IAL AND PERSONAL

Walter Kerr motored to Elora iday last accompanied by Nis the latter two to attend a ren given by their sister, Mrs.

Neil McKinnon, of Toronto. her sister-in-law, Mrs. Adam over the week-end. ong those who visited Toronto the past week and attended yal Winter Fair were: Misses n and Ruby Scarf, Mr. and obert Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. gnon and daughter, Norma nd Mrs. A. H. Jackson, Misses nage and M. Hunter, Mrs. Dan. iffe, Miss Elva Schutz, all of m, Miss McCracken of Aber-Mr. Emerson Peart of Glenrs. W. Greenwood of Glenels. r. Irvin Elvidge of Durham. Scott Davidson of Paris was est of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew over the week-end, while in ance at the funeral of her cours. C. Smith, on Monday.

Stumped!

rmer engaged a young lad large town. One cold winporning, the farmer told the harness the mule to the cart. d, for some reason, took no with him, and he was unable that there was a cow in the with the mule. After a long the farmer grew impatient outed, "Billy, what are you "I can't get the collar over ile's head," yelled back the His ears are frozen."

DHAM MADKET

į	I	1	į	ı	•	ř	1	1	ď	l			J	I	ı	ł	•	L	N	L	ľ	1	P	2	ı
(C	0	r	r	e	С	t	e	d	1	N	c	1	7 (e	m	ı) (91		2	6,		1	92	25
0	2	S	١.																			- 3
,																	1		2	5		a	þ	1		3
																			3	5	1	\widetilde{a}	1			40
																			6	0	1	a	1			6
16	2	1	t																6	5	1	a	1			71
																	1		1	5	1	\hat{a}	۲	1		2
À	r	a	11	n	,	I	H	(0)	ľ	(27	V	t				1		1	5	(\hat{a}	1	1		2
																1						\widehat{a}		2		0(
-										*				٠								a
			٠							٠	٠	•							3	0	(a
		I) (91	۳	J	D.	a	g					*					_					1	.!	5(
,1	D	18			٠	*	*	٠	٠		٠	٠		٠					5(0	(a	ľ			30.7
*		*	*			*	*		٠	•									~			_				33
									٠									7	TO 1		- 29	@				202
																					- 3	\widehat{a}			- 5
		٠		٠															R	5	0	\overline{a}			.5	20

ry Specials aturday of Fancy Bis-... 20c and 25c

ine of

APER

or Living Rooms, oms and Kitchens10c to 35c

R SAVES TIME

Durham

siness

offer this week:

and Girls' Hockhoes, reg. $4.00,

Box Calf Bals, m & Black, reg. $6.00 and $7.95,

Box Calf Bluch-

eg. $5.50 @ $3.75 ox Kip Bluchers $4.50 @ ... $2.75

@ 3 for 10c gular 20c, @..... 10c

RIBBONS AND LACES Ticking, Flannelette,

resser Scarfs.

AM

Announcements.

Durham, Ont.

HONEY OF MANY COLORS

Thursday, November 26, 1925.

Demand For Snuff

It fitted the fashionable world of Tree, in "The Silver Key," in which he played the libertine Duc de

Richelieu. The cigarette has its own old regime, to be sure, and lingered on into the 19th century, helped,

perhaps by the re-action which folprinting establishments. It was a way, suggests The Manchester

Guardian, of getting around a "No

Smoking" edict during working

Victoria Opposed

gain the tolerance of the fashionable world after the age of snuff

may be seen from the 19th century memoirs. In England, Queen Victoria was so implacably opposed to

How long it took smoking to re-

has no "kick."

varied walks of life.

Good for the Plague were provided with pipes. This was logical, assuming that tobacco had the medicinal virtues ascribed to it in the old days, and possibly the

are sold but usually to men as gifts

once or twice, it may be as a joke,

and then keep them as mementoes.

may be supposed that they do so in a spirit of bravado." Among Eng-ishmen, however, the pipe still holds its own in spite of the encreachments of the cigarette, and another authority writing for The limes even declares that "Happily

a reaction in favor of the more many form of smoking is observable.'

