

Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent) We are having a wonderful season for general growth at present, and with continued blessings, we should have excellent crops here this year.

A number of our young folks attended the 12th of July parade in Dundalk on Monday where we believe a real day was celebrated by a bumper crowd.

We are glad to hear that Miss Donaldia Nichol is able to be around again, after a rather severe attack of what must have been appendicitis. We hope that there will be no repetition.

Mr. Roderick McEachern is confined to bed with a sore foot. Dr. Carr is in attendance, and we hope for a speedy recovery.

Miss Janet McDonald continues to improve again after a recent setback in health.

Swinton Park football team visited our village on Saturday evening and gave our boys a trimming. A return game is arranged for next Saturday in Swinton Park, and we hope to return the compliment.

Rev. Mr. Fowler, a former Flesherton pastor, occupied the pulpit for the Union services here on Sunday last.

Communion service was observed here by the continuing Presbyterian body last Sunday with a good attendance. Rev. Sutherland officiated in his usual able manner.

Last year's garden party under the auspices of Edge Hill Sunday school was such a success that steps are under way to have another just as good and better if possible in the near future.

Edge Hill Sunday school picnic was held last Saturday afternoon in Mr. J. G. Firth's bush and was a splendid success.

We learn that a male teacher is to be principal of our school for the next school term.

A fine crowd attended the Sunday school picnic held in the school grounds last week, and all report a good time.

hope that you may live a life of happiness and great prosperity and that no occasion may take you from our midst. We take great pleasure in asking you to accept this small gift.

Edge Hill

(Our Own Correspondent) Mrs. A. Anderson spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Beaton.

Miss Mary Moffat of town is holidaying among her former school mates.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Firth and family of Toronto are spending their vacation at their summer home here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Robinson and Arthur, and Miss Myrtle visited friends in Ayton on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Firth and daughter, Glennie, are visiting for a few days in Toronto.

Master John Ritchie of Egremont is enjoying holidays with his cousin, Dan Ritchie.

Miss Robinson and nephew of Toronto were guests for a few days with her brother, Mr. David Robinson.

Last year's garden party under the auspices of Edge Hill Sunday school was such a success that steps are under way to have another just as good and better if possible in the near future.

Edge Hill Sunday school picnic was held last Saturday afternoon in Mr. J. G. Firth's bush and was a splendid success.

We learn that a male teacher is to be principal of our school for the next school term.

A fine crowd attended the Sunday school picnic held in the school grounds last week, and all report a good time.

Brown on passing his entrance examinations and winning a silver medal from Warton Public school.

Swinton Park

(Our Own Correspondent) L. O. L. 1136 went on Monday to Dundalk to celebrate this year, and a large crowd was on hand as about 60 lodges were present.

Mr. R. Campbell of Walkerton is spending a few days at Mr. G. Haw's. Mr. and Mrs. G. McCormick and family spent the week-end visiting the McMillan and McCormick families.

The Swinton Park football team played a friendly game with the Priceville team on Saturday evening and were again victorious beating Priceville 2 to 0 on their own grounds.

Mr. H. Richardson is getting along as well as can be expected after his recent operation.

Mrs. M. Pate and son, William, of Oxbow, Sask., are visiting friends in these parts.

Mr. J. Hay raised his barn on Saturday and has it nearly completed.

Mr. Thomas Hornsby is home again after a visit with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Harrison, Jr., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weir, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Weir, Glenelg.

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McKelvey last Thursday night to extend a welcome to Mrs. McKelvey, and presented them with a kitchen cabinet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison and daughter, Roberta, of Detroit are holidaying among relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritchie, Dorothy and Dan, and Mrs. William Ritchie of Durham, visited recently at Mr. J. Weir's.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lynn, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. William Brigham, motored to Kincardine Monday.

Glenmont

(Our Own Correspondent) Mr. Alfred Tucker and son, Roy, spent Friday in Southampton with his daughter, Miss Susie Tucker, and also called on his brother, Dr. R. Tucker, of Paisley.

Miss Mabel Tucker, R.N., of Detroit, is spending a few weeks' vacation at the parental home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weir, Sr., of Glenelg, visited recently with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Adams and sons spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. Abraham Hooper's.

Mr. Thomas Hornsby is home again after a visit with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Harrison, Jr., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weir, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Weir, Glenelg.

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McKelvey last Thursday night to extend a welcome to Mrs. McKelvey, and presented them with a kitchen cabinet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison and daughter, Roberta, of Detroit are holidaying among relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritchie, Dorothy and Dan, and Mrs. William Ritchie of Durham, visited recently at Mr. J. Weir's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison and daughter, Roberta, of Detroit are holidaying among relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritchie, Dorothy and Dan, and Mrs. William Ritchie of Durham, visited recently at Mr. J. Weir's.

Holstein

(Our Own Correspondent) The members of L. O. L. 2296 assembled in their lodge room early Monday morning to prepare for the celebration of the Battle of the Boyne.

