MAY SEND 15 POUND PARCELS

It has been announced by the Postmaster-General that the postal service will now accept parcels weighing up to 15 pounds for transmission through the mails. There are a good many articles of general use slightly over the present limit of weight which it will now be possible to forward by mail. The regulation will be of particular value in cases where it is desired to forward heavier articles to parts of the country to which the postoffice is practically the only means of conveyance.

Some people say that talk is cheap. But 'tis not safe to heed 'em; I've known two simple words: "Be mine," To cost a man his freedom.