Nowadays, he says, no other kind of pipe can compete with the briar, although connoisseurs who can afford meerschaum consider that inomparable. Clay is fast disappearing, and the long "church warden"

is almost a curiosity, though if women should ever insist on smoking a pipe, they might find this quaint

A leader is a man who can per-suade others to finance his ambi-style the most becoming.

hours, but nowadays few people

erate tobacco in its cruder form.

Red honey sounds picturesque but hardly appetising, except perhaps for the tables of Soviet Russia. Yet Fast Disappearing there is such a honey, made by wild ica. On the Island of Madagascar, a species of bee manufactures a A quaint building at the water- peculiarly scented green honey. In sloth, he will see an animal whose side, the picture of which lately Europe a deep walnut colored honey very existence he might deem imfigured in the news, is found from is gathered from the aphids of the possible. If he goes out on the the accompanying text to be an an- sycamore tree. The famous heather prairies, the ranchers in that councient snuff mill at Mitcham, England, honey of Scotland is golden yellow try will tell him incredible stories which is to be closed. It was es- and a rose colored honey has been of that cunning wretch, the coyote tablished in 1790, and at the height produced by artificial feeding.

of its prosperity, turned out from | Here in Canada, our honey varies two to three tons of snuff a month, in color from white to very dark. but the demand has so fallen off that As a general thing, the flavor vareven this modest factory can no ies in the same way, and the lightlonger keep its wheels turning. How est is the mildest flavor. For this many such factories still survive reason, the organized beekeepers of many, for the practice of taking honey in four classes: light, light snuff appears to be virtually obso- amber, dark amber and dark. Since lete. Most people of the present this is done for the protection of box except in a museum of antiqui- be familiar with these honey stanties. Moralizing upon the closing dards.

of the Mitcham mill, the Manchester "Light" honey is derived chiefly Guardian suggests that "It would from the clovers, alfalfa, apple, be a bold man who would declare raspberry, basswood, Canada thistle that 'Now the cigarette had become and fireweed. The term "Clover a permanent institution among the habits of mankind." Certainly snuff Honey" is misleading. There is always a blending of these honeys, as was fashionable enough in the 18th the flowering season of these plants century to make natural the supoverlap each other. position that it had come to stay.

gives highest praise to Sir Herbert flowers.

about the same; the pantry is ideal. enough for the breakfast of the But they have passed away; the ornate elegance of the 18th cen- If exposed to damp air, honey will guests at the small hotel. tury is glaring. Snuff survived the absorb moisture and may ferment The kickninnies begin to rise from verton, Ontario, Sun.

Honey Toast

amount of toast. Slightly butter the can go no farther. slices of bread which you dip into The boys go out at night to these lard. Serve hot.

WERE OVER ENTHUSIASTIC

Conservative meeting held in Port caught that it was feared they Elgin previous to the late election would be exterminated. One 'oldit than even her most illustrious guests had to smoke by stealth if which had it been tried in the timer" used to build a dam across bacco was regarded as "low," and call animosity would have been the the celebrated men who had so bo-laigned for a free factor the hundreds to spread as a fertilizer hemian a taste were often obliged which in these days of some think- wants what he could use, salted to resort to the stables for its in-dulgence. A famous English author used to keep a store of pipes hid- as a huge joke. recovered their old freedom, but splendid orations on how the Con- would unquestionably become exslower. During the age of snuff, in fact, it had been almost forgotten than women had ever smoked. But in an interesting "Tobacco Supple-" Tobacco Supple-" Tob an interesting "Tobacco Supple- met with rousing and enthusiastic asked the young man who had just ment" issued by The London Times gives an account of pipes for women: "In England women were not slow to follow men in the adoption of the pipe. In the 17th century, the smoking of a clay was well esthe smoking of a clay was well es- let loose cheers that fairly made the rafters ring. The strongest Conservatives were the most enthusiastic cheerers, and one can easily imagine their feelings when they It is suggested by Mr. Dunhill realized for whom they were doing that an impetus was given to smok- the huge work. Nevertheless, they ing among women by the common took the joke in good spirit and belief in the disinfectant virtues of were soon roaring with laughter obacco against the plague. Accord- over how they had allowed their ing to a French traveler who visit- enthusiasm to run away with their ed England in 1672, the children senses .- Port Elgin Times.