Miss Margaret Fletcher was called to Toronto last week to see her niece, Miss Flora McKinnon, who is in the hospital there.

Mr. and Mrs. William Weir, Sr., of Glenelg, visited recently with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Adams and sons spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. Abraham Hooper's.

Mr. Thomas Hornsby is home again after a visit with relatives in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Harrison, Jr., accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Weir, spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. William Weir, Glenelg.

A number of friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McKelvey last Thursday night to extend a welcome to Mrs. McKelvey, and presented them with a kitchen cabinet.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison and daughter, Roberta, of Detroit are holidaying among relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritchie, Dorothy and Dan, and Mrs. William Ritchie of Durham, visited recently at Mr. J. Weir's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison and daughter, Roberta, of Detroit are holidaying among relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ritchie, Dorothy and Dan, and Mrs. William Ritchie of Durham, visited recently at Mr. J. Weir's.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harrison and daughter, Roberta, of Detroit are holidaying among relatives here.

Ingersoll recently, returning last Friday evening.

BUCK JONES COMING

(Our Own Correspondent) It wasn't so many years ago that the strife between the cattle men of the northern and the southern ranges was savage and long drawn out.

The powerful story of "The Trail Rider," written by George Washington Oden, has that old cattle war as a basis.

It is a William Fox production and will be shown at the Veterans' Star Theatre tomorrow and Saturday evenings.

It isn't the money boys inherit that makes fools of them. It is something else they inherit.

Mr. Roy McLean, teller in the Bank of Montreal here, returned Tuesday after a two weeks' vacation with relatives and friends in Alliston and other points.

Miss Jean Coleridge of Toronto spent a few days recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Coleridge.

We congratulate Misses Eunice Tyndall and Ethel Hunt on their success in passing their Normal school examinations.

Mrs. R. Morrison and daughter, Ruby, spent a day recently with Mr. W. J. and Miss Ethel Sharpe.

Mrs. Joseph Sharpe and daughter, Martha of Glenelg called on relatives in the village on Sunday.

The annual Sunday school picnic was held in the park on Wednesday of last week and was a decided success.

Mrs. Harry Reay of Hanover and Mrs. J. Backus of Durham visited at J. Leith's recently.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Leith, Durham, were recent visitors at Mr. W. Nelson's.

Mulock

(Our Own Correspondent) (Too late for last week) Heartfelt sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howell of Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLean of Aberdeen and Mr. and Mrs. John Howe of Saskatchewan were the guests of the latter's uncle, Mr. Donald McKechnie, Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hastie one day last week.

The pupils of S.S. No. 6, Bentinck, presented their teacher, Miss I. E. Dobbie, before leaving for her holidays at Owen Sound, with several pieces of French ivory and a beautiful flower vase and wished her a pleasant vacation.

Among those from here who attended the barn raising at Mr. Arch Beaton's at Glenelg Centre on Monday of this week were Rev. and Mrs. Crickington, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie and Miss Mary McKechnie, Mr. Sander and Miss Katie Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. George Twamley and daughter, Alice, of Victoria, B. C., are at present visiting their many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McDonald and Masters Warren and Evan of Toronto are spending a pleasant holiday at the home of Miss Annie Hobkirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kenny are attending the wedding of a friend today.

Darkies' Corners

(Our Own Correspondent) Master Allie McGirr is visiting with his aunt, Mrs. T. Watson, Galt.

Mr. and Mrs. James Atkinson and family and Mrs. J. Atkinson and daughter, Miss Margaret, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. P. McRae, Palmerston.

Mrs. N. McCannel spent the weekend in Toronto.

Sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. H. Greenwood in their loss by fire Saturday last.

Mrs. Lawrence Chapman spent a few days recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cuff.

Little Miss Rita Williams and brother, Master Harry, of Mimico, are visiting with their grandmother, Mrs. Robert Bell.

Mrs. S. Johnston of Detroit is visiting her sister, Mrs. John McGirr.

Aberdeen

(Our Own Correspondent) Mr. Jack Smith of Niagara and Mrs. Ludwick and little daughter, Margaret of Cleveland, are visiting their mother, Mrs. J. W. Smith.

Miss Bertha Ritchie of town spent a few days with her friend, Miss Stella Lynn.

Congratulations to Mr. John Ewens on passing his entrance examinations.

Miss Margaret McPhail of Priceville is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch. McCormick.

Mr. Archie Ferguson of Proton spent a couple of days last week at Messrs. James and Hugh McDonald's.

Mr. and Mrs. McGillivray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. John Howe of Saskatchewan were the guests of the latter's uncle, Mr. Donald McKechnie, Mr. and Mrs. John McKechnie and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hastie one day last week.

The pupils of S.S. No. 6, Bentinck, presented their teacher, Miss I. E. Dobbie, before leaving for her holidays at Owen Sound, with several pieces of French ivory and a beautiful flower vase and wished her a pleasant vacation.

THE KING IS DEAD; LONG LIVE THE KING

Local Quoit Tossers Dethroned After Thrilling Contest on Queen Street Lot.

