

Dornoch

(Our Own Correspondent)
The annual meeting of Latent Presbyterian church was well attended last Wednesday with Rev. Mr. McWilliams in the chair. The year's record was most encouraging. The statement of finances showed all obligations met and a surplus of $173 in the treasury. The board of management appointed consisted of the following officers: John Mills, Duncan Smith, Robert Mortley, David Crozier, James Robertson, William Robertson and William Runnings. H. R. Riddell, having served the congregation faithfully as secretary for twenty-two years, was re-elected, and William Smith was elected treasurer. Other officers are: Mission Secretary: Sunday School Superintendent, William Smith; Sunday School Secretary-Treasurer, William Runnings. Mrs. George Tracy was re-appointed as organist, William Smith as choir leader and James Robertson caretaker.
A very successful play, "A Cheerful Liar," presented by the young people of this place, was held at Williamston hall last Friday night. The characters were: Judge Hustle, Hughie Vasey; Randolph Dearbourn, Maurice Vasey; Rev. Stiggins, Jack Walsh; Constable McGuffin, William Kenney; General Boomer, Edward Melosh; Mrs. Spriggins, Nora Sullivan; Miss Flora Boomer, Mary Melosh; Solos were given by Misses Joseph, Agnes Sullivan and Catherine Lister, and Messrs. Hughie and Maurice Vasey and William Kenney. Luncheon was also sold, and the total proceeds amounted to $80.00.
Miss Allie Smith left last Monday for Toronto where she will spend a time with her sister.
Mr. William Dargavel returned last Tuesday to his home in Vancouver after spending a few weeks here with his mother, Mrs. R. Dargavel.
Mr. Archie McDonald of Alberta is visiting his uncle, Mr. D. McArthur.
The funeral of the late Mr. Leon Supernault of Bentinck took place here at St. Paul's church Monday.

Hopewille.

(Our Own Correspondent)
Our new Council were all duly installed again for another year with Reeve William Jack and Counsellors Joseph Black, Howard Watson, John Stewart and Andrew Wiltshire.
We have another layer of snow. It still keeps piling up.
Miss Doreen Scott returned to Toronto today after holidaying at home for the last three weeks.
Master Walter Thompson is very ill with Nurse Russell in attendance. Little Walter is in a very serious condition, and we hope for a speedy recovery.
Mr. George Shand is very ill also, and Mr. William Riddell is under the weather, while Mr. James Dingwall does not seem to gain any.
Mrs. Bert Knox and daughter, Jean, are visiting with the Goheen family.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Thompson of Flesherton were in Hopewille over the week-end to see their little grandson Walter.

Welbeck.

(Our Own Correspondent)
We are pleased to have with us again Mr. Dan Wade, who has been in the West for the past two years.
Mr. Stephen Wado is also spending a few months with his brother, Mr. John Wade, of this place.
A goodly number from here attended the play at Williamsford Friday evening and report a good time.
Miss Myrtle Robertson spent Sunday with Miss Jessie Levingham.
Mr. Malcolm Campbell and Mr. Stanley Landreau spent a week-end with friends near Hanover recently.
Mr. Gordon Goldsmith and Miss Isabel Whiteman spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heff.
Mr. Thomas Hill spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Sharr.
Mr. James Stinson and Miss Nellie Stinson spent a week-end with Mr. and Mrs. George Brown of Glenelg.

Rocky Saugeen

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. and Mrs. Archie Watson spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Neil McLean.
A number from this line attended the funeral of Mrs. Archie McCormick who was buried in the Rocky cemetery. Much sympathy is felt for the family and more so to Mr. McCormick who is quite helpless with old age.
Mr. and Mrs. Gillen Boyd spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. McLean.
Mr. David Watson and daughter, Miss Helen Watson, spent a day last week with Mr. and Mrs. Archie Watson.
Mr. Clarence Thompson returns this week to Ingleswood after a short visit with his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Clark and family spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. John McKechnie, Glenora.
Messrs. Clarence and Gordon Thompson spent Sunday with Normanby friends.
The monthly meeting of the W.

