We are having ideal harvesting weather this year, and the farmers are rushing the work along while the weatherman continues to smile on them. This week, if present conditions prevail, will see a lot of the farmers of this district done.

McLean, Mr. Murray Nichol, Mr. Leroy McDonnell and sister, Leone, Mr. Murray Watson and Miss Hilda McKechnie, and others which we cannot at this time name, as the village feels justly proud of the standing of the class generally.

Mr. Thomas Nichol is well enough again after his accident to take charge on the good roads building program.

We hope to hear encouraging reports of Mrs. D. Hines now that she is home again from Owen Sound Hospital where she had received treatment for the past week.

We were glad to see the two former Henderson ladies and their husbands and families in our locality this week-end. They at one time lived on the North line on the farm now owned by Mr. Stothart. 'Tis good to see that their school days friends were remembered by them after quite a few years' absence from this locality. We are not acquainted with their names at this time, so we will hope that we will be pardoned for using the only names available.

Harvesting is yet in full swing. A few have already finished, but the majority have finished cutting and are busy hauling the grain to storage. The grain crop, on the average, is very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Findlay McCaig and three children of Mulock spent an evening the first of last week with relatives here.

Mr. Bates, of near Chesley, is assisting Mr. William Manto during the harvest.

his brother, Mr. George Noble, north of town. Messrs. Frank Hopkins and Howard Lawrence left last Friday for the West.

Mr. William Grierson is with Mr. William Vessie threshing with the latter's outfit.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Hopkins and two little daughters, Wilhelmine and Jean, spent a week ago Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hopkins.

Only one more week and we will see the children strolling back to school again. It seems such a brief time since the school closed for the long-looked-for vacation, and now it is ended. We hope each and every child will do his or her duty for themselves as well as the teacher. We hope as well that all will respect our teacher, Miss Petty, and assist her by obeying her orders in place of just aiming to put everything to destruction and taking tales home as was done previously to teachers.

An old and esteemed resident of the neighborhood for over 50 years in the person of Mrs. Neil McCallum passed away at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Torry on Saturday, August 22, at 2 o'clock. The deceased was a cheerful, beautiful, old lady of 82 years and was much loved by all who knew her. She was always smart and able to go around until about two months ago. In spite of the best medical attendance and faithful nursing and care, she gradually grew weaker. She wasn't afraid to die, but was anxious to depart, as to be with Christ is far better. Mrs. McCallum was born in Wakefield, England, in 1843, and came to Canada with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Fawcett when a child. She was married in 1871 to Mr. Neil McCallum who predeceased her 20 years ago. She and her late husband were baptized by Rev. Mr. Barker and became members of the Pentecost Baptist church. Her pastor, Rev. H. Crickington, conducted the funeral services. Speaking from the 116th psalm, 15th verse, "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints," and Mrs. Crickington rendered very sweetly a solo, "God's Skies Are Blue." There live to mourn her loss, children as follows: John, Hamiota, Man.; Mrs. Phillips (Bella), Sarnia; Mrs. Charbonneau (Kate), British Columbia; Mrs. Levine (Lizzie), Blaine, Wash.; and Mary always remained at home and cared for her mother. Dugald and Hugh predeceased her some years ago. The remains were taken to Latona cemetery and laid to rest to await the call of the resurrection morn. The many personal floral tributes were beautiful. The pallbearers were: Mr. Neil McCallum and son, Howard, Mr. William Fulton, Mr. Ivy Walker, Mr. Spence Hopkins and Mr. Clark Torry. Miss Mary McCallum wishes to express her heartfelt gratitude to Mr. and Mrs. Clark Torry and family for kindness shown her and her mother during the past three weeks and to others who so kindly helped her before. During the Great War, the late Mrs. McCallum knit over 300 pairs of socks for the soldiers.

Rev. A. and Mrs. Hazard, and Misses Dorothy and Leona, accompanied by Mrs. Sarah Hazard and Master Clayton, were welcome visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ivy Walker last week.

The next meeting of the Egremont Council is to be held in the village mark distinction or any benefit, we do not know. If so, they certainly are entitled to it, as Dromore has always tried hard to give the farmers in the north a square deal, prices paid there for produce and also for goods sold having been well up to any of the surrounding towns or villages. For a time, they must have felt handicapped to compete so well with Holstein, which had a railroad running through it, and many of its citizens had hoped if the late Mr. Taylor had been spared for a few more years, that with his energy and influence, he could have gotten a branch line there. As time rolled on, and the motor truck came into existence, and a branch of the County road ran to it, they felt pretty well served and satisfied. At present, there is talk of taking away the County support and placing it on a road running east and west through Holstein which would seem very unfair to Dromore after its lifelong effort to have road accommodation for handling efficiently the farm produce of that tract of country, and the road through Dromore is much more central between the county roads running east and west at the Old Durham Road, Glenelg, and the other at Mount Forest, it seems unfair to everyone. However, we imagine Dromore people will wish some assurance that their road will be kept in good condition before giving it up.

Rev. and Mrs. W. J. Burnett, ora. Recipients of Aged Presentation from Durham Presbyterian Church.

The home of Mrs. N. Mc Lambton street was the happy gathering on Thursday noon of last week, the occasion of the presentation of the monthly work of the tea of the Presbyterian Ladies' Association.
