HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Serving Tea Daintily

To give a touch of daintiness and temptation in serving beverages should naturally be the aim of every hostess. Especially is that true when serving tea.

There are still some warm days this month when a glass of iced tea can be appreciated. And to serve it prettily—just add a little mint to each glass. Get fresh mint if you can and sprinkle it with powdered sugar. Colored sugar can also be used—the kind that comes in red and green and can be purchased at most any confectioner's.

in a basket, which were numerous and useful accompanied by humorous expressions of best wishes in prose and poetry. Following is the address read by Mrs. John McKechnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Twamley.

Dear Friends: We, your neighbors and friends, have gathered here this evening to extend to you congratulations and best wishes for a long, prosperous and happy life. We trust that God the Giver of every good, and perfect gift, may surround you with many blessings and that you may be long spared to journey down life's pathway together. We desire to show our respect and esteem for you by asking you to accept these gifts. Though small in value, they are brimful of good wishes.

Before leaving for Hamilton, where she will reside, Miss Mary McCallum was presented with an address and purse of money at the home of her cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Neil McCallum. Following is the address and reply:

Dear Mary: It was with deep and heartfelt regret that we, your friends and neighbors, learned that you intended leaving our neighborhood, at least for a time. We felt that we could not let you depart from our midst without expressing in some tangible way our esteem and love for you. You are one of us, having been born and brought up in this vicinity, and during your life among us, you have been kind and obliging in every way, ever ready to sympathize with us in both our joys and our sorrows. We fully realize the faithful worker you were in all departments of our church. It is our earnest wish for you that Providence will assist you to prosper in all things and that you will form new and true friendships among your future associates. But no matter among what pleasant scenes your future may be cast or what satisfying friendships you may form, we know you will not forget your many friends at Mulock. We assure you that you will be remembered in our thoughts and prayers. Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbors—Henry Crickington.

Miss McCallum's reply to the purse of money presented her Friday evening of last week.—It is with feelings of gratitude that I wish to thank one and all of the many kind friends for so generous a gift. I sincerely appreciate the spirit in which it was given, the tender thoughtfulness and kind regards of the many friends which will never be forgotten.

MIGHT TAKE TO THE AIR

Mr. Joseph Sheard, the well-known thresher at Derry West, is having trouble reaching his patrons, so the Brampton Banner says. The highway authorities won't let him travel on the Centre Road with his steam tractor, because the cleats on the drive wheels rip up the tar top. It would cost him $300 to substitute smooth wheels, and he doesn't care to spend that much. The way things are going, it means that those farmers on the Centre Road who cannot be reached from the rear of the farms will have to postpone threshing time until the frost comes and the snow falls, when the cleats on the wheels will do no harm.

You don't matriculate in the school of experience. You just swallow a hook and there you are.