ASTHMA HEAD AND BRONCHIAL COLDS
No Smoke—No Sprays—No Snuff
Just Swallow a RAZ-MAN Capsule
Restores normal breathing. Quickly stops all choking, gasping and mucus gatherings in bronchial tubes. Gives long nights of peaceful sleep. Contains no injurious or habit-forming drugs $1.00 per box at drug stores Send 5c. for generous trial. Teapletons, Toronto.
RAZ-MAN
GUARANTEED RELIEF

M. S. was held at the home of Mrs. Douglas Clark last Tuesday. There was a large crowd present. Mrs. (Rev.) Armstrong gave a talk on China which was very interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald McDonald of Crawford spent a day with friends on this line recently.

Willowdale

(Our Own Correspondent)
Old Sol is coming back again. The weather has been very mild with frequent showers of rain which is putting the roads in very poor condition.
Mr. Ben Coutts entertained a number of the older boys to a euchre party one evening recently. We are glad to report that such harmony exists amongst our neighbors.
Sorry to relate that Mr. Cecil Noble is down with an attack of diphtheria, but at last report, he was doing as well as could be expected.
Mr. and Mrs. George Reay and daughter, Grace, of Ebenezer, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Grae Wise and family recently.
Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald visited with Mr. James Hopkins on Sunday.
While breaking in one of his colts one day last week, Mr. Joseph Brown had the misfortune of breaking the tongue out of his sleigh. Never mind, Joe, it could have been worse.
Mr. John Reay of Vickers visited with Mr. William Torry of this place one day last week.
Mr. W. Brown visited with friends at Mulock this week.
Mr. John Alexander is engaged with Mr. Thomas Grierson of South Bentinck for the winter.
A few of the young men from this vicinity attended the hockey match and dance in Durham last Tuesday evening and report a good time.
Mr. George Torry is engaged removing the old house away from the old Mulock farm. Maybe he intends erecting a new one. We are wondering who will be the fortunate lady.
Mr. David Burns visited with friends in this burg one evening recently.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vickers and youngest daughter spent Sunday with friends in Durham.
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Reay, Sr., visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Brown Friday afternoon.
The debate between Edge Hill and Ebenezer will be held on Wednesday evening, January 27, in the Ebenezer school house. Luncheon will be served after program. No admission fee at door. Everyone cordially invited.

Swinton Park.

(Our Own Correspondent)
Municipal elections have been decided, and those elected to office have now the reigns of power for a year.
Snow is fast disappearing on the fields, and the concessions are also getting thin in some places, but there is a sufficient amount on the sidewalks.
We are glad to hear that Mrs. M. Thompson's little son, Walter, of Hopewille, is making wonderful improvement after his critical illness, being threatened with appendicitis.
Miss Ruby Haw has secured a position in Priceville and left for there on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. G. Martin have moved to their new home in the Park.
A most enjoyable evening was spent at Mr. George Haw's on Tuesday evening.
A number of members of L. O. L. 113 attended the District Meeting held in Dundalk on Tuesday.

Glenmont

(Our Own Correspondent)
We have had another January thaw!
Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Weir and Miss Mary spent a few days recently with Proton and Dundalk friends.
Mr. and Mrs. Victor Adams were visitors the first of the week at the home of Mr. Thomas Harrison, Jr.
Mr. Joseph Campbell is on the sick list at present and under the care of Dr. Blake of Priceville.
Mr. John Weir spent a day last week with his brother, Reeve Weir of Glenelg.
Mr. and Mrs. Crawford Harrison visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Watson, Glenelg, on Sunday.
Mr. Alfred Tucker had another sawing bee last week and has a couple of years' wood on hand now.
Mr. Charles Small did the sawing, and is an expert at the job.

South Bentinck

(Our Own Correspondent)
Miss Nellie Smith of Durham spent a few days with friends and relatives on the line.
Miss Pearl Wilson, school teacher, spent a week-end recently with Misses Margaret and Janet McConald.
Mr. James Henderson of Saskatchewan spent a few days with friends on this line.
Mr. George Constable visited Mr. and Mrs. William Derby recently.
Mr. and Mrs. James Park of Allan Park spent an evening with Mr. and Mrs. James Park, Sr., on this line.
Mr. Aylmer Bartman of Ebenezer is assisting Mr. William Mother.
Mr. Burrell is having the logs he purchased from Mr. Alex. Grierson hauled to Hanover this past week or so.

Read Campbell's Dry Goods Sale Ad on Page 6.

Holstein.

