NORMANBY SCHOLARS HONORED CHUM
Mabel Sharp Given Address and Presentation Friday Last Week
Last Friday forenoon a pleasant event took place at the No. 1 Normanby school when the scholars read an address to Miss Mabel Sharp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Sharp, and presented her with a box of stationery and a photo album before her departure with her parents to live in Durham. Following the presentation a good program was given and games indulged in. The address, which was signed by all the scholars of the school, follows:
Dear Mabel—It is with untold sorrow we gather together on this, your last day at the little stone school house. Words cannot express how much we shall miss you in our work and play, for we all found you a cheerful helper. May you make as many friends in your next school as you have made here. Please accept this gift as a loving remembrance from your playmates of S.S. No. 1 Normanby.
Last week we referred to the address and presentation by neighbors to Mr. and Mrs. Sharp, whose sale was held on Friday last and who intend removing this week to Durham. The address was read by Mr. Thomas McAlister, and at the proper time the honored couple were presented with a casserole, a dozen lemons, a dozen spoons, a butter knife and a half-dozen knives and forks of silver-steel.
The presentation over, the evening was spent in dancing and cards, the big crowd thoroughly enjoying themselves until an early hour in the morning.

DIED FROM STROKE RECEIVED FRIDAY

Mr. Hugh McKechnie Passed Away Late Yesterday Afternoon After Illness of Only Few Days.
The death of Mr. Hugh McKechnie (Hughie Charlie) about 5:30 yesterday afternoon at his home in Upper Town was a shock to the town, many not knowing that the old gentleman was seriously ill.

Mr. McKechnie was first taken ill last Friday. When going for a pail of water, he was evidently stricken from paralysis and, falling in the snow in his own yard, must have lain for an hour or more before being discovered, as water in the bucket he was carrying was frozen over, indicating that he had been there for some time. The old gentleman's predicament was discovered by Mrs. J. A. Aldred, a neighbor living across the road, who heard his moans and went over to investigate. Her horror at finding Mr. McKechnie in his helpless condition can better be imagined than described. Securing help, the unfortunate man was conveyed to the house, but he never recovered and passed away Wednesday of this week.

Though we have known Mr. McKechnie for a number of years, we are unable this week to give any particulars of his early life, but from inquiry learn that he has been a resident of this vicinity for upwards of 70 years. He was a man of over 80 years of age, and was a native-born in Scotland. For 50 years he lived on his farm north of Glenora, in Glenelg Township, and about 20 years ago, moved to Durham, where he married Mrs. William Gorsline who survives.

Mr. McKechnie was a man of unblemished integrity, a good citizen and of a quiet and inoffensive disposition. Though not apparently interested in politics, he took a deep interest in the country and the town and was a man who held the respect of all who knew him. The funeral is being held tomorrow from his late residence to the Rocky Saugene cemetery, the funeral services being in charge of Rev. Armstrong of the Presbyterian church and Rev. J. H. Whealen of Trinity church.

We join the community in extending sympathy to Mrs. McKechnie in her sorrow.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT NARROWLY AVERTED

Imperial Oil Company's Team Ran Away Yesterday, but Luckily No Damage Was Done.
What might have resulted in a serious accident occurred in town about 4:30 yesterday afternoon when the big team of the Imperial Oil Company's gasoline tank, became frightened at a passing sleigh and attempted to run away. The team was standing in the roadway in front of the oil house on Garrafrax street where the driver, John Doherty, had gone for a few minutes. Anticipating just such an occurrence, Mr. Doherty always pulls the bolt from the doubletree when he leaves the team, and it was this which undoubtedly prevented a more serious occurrence.

After getting clear from the tank the team started up the street and ran on to the sidewalk near Mrs. Bove's store, where they were easily captured. Mrs. E. Roseborough who was on the street at the time had a narrow escape from being run over, but she saw the team coming in time, though in getting out of the way, she slipped and fell. Luckily, she was not injured. At the time, there were a number of children on the streets, and if the team had been really bent on running away and got altogether out of control, some of the little folk might have been injured.

A horse belonging to Mr. M. Wilson, butcher, is reported to have become frightened at the other runaway and made a break for liberty, but was captured not far from where it started and with no damage done.

FAST PARIS TEAM N. H. L. CHAMPIONS

Lost at Listowel Monday 6-5 but Won Round 12.—Monday's Game Played on Soft Ice.
To the town of Paris go Northern League hockey honors this year, and on their brow now rests the senior crown, wrested from Listowel by virtue of their 13-12 win, the deciding game of which was played on Listowel ice on Monday night. In Paris on Thursday of last week, the Paris sextette took Gully Rocher's aggregation into camp 8 to 6, and though beaten Monday 6-5, they won the Senior Northern crown by one goal.

Several local fans went down to Listowel Monday and report a good game, though if the ice had been fast, think the quicker Parisians (or should it be Parisites) would have secured a commanding lead on the play. They had it over Listowel like a tent during the first period, outscoring them 2-0, but in the two succeeding sessions, the heavier Listowel players wore them down and emerged from the contest one goal up.

Speaking to some who witnessed the game, they say it was a good exhibition, though Kemp of the Listowel team marred his reputation once more when he assaulted a Paris player for no cause. This is the same Kemp who went wrong last winter in the game against Durham, and if this is his disposition generally in tight games, it is about time the Northern League took action and saw that he sat on the fence for a season.

