Priceville

(Our Own Correspondent) This is ideal weather for the holiday season, and quite a number of tourists are spending theirs in and around our village. We would like to have people know that we have as fine a location for a nice holiday as any other town, but to go into its many merits would take too much space, so we will just have to leave it to the people to come and find out—to fish trout, to bathe in really good clean running water such as our Saugeen, and to camp along its shores is a treat for a king. There are excellent roads for motoring, good railroad facilities and numerous other advantages. Well, come and try it and contradict if you dare.

Miss F. B. McLean is home for her holidays, also Miss K. McTaggart.

Mrs. Dolson and family are with us again for a while.

Miss E. McNaig is home from Alberta where she teaches school. We are glad to see our young folk back again even for a short while.

This Week's News

Mr. and Mrs. W. Embury and daughter of Toronto were week-end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. William Moore.

The electrical storm of Tuesday evening was a disastrous one to Mrs. Charles Small, who had her frame barn struck by lightning and burnt to the ground, together with a span of horses which were in the stable. We understand the insurance is small compared with the loss.

Mr. Reuben C. Watson is erecting a new stove silo.

The rain on Tuesday evening was the best of the season in this neighborhood. Although some of the heavy grain crops will be flattened it will greatly assist the crops in reaching full maturity.

Mrs. H. Sealey, we regret to say, is at time of writing critically ill with little hope for her recovery.

Hutton Hill

(Our Own Correspondent) (Too late for last week)

Haying is the order of the day in this vicinity. The hay crop is very light in this part this year, while the grain appears to be so far an average crop. For the two weeks previous, attending picnics, garden parties and rallies has been the order of the day and night.

A large number from this and the surrounding vicinities of Durham celebrated the glorious twelfth in Dundalk.