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mrs. James Bruce, who has been visiting relatives in Walkerville, returned home on Friday evening.
Mrs. George Hostetter is home again after spending a month with relatives in Detroit.
The anniversary services of the United Church will be held on February 7, morning and evening. The Rev. M. Aitken of Drayton is expected to be the preacher of the day.
Our hockey boys went to Ayton last Friday evening and were defeated 6 to 3.
The third of the series of socials under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stevenson and was a decided success. About 125 were present, and a good programme was given and lunch served for $20.00.
Mrs. Alex. Aitken, Jr. went to Toronto General on for goiter on Friday. It was a serious operation, but she is making good progress towards recovery.
Mr. W. D. McMillan of Lumsden, Sask., and formerly of this and Durham vicinities, has been experiencing sickness in his family. His wife (nee Ida Keith) has undergone an operation for cancerous growth, but is progressing favorably at present.
We received another letter from our old friend, Mr. T. C. Rogers of Alberta. He manufactured the butter here in the late 80's of the last century. He is still carrying on in his farm and is making good. Mr. Rogers is still hale and hearty.
Mr. Colin McMillan spent the week-end in Toronto and Hamilton.
Mr. C. McMillan of Priceville spent a few days recently with his cousin, Mr. Alex. McMillan.
The village had for guest the first of the week, Mrs. Geddes and Jean Haas of Hanover. They attended the funeral of the late Edward Henderson.
Mrs. Woodyard has moved into the residence lately purchased from Mrs. Plathner.
The annual meeting of the Agricultural Society of Egreemont was held last Saturday. The year was marked with success with a handsome balance on hand.
The annual meeting of the Presbyterian church was held on Tuesday evening, with a good attendance present.
Mrs. Adam Main leaves for Calgary on Thursday on account of the serious illness of her son, William, brought on by an attempt to save the live of a boy who had fallen into the river.
Mr. Arthur Hoy came home from the States recently and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Tuck.
The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church intends holding a valentine social on February 12, commencing at 8 o'clock. A good programme will be provided.

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mrs. Charles Vaughan of Loreburn spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. William Baker, and the first days of this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Timmins.
This old neighborhood is a unit in extending the best of good wishes to Miss Essie Firth and the min of her choice. During the years the family lived in our midst, she was a general favorite.
The O'Neil brothers have taken the contract of delivering the big logs from the farm of Mr. Murt. McMillan to Mr. M. Armstrong of Markdale.
Paylor brothers put up big piles of wood for Mrs. John O. Greenwood and Mr. W. J. Greenwood.
Mrs. Philip Harrison spent a few days of last week at the Nelson homestead, her hubby driving over for her on Sunday.
All the boys who left after the holiday season for Detroit have secured situations at good wages and will know something about "speed up."
Rev. J. E. Peters made a number of pastoral calls on sick parishioners on Tuesday and found most of them on the road to recovery.
A big gang of men and four teams

Corner Concerns

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. Walter Ferguson has had the unpleasant task of doctoring one of his work horses for the past week with apparently poor results.
There was an interesting debate held in Varney on Friday night between the Dromore and Varney societies. It was on the subject, "Resolved that Township School Boards would be a better system of managing school affairs than the present Three Trustee System." Teacher Graham and Miss Esther McLean of Dromore championed the affirmative, while Teacher Miss Florence McHivrie and Mr. Cecil Barbour upheld the negative side. Dr. Bell judged the debate and decided in favor of the affirmative, although the Varney pair also presented good arguments clearly put and are to be complimented on their ability and fact as debaters. By the way, we understand the subject has been decided the same way in a number of debates on it this fall.
Mr. Archie Allan, who is home from the western provinces, spent last week with his mother, Mrs. Helen Allan, and brother, Lorne. He was a most useful visitor, as they were both on the sick list at the time but are recovering nicely.
On behalf of the people of this part, we extend best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton who joined heart and hand last Thursday. The groom was a resident of this neighborhood when a boy.
St. Paul's vestry meeting resulted in receiving the financial statement which showed a balance on hand, and the election of the following officers: Rector's Warden, Reuben G. Watson; People's Warden, James Mack; Auditors, Messrs. E. V. Matthews and Walter Ferguson. Miss Irene Barbour was re-appointed organist and given a hearty vote of thanks for past services. Mr. Arthur Lee was appointed lay delegate as a recognition of five years' faithful service as Warden. Mr. John Queen was substituted, and Mrs. E. V. Matthews Vestry Clerk.
Our new Mail Courier, Mr. Rawn, has started his duties in a most satisfactory way. Hope he will never weary in well doing.

