The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway reorganization plan has been approved by the French committee in Paris, representing holders of the 1910 European loan, and those persons have been advised to deposit their bonds immediately as Monday was the final day allowed for this purpose. About $11,000,000 of the loan is held in France.

Details of a new offensive against Moscow, with the Grand Duke Nicholas leading the fight for the overthrow of the Bolshevists, will be planned at a great meeting of Russian emigres from all over the world to be held in Paris about the middle of November. A committee was elected at a secret meeting of Russian emigres in France Monday and got under way the work of perfecting plans for the November congress.

The fatal crash in the Black Forest, Sunday, of the French Etampes-to-Bagdad airplane, with the consequent death of Robert Thierry and injury of Dieudonne Coste, his companion, was caused by a clogging of a gasoline line. The plane came down near Wilthal. M. Coste's injuries are slight. The presumption is that the diers became lost in a fog, and were endeavoring to ascertain their whereabouts when the machine fell.

Hard luck is in store for Communist members of the French Chamber of Deputies at Algiers who try to stir up agitation among the natives. Deputy Henriot has been placed in jail and Deputy Doriot is being sought for. Henriot was arrested Saturday, charged with plotting against the safety of the state. No charge has been lodged against Doriot. Last week the police had to protect him from the populace at Oran, which drove him out of the city. Henriot has been organizing Communist "cells," and the police allege that in addresses he incited the Arabs to revolt.

THE STORAGE AND TRANSPORTATION OF SEED POTATOES

Improper storage of potatoes results in the loss of thousands of bushels annually, says S. G. Peppin, Assistant Plant Pathologist. The careless handling of potatoes in transportation means financial loss and tends to have a serious effect upon the market.

Several factors influence the successful storage of potatoes. These are: temperature, ventilation, humidity, depth of pile and sound stock free from dirt.

Potatoes should be stored in as cool a temperature as possible without freezing. A good average temperature ranges around 36 degrees F. Good ventilation is essential to assist in carrying off excess moisture, particularly where potatoes are stored in large heaps. Control of temperature, moisture and ventilation can be obtained by using false floors, wall racks and air-shafts. Too dry an atmosphere causes shrinkage, therefore, a certain amount of humidity is necessary. In a bright year, careful grading should be practised. Potatoes showing rot should not be placed in storage. Avoid the development of certain rots in bruised and cut tubers by white-washing the interior of the storage houses. Potatoes should not be removed from the field in a wet or dirty condition, as these elements increase the possibility of rot in storage. In harvesting, care should be taken to avoid cutting or otherwise damaging potatoes, since it is often through these cut surfaces that storage rots gain entrance.

A grower's responsibility does not end when his potatoes have been bagged. The use of clean bags is a factor which at times is not taken into consideration. Bags or sacks should be either washed or sterilized. Second-hand flour bags are good providing they are not intended for storing any length of time. Salt or fertilizer bags should not be used under any consideration be used.

Directly or indirectly the grower is responsible for the arrival of his stock in a sound condition. Frost is by far the greatest obstacle to overcome. Care must be taken that the stock is not chilled during the trip from the farm to the shipping point. The liberal use of straw and blankets in the cold weather is essential. Similarly in the railway cars, straw and paper will reduce the possibility of freezing. Careful handling at sidings where no loading platforms are provided will prevent bruising. It is not unusual for several potatoes in a bag to be badly damaged by rough treatment. Careful piling in the car lessens the possibility of bruising during transit. It is always advisable to arrange the tiers that they will slant back and thus eliminate the danger of falling between the car doors where bulkheads are not used.

CHICKENS COMING HOME TO ROOST

Boys with shot guns are so pursuing the elusive rabbit in the East Ward that they are blazing at the bunnies as the latter hop over the properties of some residents there.

Now it seems that one of the property owners affected is none other than ex-Crown Attorney Dixon, who has the law on the matter down in or than a mosquito's eye-lash. It is recalled that many years ago, a Walkertonian was up for shooting at a cat inside the corporation, and he engaged Mr. Dixon to defend him.

In Mr. Dixon's quest to get his client off, he unearthed an old English statute that showed such animals as cats were classed as vermin, and as such could be legally shot anywhere, it was a master stroke on Mr. Dixon's part, and his client was acquitted.

The ex-Crown Attorney is now pestered with boys shooting rabbits on his premises, and can he now show that rabbits are less of a vermin than cats? The precedent that he used in getting his client off in the cat case might return like chickens, to roost in a rabbit action.—Bruce Herald and Times.
