

News of Nearby Towns

Walkerton

The marriage of Miss Lily A. R. Alexander, elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander of Eden Grove, to Mr. Archie D. Ferguson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ferguson of Galt, was solemnized in Galt on Wednesday, October 21.

On Saturday morning, October 17, a car driven by Mrs. A. Ernst of Brant, while turning a corner, crashed into Mr. Ed. O'Connor's McLaughlin touring car parked near Vogan's hardware, damaging the fender on the latter car and breaking the windshield and bending the radius rods on Mrs. Ernst's car.

On Saturday afternoon, October 17, the football teams of Kincardine and Walkerton High Schools played a tie game, the score being 1-1.

On Sunday afternoon, the death occurred of Charles Lewis Procknow at the age of 53 years.

On Friday afternoon, October 16, the Hanover town hall was about half-filled with women when Miss Agnes Macphail, Progressive candidate in South-East Grey, delivered a special address to the ladies.

On Monday evening of last week, about 50 neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adam Miller to bid them farewell before they left for their new home in Kitchener.

On Monday, October 19, Mr. and Mrs. Justus Eitd of Neustadt celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Henry Alles passed away at the home of his son, Charles, on concession 12, Brant, on Monday night, October 19, in his 70th year.

The marriage took place at the parsonage, Drew, of Miss Annie Marie Cowan, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cowan, Drew, and Mr. Everett E. Rawn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Rawn, Egremont.

The marriage took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bell, Resickville, on Saturday, October 17, of Miss Velma Elbert Cornfield, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Cornfield of Artesia.

The marriage took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bell, Resickville, on Saturday, October 17, of Miss Velma Elbert Cornfield, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Cornfield of Artesia.

Markdale Fair, held on Tuesday and Wednesday, October 12 and 13, was favored with fine weather on the last day and was, therefore, quite successful.

and the Associate Grand Master, Rev. R. A. Spencer of Dundalk, were present and assisted in conferring degrees.

On Tuesday morning, October 20, the death occurred in Glenelg Township of Mrs. Madeline Torry, widow of the late Robert Torry, at the age of 82 years.

Donald Boyes, son of Rev. F. N. Boyes of this place, was successfully operated on for appendicitis on Monday evening of last week and is now well on the way to recovery.

The death occurred in Flesheron on Wednesday, October 14, of Mrs. Harriet Kerwin in her 60th year.

On Saturday, October 10, Mrs. Allen of Eugenia passed away following an illness of some months.

On Sunday morning of last week, Mr. Joseph Hawken's barn on his farm on the eighth line, together with the season's crop, was destroyed by fire of unknown origin.

On Thursday, October 15, the members of the ladies' Athletic Club gathered at the home of Miss Mary Patton and presented Miss Dell Thurston with a beautiful hemstitched linen table cloth with serviettes to match and a cut glass bon bon dish.

German industrialists who, prior to the currency reform and the Dawes plan, plunged into the orgy of inflation then sweeping over the Fatherland, are today paying the price of their folly.

The Stinnes enterprises expanded on an extravagant scale during the war, but their growth was a sound as could be expected in abnormal warlike conditions of production and demand.

The rapid return of a sane currency struck the Stinnes, as it struck the heirs of Stinnes, a bewildering blow. Both were overburdened with cheaply acquired holdings which they found it impossible to keep up following the introduction of a scarce, because a healthier mark.

There are two sides to every question. This is just as true in advertising as in argument.

There are two sides to every question. This is just as true in advertising as in argument.

Going Too Far "Mamma," sobbed Willie, "do my ears belong to my neck or face?"

WEEKLY EDITOR'S HELD MEETING IN PALMERSTON

Dufferin and Wellington Press Association held Semi-Annual Gathering—Louis J. Ball, Manager of C. W. N. E. Present.

A large and representative gathering of the weekly newspaper publishers of Dufferin and Wellington Counties and adjoining districts took place in the Council Chamber, Palmerston, on Friday, October 16.

The meeting was made specially interesting by the attendance of Mr. Louis J. Ball, recently appointed manager of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association.

Mayor Lawrence welcomed the delegates to Palmerston in a very cordial manner, and after a reply by Mr. J. C. Temple of Ferguson, President, the meeting was opened.

The feature of the morning session was an address by Mr. Ball on producing an attractive paper. While editor of the Vernon (B. C.) News, Mr. Ball has the distinction of winning for three times in succession, a cup presented to the editor of the best weekly paper in Canada.

Mr. H. Braun, editor of "Printer and Publisher," was present to report the meeting for that paper—Palmerston Spectator.

DR. A. H. BROWN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT

Lion's Head Physician Met Death Last Week in Lindsay Township.

The whole community was shocked last week when they heard the news of the death of Dr. A. H. Brown, of Lion's Head, by accidental shooting, in the Township of Lindsay.

Dr. Brown was out on a hunting trip near Cape Chin with Mr. Mac. Smith. While Mr. Smith went into the home of Mr. Charles Hayes on some business, the doctor took a walk into the woods to do a little hunting.