SENTENCE SERMONS

One Boy Is Worth-Enough to abandonment of smoking among wo- justify any father's personal sacrimen in England was hastened by fice. the disappearance of the plague. Of | -More than this year's profits on late years, there have been from any business. time to time reports of the revival -- The time it takes for any man of pipe-smoking by women, but Mr. to be a big brother.

Dunhill, who should know as much | -Enough to warrant the city buyas anyone about the matter, finds ing up some ground for playgrounds. but a slight tendency in that direc- - Many times more than the cost "Quite a lot of ladies' pipes of any Sunday school. -More than the furniture in any to ladies who perhaps smoke them parlor. -So much that any business that debauches him becomes a total loss.

Women's Pipes "When women themselves buy a ipe, or pipe tobacco, they seldom admit that it is for personal use. Those who venture to smoke a pipe in public are extremely few, and it

Just In

STANFIELD'S Unshrinkable UNDERWEAR

A Queer Fish

Every part of the world, writes bees in the jungles of South Amer- correspondent, has its animals of peculiar interest to the tourist. If he goes south to the country of the if he goes still farther west into that little region of dry lands in British Columbia about Okanagan Lake, he will find some very remarkable

Seated early one warm September evening on a hotel veranda in that in the world? There cannot be Ontario are grading their extracted country, some tourists were comparing the strange creatures they had seen. When they had talked awhile, a native of the place volungeneration have never seen a snuff the consumer, the consumer should teered to introduce them to another curiosity of natural history that they might add to their collection. So at his invitation, they followed him down to a mountain stream that emptied into the lake close by It was only a yard or so wide, but it shot down over its steep course in a tremendous hurry to reach the lake. Close under the bank lay what seemed to be reddish stones, from eight to twelve inches long. The "Amber" honey is derived chiefly tourists were told to walk quietly the old regime, which did not tol- from dandelion, goldenrod, buck- to the edge, kneel down, place their wheat and wild flower blossoms. hands slowly in the water, then just as deliberately to grasp those red Snuff for Conservatives

Snuff for Conservatives

Snuff had its ritual; it was taken with an air to fit the lace ruffles that men wore. Of the actors who that men wore. Of the actors who that men wore to fit the lace ruffles that they found on lifting their prize from the water that they had from the water that they had from the water that they had the fit the lace ruffles the fit the lace ruf have sought for stage uses to re- "Dark" honey is derived from buck- a "kickninnie," a species of trout, Leastways, it hasn't yet. cover the art. The London Times wheat and the blossoms of fall and not a stone at all. The fun had It makes no difference if you're tall, started. Never before had they or fat, or short, or thin; caught a fish with nothing but their If you will work-and persevere Honey should be stored in a place bare hands, and in less than half Why, man, you're bound to win! where the temperature is always an hour, the three men had caught Good ancestors are mighty fine, > the lake bottom when the September, moon begins to show, and the Pancakes and honey are good for "run" is most numerous as the moon a beaten egg, according to the up the rapids of the stream till they stopped him in the hall.

the liquid and fry in butter or good streams with lanterns and gaff the fish as they dart by, for the kickninnies prefer to go up by moonlight rather than in the daytime. This practice of gaffling had to be A good one was pulled off at a stopped, as the fish were so easily den in the hedges of a country house where he visited. In the later 19th century, men gradually Clark Conservative candidate give without some creation of the contract of the proposed to his girl who was now to stimulate the growing of tobacco Hardly had the cheers for Meighen weeping heartily. "Have I offended pipe manufacturer, Alfred Dunhill, ceased when some wag yelled you?"