Traverston.

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mrs. Charles Vaughan of Loreburn spent the past week with her sister, Mrs. William Baker, and the first days of this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Timmins.
This old neighborhood is a unit in extending the best of good wishes to Miss Essie Firth and the min of her choice. During the years the family lived in our midst, she was a general favorite.
The O'Neil brothers have taken the contract of delivering the big logs from the farm of Mr. Murt. McMillan to Mr. M. Armstrong of Markdale.
Paylor brothers put up big piles of wood for Mrs. John O. Greenwood and Mr. W. J. Greenwood.
Mrs. Philip Harrison spent a few days of last week at the Nelson homestead, her hubby driving over for her on Sunday.
All the boys who left after the holiday season for Detroit have secured situations at good wages and will know something about "speed up."
Rev. J. E. Peters made a number of pastoral calls on sick parishioners on Tuesday and found most of them on the road to recovery.
A big gang of men and four teams

Corner Concerns

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. Arthur McNally's barn and house and have made a start on cutting the big timbers on the south half on lot 1, concession 10. Mr. Colin McArthur and sons have the contract of the north half. It is a valuable bush lot, the price paid being $8,200. The late James C. Ross bought it a few years ago for $2,300 or thereabouts.
Not a very big bunch of Institute members met at their monthly meeting on Thursday last, owing to the storm raging, but they listened to an excellent paper by Mrs. A. G. Blair on "How to Know Good Materials, Wool, Cotton, Linen and Silk." Miss Katie May Firth had a fine article also on "White Magic." The Roll Call was responded to by each one with a helpful verse of Scripture.
Some folk have the odd idea that there is discord or lack of harmony between town and country folk. Well, they would have been jolted somewhat if they had been present in this cottage on Sunday evening last when the jocose and clever editor of The Chronicle and his most genial partner spent a few hours with us and kicked shins under the old table.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFadden visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Haley. Miss Katie returned home with them to spend a short time in No. 9 section.
Mr. Earl McNally of Lumsden is visiting this week among kindred in the vicinity.

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

Corner Concerns

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. Arthur McNally's barn and house and have made a start on cutting the big timbers on the south half on lot 1, concession 10. Mr. Colin McArthur and sons have the contract of the north half. It is a valuable bush lot, the price paid being $8,200. The late James C. Ross bought it a few years ago for $2,300 or thereabouts.
Not a very big bunch of Institute members met at their monthly meeting on Thursday last, owing to the storm raging, but they listened to an excellent paper by Mrs. A. G. Blair on "How to Know Good Materials, Wool, Cotton, Linen and Silk." Miss Katie May Firth had a fine article also on "White Magic." The Roll Call was responded to by each one with a helpful verse of Scripture.
Some folk have the odd idea that there is discord or lack of harmony between town and country folk. Well, they would have been jolted somewhat if they had been present in this cottage on Sunday evening last when the jocose and clever editor of The Chronicle and his most genial partner spent a few hours with us and kicked shins under the old table.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFadden visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Haley. Miss Katie returned home with them to spend a short time in No. 9 section.
Mr. Earl McNally of Lumsden is visiting this week among kindred in the vicinity.

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

Corner Concerns

(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. Arthur McNally's barn and house and have made a start on cutting the big timbers on the south half on lot 1, concession 10. Mr. Colin McArthur and sons have the contract of the north half. It is a valuable bush lot, the price paid being $8,200. The late James C. Ross bought it a few years ago for $2,300 or thereabouts.
Not a very big bunch of Institute members met at their monthly meeting on Thursday last, owing to the storm raging, but they listened to an excellent paper by Mrs. A. G. Blair on "How to Know Good Materials, Wool, Cotton, Linen and Silk." Miss Katie May Firth had a fine article also on "White Magic." The Roll Call was responded to by each one with a helpful verse of Scripture.
Some folk have the odd idea that there is discord or lack of harmony between town and country folk. Well, they would have been jolted somewhat if they had been present in this cottage on Sunday evening last when the jocose and clever editor of The Chronicle and his most genial partner spent a few hours with us and kicked shins under the old table.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert McFadden visited Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Haley. Miss Katie returned home with them to spend a short time in No. 9 section.
Mr. Earl McNally of Lumsden is visiting this week among kindred in the vicinity.