Dr. Brown, who had been practising in Lion's Head for about 30 years, leaves a wife and two children, his wife and one daughter, 14 years of age to whom the general sympathy of the whole community is extended.

The prospects of flax cultivation are promising. In his report for 1924, recently published by the Department of Agriculture at Ottawa, Mr. R. J. Hutchinson, Chief Officer of the Fibre Division of the Experimental Farms, says that the year was the most encouraging for Canadian flax growers since 1920.

There are two sides to every question. This is just as true in advertising as in argument.

There are two sides to every question. This is just as true in advertising as in argument.

There are two sides to every question. This is just as true in advertising as in argument.

LONE BRITISH SAILOR RULED SAVAGE TRIBE

Hull, England, Boy Ran Away to Find Adventure and Did So.—By Sheer Blutz, He Made Natives Fear Him.—Was Made King.

No more romantic story in the long annals of British pioneering can be told than that related to a special correspondent at Hull, England, by Mr. John Boyes, a native of that great Yorkshire seaport city who is now in England enjoying a two years' holiday from the wilds of the African continent.

Mr. Boyes is the son of a Hull boot and shoe maker, and when he was only fourteen years of age, he ran away to sea filled with a longing for an adventurous life.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

On reaching Liverpool he managed to get a berth aboard a ship named the Knight of St. John and this took him to Rotterdam, where he missed the return voyage to Liverpool and found himself stranded in the Dutch port without visible means of subsistence.

dancing and singing weird music. There was some trouble with the medicine men who resented the entry into their midst of a white man, but he soon disposed of the witch doctors' power by challenging them to poison him with their supposed poisonous drinks, which he swallowed without the least consequence for they were nothing more than harmless herbs.

After two and a half years of rule, just at the zenith of Boyes' greatness, trouble came for a party of white men came into the neighborhood with a large force of armed troops. These proved to be government officials who had come to take the country over, and Boyes told the natives who reported the advance of the strangers, that they had come to take his place as ruler over them.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

During this stirring period of his career, John Boyes had a unique experience in elephant hunting. The restrictions which now exist as to the number of elephants shot did not then apply. He also shot lions waiting in jail for some weeks, was acquitted with flying colors. The administration of the country was then taken over by the British Government.

WEMBLEY EXHIBITION GOES TO LIQUIDATORS

Total Deficit May Reach Two Million Pounds.—Question of Fate of Buildings.

The British Empire Exhibition at Wembley is to be finally wound up and trustees are to be appointed forthwith to liquidate the exhibition in accordance with the regular custom in bringing to an end temporary associations.

The total deficit may reach £2,000,000, but this figure has not yet been definitely ascertained. This means an end to an enterprise which, in spite of its financial loss, has had very considerable effect on recent events in England.

Question of what is to become of the Exhibition buildings is giving the authorities a good deal of trouble. No course has actually been decided on, and some persons, it is understood, are not yet satisfied that it would be impossible to continue the Empire Exhibition in a smaller, but permanent form, and it is not unlikely some suggestion of this kind may be brought forward.

Used to Horses Teacher: "Now, Johnny, tell me the opposite of misery." Johnny: "Happiness." "And sadness?" "Gladness." "And the opposite of woe?" "Gee up!"

AFTER ALL There's Nothing To Equal Zam-Buk FOR THE SKIN!

NOBLE'S GARAGE SERVICE Headquarters for Oils Gas Greases ACCESSORIES OF ALL KINDS GUARANTEED REPAIRING

Chevrolet Sales and Service A. NOBLE, Prop.

Cold Weather Insurance on a Guaranteed Policy accompanies each COSY-HOME QUEBEC

It Heats---It Cooks---It Bakes---It Provides Hot Water---It Burns Any Fuel.

Even with a shallow fire, the Cosy Home Quebec bakes perfectly. Besides being very practical, it has a handsome appearance and is extremely durable.

The Queen Heater For temporary or occasional use gives good satisfaction. The large opening allows the use of blocks of wood. Large size $4.75

A. S. HUNTER & CO. THE HOME OF GOOD STOVES Hardware and Seed Merchants - Durham

it is said, is 90 years; Morrison, in McNaib, north also; Mr. Rocky Sau- James Eize, his 88th year. We find are yet quite at 75. Those and girls who on their par- is over sixty last year we left for the the Ledingham and father, Mr. Mr. Leding- first tree on years ago, of twenty-one also found that of Glenelg Charles Boyle, rimmers, moved White An- many others at the present and loss by fire and son whose destroyed by and was kindly illor Malcolm throwing his them from the a January preparing to this summer. "ror," read the history book, D. 1066," and for?" in- of course." some profiteer, cent from its SCHOOL hequipped ing courses: ulation. rmal School. Staff is a Uni- experienced ould prepare to term. courses may be nicipal. ditable record hopes to main- attractive and accommodate at reasonable A. Principal. Chairman. n's m- ng store ods suits now of IS TIES rts am, Ontario