> Made an Ass of Himself "Why are you crying, dear?"

Three Cheers for Malcolm" (Liber- "No, dear," answered the maiden.

THE THINGS THAT COUNT

When I hear a fellow braggin' Of the lands in Tennessee, That his grandad owned, or maybe, 'Bout the days that "used to be, When his 'Pa' owned herds of cattle Down on the Rio Grande, It always sets me laughin', For I know, I understand. So I tap him on the shoulder, An' I tell him right away, Taint what you've had or used to be It's what you are today.

The only things that count at all In this here day and time, Is what you do-what father di-Ain't worth a silver dime, Don't let relations boost you, Or seek an easy place; Go right on up the ladder, And try to win the race. It's up to you to reach the top, Keep at it, don't delay, Cause what counts now, and always

Is what you do today.

You're building every hour you live, in the darkest shades, it is Moscow. So build it well, my son; Let others boast of what "has been, You prove what can be done. There's no such thing as failure, Fling far away the word, And toot your horn-but not too

For others should be heard. If difficulties 'front you, Jump right in; they'll fade away, Just show the world you're gri clean through,

By what you are today.

from the depths for the spawning boy next door was so much bigger season only. They dart with won- that he seemed to have the best of derful swiftness up the current and it invariably. So it was not an un-Cut slices of bread about half an come to rest in a pool for a few min- usual thing for one of the brothers seem to find it worth while. Pro- inch thick. Melt a sufficient quan- tes, then on up again, taking advan- to come into the house crying. One bably for a confirmed smoker, snuff tity of honey in milk to which add tage of stones and twigs to clamber day when this happened, his aunt

"Hush, Willie," she said. must not make any noise. "What-what's the ma-matter," he asked between sobs.

"You may disturb your new brother," said his aunt, soothingly. He dried his eyes in a minute. "Have I got a new brother," he

"One besides Jim?" She nodded again. "Bully!" he exclaimed. "You are glad of it?" she asked. "You bet!" he fairly shouted. "If Jim and me and the new one can't lick that fellow, we'd better move.

The Melody Boys' Orchestra

MUSIC FOR ALL OCCASIONS For Rates and Open Dates Apply to

H.E. PHIPPS, Manager Durham, Ont. Phone 24

she is slipping from her place faces a task but not a catastrophe.

among the nations. Her trials are —The New York Times. part of the world's trials. Her share of the world's trade is what it was before the war. If she must cope with nearly a million and a half unheight, Great Britain will recover vember 28, from 3 o'clock. Afterher proper share.

This is not the forced optimism of a former Conservative Chancellor of the Exchequer. It is precisely the same view held by so good a spokesman for the British Labor adfan Greys Chapter, I. O. D. E. Party as Mr. Sidney Webb. Indir- will be held in the A. Y. P. A. rooms ect corroboration is available from on Tuesday evening next, Decemother sources. If there is any one observation point from which British prospects have been visualized From the Soviet publicists have come the most emphatic and joyful Hill school December 11. A play, predictions of the steady collapse of "The Path Across the Hill," will England's economic life, the disrup-tion of the empire and Britain's fate mission 25 cents. Ladies with boxes to play the captive at the chariot free, it is Moscow that has hastened to Be sure and don't be late; explain the treaties at Locarno as The Zuzu and her Sally boyone more triumph for Great Britain. You'll laugh as sure at fate. At Locarno, according to the Moscow version, a great anti-Russian bloc has been organized under British leadership and backed by the AMUSEMENT COMPANY MEETING resources of American capitalism. THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE That is indeed a remarkably speedy shareholders of Durham Amusement recovery for a patient so sick as Company will be held in the rink England has been described.

