A Peculiar Accident. John A. Wiggins, for fifty years a resident of Inglewood district, met a sudden death on his farm, lot 12, concession 1, east, near Inglewood on the morning of December 24.

Car Burned at Chesley. Fire in the early hours of Christmas morning completely destroyed the fine car belonging to William Krug, a member of the firm of Krug Bros. The car, a large coach, had been used the night before, and was in the garage, a few feet from the house.

The Annual Farce. The nomination meeting last week as usual developed into more or less of a farce, and as usual nearly every one in the hall was nominated for some one of the municipal offices.

An Honored Official. On Monday, the retirement from public service took place of one who has served the township of Artemesia faithfully and well.

They're Awa'. Messrs. J. R. Bates and H. White of Shelburne, Dr. S. T. White of Orangeville and T. H. Reburn of Markdale have left on their Scotch curing trip.

Power of the Press. Mr. Edmund Irwin of Belgrave says it pays to advertise. Last week he advertised ten pages for sale. Before nine o'clock on the morning after the paper was published, he had five phone calls about them.

An Aristocratic Beggar. The latest "stunt" along the begging line in town last week was that of a man going from door to door asking for ten cents with which to buy a loaf of bread.

Away to Scotland. Mr. T. H. Reburn left Wednesday morning to join the Canadian curlers on their trip to Scotland. There are quite a number in the party, but the rink in which Mr. Reburn will play is composed of Dr. S. T. White of Orangeville, and Messrs. H. White and R. J. Bates of Shelburne.

Me, Too!. "You scratch my back, and I'll scratch yours," is the principle on which the nominations are made in Warton. You nominate me, and I'll nominate you.

Woolen Mill Capacity Enlarged. Changes are being made at the Flesherston Woolen Mills that will increase the capacity of the mill very materially. In the early fall, a two story addition was made to the mill in order to make room for the installation of a new yarn spinning machine.

The K. K. K. at Goderich. The Ku Klux Klan is moving northward. There have been quite a number of Klan organizations in the southern part of the province for some time, and last week steps were taken to organize a branch at Goderich.

New Garage for Dundalk. An important property deal was effected in Dundalk last week by which Dr. A. D. McAlister, Ford dealer, becomes the owner of the vacant property on Proton street, south, purchased from W. J. Armstrong. This is the site of the old Ford garage which was burned four years ago this month.

Auto Was Wrecked. A commercial traveller from Waterloo had an experience on Wednesday morning that he will not soon forget. While motoring down the new road just south of Jacob Becker's, his car got into a deep crooked rut, and the machine made a boeline for the ditch.

Surprised on Wedding Anniversary. Christmas day being the 25th wedding anniversary of ex-Reeve and Mrs. Fred W. Lippert, about twenty of their neighbors and friends robed in the costumes of a quarter of a century ago, which included swallow tails and plug hats for the men, and long hair and trailing skirts for the women, appeared unannounced at the home of the erstwhile bride and groom and presented them with two silver candlesticks and a silver vase for cut flowers.

ADVISING THE BOY. (Edgar A. Guest) Boy, when you think that you want to get married. Be sure it is love and not fancy; Make sure it's the heart, not your eye that is carried away with the beauty of Nancy.

His Pal. The Bishop of Chelmsford likes to enliven his conversation with frequent anecdotes. One he told a friend of mine the other day is amusing. The bishop, it appears, was driving through a West Ham street, and had occasion to ask the way of a ragged little boy. "I'll show you," the boy said, and jumped up on the footboard of the car. Arriving at the church, he was seeking a policeman, who asked the boy what he was doing. "Oh," retorted theurchin, jerking his thumb towards the bishop, "it's all right—e's a pal o' mine!"