After a summer's supremacy as kings of the local quoit pitchers, Messrs. Thomas Moffat, heavier extraordinary, and his partner, Mr. Harry Huggill, went down to defeat at the hands of Messrs. D. C. Town and A. Haug last Tuesday evening after a grilling contest.

If there is one place in town where enjoyment reigns supreme these balmy summer evenings, it is on the lot back of the town hall where Durham's professional and amateur quoit tossers hold forth.

Besides the exercise, the contestants have a lot of fun, and as time goes on, the queue of spectators grows longer and longer.

The easiest way to be boss in your own house is to let your wife have her own way.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan McDonald and Masters Warren and Evan of Toronto are spending a pleasant holiday at the home of Miss Annie Hobkirk.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Kenny are attending the wedding of a friend today.

Schutz's Pump & Tile Co.

TILE ALWAYS ON HAND Sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, 15, 16, 18, 24 in. CEMENT BRICK FOR SALE Agents for Renfrew Cream Separators PUMPS & PUMP REPAIRING Promptly Attended to and all work Guaranteed. OPPOSITE HIGH SCHOOL

JULY CLEARING SALE

High-Priced Corsets at Less Money We are closing out our entire stock to make room for new goods. Now is your chance to purchase high-quality Corsets and accessories at greatly reduced prices. MRS. J. C. NICHOL Durham, Ontario.

Water! Water! Water!

What Is Good Health Worth? Why take a chance and use water that is polluted and unfit for domestic use, when Pure Water can be had by having a well drilled. We handle Pumps and Pump Repairs. Satisfaction Guaranteed ED. J. PRATT R.R. No. 4, Durham. Phone 98-13

McKechnie's Look these prices over. We can save you dollars on your buying Men's Straw Hats, from $1.75 to $2.50 Also a complete line of Peanut Straws Men's Silk Knitted Ties, each .50c Men's Work Shirts in Blue Chambray and Khaki, a large shirt for a large man $1.00 Men's Cotton Sox in Grey, Black and Brown, per pair .19c Men's Tennis Shoes in White or Tan Duck with Crepe Soles, per pair $1.75 Boys' Tennis Shoes in Tan Duck with Crepe Soles, per pair $1.49 Grocery Specials Libby's Pork & Beans, tin 45c 4 lb. tin of Wagstaffe's Pure Strawberry Jam $1.00 Ginger Snaps, 2 lbs. for 25c Apple Blossom Cakes, lb. 25c Emblem Baking Powder .25c 1-lb. tin Magic Baking Powder for $1.00 .35c Sour Mixed Pickles, large bottle .25c John McKechnie - Durham

ROPE! ROPE! We have a large stock of Pure Plymouth Hay Fork Rope Don't be deceived. Look for the label "Plymouth" on every rope. Only 7c. per ft. CARBORUNDUM SECTION STONES, 90c HAY FORK PULLEYS, 85c PURE ENGLISH PARIS GREEN, lb., 50c Cross & Sutherland Hardware Co., Limited Durham, Ont.

LAWRENCE FAMILY HELD HAPPY REUNION

Gathered at Home of Parents to celebrate Golden Wedding on day Evening Last.—Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lawrence Have Been Spectored Residents of This for Many Years.

A happy family gathered held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Lawrence, Lambton last Thursday evening when the children and families met at the of the venerable couple to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day.

It was on the 12th of July that Anthony Lawrence and Lotte Wright were married in Lambton, the young couple removed immediately to Toronto where they lived for one year turning to occupy the old Lambton homestead in Glenelg, on the Line, they farmed for a few years subsequently living for several years in Bentinck, and later returned to take possession of the home in Glenelg, where they lived 12 years ago, when they returned to their residence on Lambton Street.

The reunion on Thursday most happy one, only the immediate members of the family present, and following the presentation of suitable commemorative of the fiftieth anniversary of a pleasant life, a pleasant time was spent in social intercourse and music.

ST. PAUL'S ANGLICAN HAD GOOD C...

Annual Anniversary Service Sunday Even. Well Attended Held Garden Party Monday.

The anniversary service of St. Paul's Anglican church, held last Sunday evening, was well attended, a capacity congregation present at the afternoon service while in the evening, the choir were turned out by the preacher for the day, the Rev. J. Morris, besides preaching two quiet sermons, spent a brief noon and evening refreshment acquaintanceships of nine.

The Sunday services were well attended and the evening social evening was a pleasant one. The evening was an ideal one, just warm enough to enjoy a good patronage.

After dusk, and when the lighting plant furnished illumination, a good program was given, the rector, Rev. J. H. being in the chair. The choir, the Misses Lennox quartette, and a duet by Stonehouse and Miss A. R. violin selection by Miss Queen was well rendered.

Good addresses by Rev. J. H. and Rev. J. H. of Woodstock and the National Anthem program to a close about after which the crowd self to consuming the ice cream, cake, pie, etc. secured at very reasonable prices everyone had a good time.