need not be minimized. On the other be given and officers elected. hand, there is no question that pes- full attendance of shareholders is simism has been fed by something desired.—H. J. Snell, President. more than trade depression and unemployment. The militant note Your worth is gauged by what you struck by the trades unions at the Scarborough congress seemed to invoke the menace of revolution in -H. H. Fariss. the trail of industrial depression. But the attitude of political Labor lowed the French revolution. In ficlowed the French revolution is a sassociated with lowed the Fren whose conservatism is notorious. There are conservative trades as society might lose some of its onraso they are never caught in the later feelings of the boy whose trades as trong desire to work, and seen. They will not bite at a hook; troubles are related here. The brosociety might lose some of its onraso they are never caught in the there had more or less trouble with MacDonald's chief aids spoke at ments. So it is wise to be careful lake. Some people say they are a there had more of less trouble with MacDonald's chief aids, spoke at snuff-taking lingered longest in with the pancakes and honey.—Mil- deep-water fish and that they come ways come out victors. In fact, the copper Union. "No matter what ing to transfer the great industries by democratic methods to throughout on "democratic meth-Sir Robert Horne warned his Am- ods;" that is to say, on peaceful erican audience at the Pilgrims' constitutional agitation. With the dinner against exaggerated pictures spectre of revolution shown up for of Great Britain's gloomy future, bogey it is, Great Britain's economi England's present situation is dif- problems though sorely difficult, ficult, but this does not mean that take on their right proportion. She

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH BAKING SALE SATURDAY employed, it is because world trade UNDER AUSPICES DURHAM PRESis still 20 per cent below the pre- byterian church, a sale of baking war level. As the prosperity of the and fancy work will be held in the nations wins back to its former A. Y. P. A. rooms on Saturday, No-noon tea will also be served.

I. O. D. E. MEETING THE DECEMBER MEETING OF CAN-

EDGE HILL BOX SOCIAL A box social will be held at Edge tail of American capitalism. Yet Come see "The Path Across the Hill,"

Monday evening, November 30, at Great Britain's economic troubles 7.30 p.m. The annual report will

What Is Good Health Worth?

Why take a chance and use water that is polluted and unfit for domestic use, when Pure Water can be had by having a well drilled. We handle Pumps and Pump Re-Satisfaction Guaranteed

ED. J. PRATT R.R. No. 4. Durham. Phone 98-12

SERVICE

Headquarters for

Oils Gas Greases ACCESSORIES OF ALL KINDS

GUARANTEED REPAIRING

Chevrolet

Sales and Service A. NOBLE, Prop.

ROWE'S Bakery & Provision Store

Flour

The Finest Manitoba per bag $4.25

Pastry Flour 24 lb $1.00 Goods Delivered Anywhere in Town

Baker & Confectioner

Profit, Protection and Pleasure

Will be found by those who use Combination or Two-piece Suits of

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear

For Men, Women, Children

We are in a position to supply your needs, both in heavy and medium weight. You can get a surprizing amount of wear and comfort out of these combinations and two-piece suits.

J. & J. Hunter

General Merchants

Ontario Durham

New Dress Goods

To Arrive This Week

SATIN SLIPPERS High or Low Heel

C. L. GRANT

If It's Here, It's New The Ideal Men's Wear Store

If It's New, It's Here.

All Ready for Christmas

Our Store is Full of Christmas Gifts for Men and Boys

BE LUCKY—

Guess the count in the jar and get the prize 1st Men's, $6.00 Sweater Coat 1st Boy's $3.00 Sweater Coat 2nd Boy's $1.00 pair Gauntlets 2nd Men's $2.75 Muffler

Dear Madam:

When buying a gift for a man, call here. We are making special preparation this Christmas for women shoppers and will be glad to help you select the gift he will want - ties, hosiery. gloves, sweaters, hats and caps. We have the articles he would select himself.

Dear Sir: Do not wait till the last minute but call in now with your list, and we shall be only too glad to help you fill it out. Here is where the man or boy on your list would come to select his own. We have the stock and know just what he would like.

We Have Gifts from 25c. to $35.00

Our contest opens on November 21 and closes December 24. With every $1.00 worth of goods bought, one guess is given.

GEORGE S. BURNETT

Gent's Furnisher

Durham, Ontario