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

A SCATHING REBUKE

A scathing rebuke against the unjust debtor was hurled from the Sacred Heart pulpit on Sunday last when Rev. Father Maloney denounced in no uncertain tones all those who hold up their heads and strut by without passing their accounts.
Whether there are any more of them to the square foot in Walkerton than elsewhere the preacher didn't say, but from the fervor of his exhortation, he seemed fully obsessed with the fact that we were anything but free from this form of transgression here. Continuing Maloney depicted in anything but favorable light that ilk who will indulge in fur coats, automobiles, radios and other such luxuries and yet keep merchants and others carrying them on their books for long

The Veterans' Star Theatre
Thursday and Saturday, January 21-23
JACK HOLT in
"The Thundering Herd"
Zane Grey's thrilling romance of the buffalo hunt days of '76.
Filmed on a vast, panoramic scale.
COMEDY---"BIG GAME"
TWO SHOWS NIGHTLY 7.45 and 9.15 p.m.
Admission 27c. and 16c. Tax Included
NEXT WEEK—Fox Special "GOLD HEELS"

Why Not Have One
And have the drudgery removed from wash day, as 3,500,000 other Canadian and American women are doing?
Electric Washing Machines are no longer in the luxury class, but are a necessity. The convenience that removes the hardest job from the week's work can hardly be called a luxury.
The White Cap Washer
continues to be the most popular machine with Canadian housewives, there being more White Cap Washers sold each week than the combined sales of any three electric washers of other makes.
Why? Because they Wash Faster, Last Longer, and Are Easier to Operate.
The genuine C. G. E. full 1/4 horse power motor provides an abundance of power.
FREE
With each Electric Washer, we offer free—One handy Tub Bench, 1 year guaranteed Electric Iron, one Ironing Board and one Clothes Rack. This offer is for a short time only.
FREE TRIAL—We place this machine in your home on approval. If not entirely satisfied after two weeks, out it comes.
SEE IT ON OUR FLOOR
A. S. HUNTER & COMPANY
Hardware and Seed Merchants - - - - - Durham, Ont.

Live Stock Shipping Association
ANNUAL MEETING
The Annual Meeting of the U.F.O. Live Stock Shipping Association will be held in the
A. Y. P. A. ROOMS, DURHAM
Saturday, January 23, '26
AT 2 P.M.
A Speaker from Head Office, Toronto, will address the meeting.
J. McGIRR, Pres. HERB. EDGE, Secy.

WEEK-END STORIES WAS REAL

All Roads Filled As Blow and Snowfall, Local Throughout Co.
The big wind and Saturday and Sunday reports from different parts in the North Atlantic over a large part of their hemisphere, appeared had enough so destructive as places.
Commencing Saturday increased in fury and four o'clock Saturday till well on into Sunday were almost in the snow which fell a full, hurried here a forty-mile wind, almost an impossibility braved the elements.
This was our experience in the county where were much worse roads were totally as business was closed.
While it has been a day this week, roads have had their own back concessions are not be considered as are at least possible again on the morning had happened.
The only casualty in Grey County so heard was the daughter of Township woman, MacLeod, who left a day to go to a wedding in the storm, a particularly sad fuel or food in the sumo she started, in her frail condition the tempest. She is tallly deficient, an husband who originated, were in a scantily clad, and the home are described terrible.

ODD FELLOWS INSTALL

Oyster Supper For Which Was Part G.M. Ritchie.
The installation of Lodge No. 169, I. O. in the lodge room of this week were present to a ceremony in the absence of G.M. John Ritchie, when the following stalled:
J.P.G. Rev. W. J. J. McGirr; V.G. J. N. McDonald; G.M. Chap. W. J. McFadden; L.S.S. R. Snell; L.S.N.G. V.G. C. Lander; I.G. J. F. Irwin.
Following the members sat supper which lasted midnight hour.
Durham Odd F had a very successful evening of an ever increasing fast coming to the strong lodges.

CONGREGATIONAL

The Presbyterian in the A. M. day night was a event, when the congregation and the number of asembled at 6.30.
The tea was of evening of game a feature of which spelling matches amounted to in $30.00.

Canada's Grand undelivered reviews his "Duty begins with death," who seek to happy," is hundred year