served, when all their several homes.