The public is tired of rowdy sport, and from its lightning fastness, there is no sport that can be made more nauseating than hockey. Nobody has any use for the player who wants to "rough it up" just because he is on the losing side, and while we don't expect the Listowel press to take the matter up this week, we'll venture the remark that both sports writers have thought a lot.

The win of the Paris team is a popular one here, for they played the game fairly against Durham, and Mine Bost Hahn of the Hahn house here says they were the quietest and best-behaved bunch of hockey players he ever had in the place. They took the near beating Durham gave them in Paris in the semi-finals when they held them 2-2 in the first game, and accepted their 3-2 win here with grace and thankfulness. Durham fans are a unit in tendering their congratulations.

DURHAM SCOUT TEAM RAN UP BIG SCORE

Defeated Mount Forest Hockey Team Here Saturday Afternoon 9 to 1.—Durham Should Foster Juvenile League.
The Durham Boy Scout hockey team demonstrated quite definitely that they are a better team of puck-chasers than their fellow-scouts from Mount Forest on Saturday afternoon. They took the Mount Forest aggregation into camp to the tune of 9 to 1 at the local arena. The local lads were all over the fighter team from the Wellington county town, and the issue was never in doubt.

The shining lights of the game were Raymond McGirr and Norman McElraith, while Earl McEachnie played a good game in the nets. The local troop has a mighty nice little team, and if any other group of kids in town want to try conclusions with them, they are ready to take them on.

The game demonstrated once more that what we need, and need badly if we are going to keep up with the times and have good hockey teams, is a juvenile league right here in town. There should be four teams of youngsters, with a double schedule drawn up, and two games each week after four o'clock. This system is worked in other towns and results in nice clean sport for the lads and good hockey players for the older groups—that is, if the older groups have we understand. And they'll give them a run for their money if the game materializes.

BANKERS BEAT D. H. S. IN SNAPPY GAME

Interesting Contest Staged at Rink Tuesday Night Resulted in Win For Money-Changers 3-2.
There was hockey, all kinds of it, dished up at the local rink here on Tuesday night of this week when the Bankers and the High School sextettes crossed sticks for one of the wildest exhibitions seen here in a good many moons. With the exception of Rowe, the Bankers' lineup was made up entirely of the named men, but as his business too had something to do with "dough," they considered he was eligible to play.

The teams lined up as follows: Bankers—Goal, Ibbott; defense, Rowe and Kearney; centre, Schutz; wings, McFarlane and Hunt. Sub, Whitley.
D. H. S.—Goal, Lavelle; defense, Wilson and McElraith; centre, Moon; wings, McGirr and Elvidge; Subs, Havens and Clark.

From a spectator's point of view, the game was a regular classic, and though some of the officials and courtiers bankers seemed rather disgraced at times, they had enough punch left in them to come forth at full time with a 3-2 victory to their credit.

The game was a stick-up affair from the first ding of the gong, and so fast that the referee, Peasy Morlock, in trying to keep up with the play, cast frequent glances toward the sub box as if looking for some one to take his place. During the play he got at least three offside calls and seemed sorry for it. Both goalers had a rough time of it. In the second period, Ibbott had to leave the ice to have his shirt replaced where it would not be so conspicuous, and Lavelle in the nets for the D. H. S., in stopping a hot one, had to be laid on the ice while the puck was extracted from his stomach. The defense and forward lines of both teams were working well, and the forward lines especially gave the crowd many thrills as they wended their wayward, only to be blocked time after time by the eagle-eyed goalers who, by their good work kept the score within reasonable bounds.

A feature of the game was that Kearney of the Bankers arrived at the rink nearly in time to start the second period.

FLESHERTON TEAMS HERE LAST WEEK

High School Boys Here Held Youth to Tie Score, While Durham Girls Emerged With 3-0 Victory.
There was war and rumors of war at the local ice palace Wednesday night of last week when the Flesherton and Durham High school teams, both girls and boys, put on some spectacular hockey that was as much enjoyed by the fans present as any game this winter. While the local boys' team had to work hard to hold the visitors to a 2-2 tie, the Durham ladies showed that they were no gentlemen by defeating their erstwhile guests 3-0. Following the game, the battlers and their friends repaired to the High school where lunch was served.

The Durham boys lined up as follows: Goal, Lavelle; defense, Wilson and McElraith; centre, Moon; wings, McGirr and Elvidge. Subs, Havens and Kress.
Following is the line-up of the girls' teams:
Flesherton—Goal, Evada Wilson; defense, Thelma Wilson and Elsie McKee; centre, Marie Patton; wings, Laura Boyd and Edna McCallum. Sub, Mildred Radley.
Durham—Goal, Grace Baird; de-

PICTURE ACTRESS IS HELD IN PAWN AT A RENO HOTEL

Billie Dove recently was held in pawn at a prominent hotel in Reno, Nevada, for seven hours. A company of sixty people went to Reno to make location scenes for "The Air Mail," Irvin Willat's latest production for Paramount. It comes on Friday and Saturday, March 5 and 6.

With the Reno sequences finished, it was necessary to go sixty miles away to Sardine Valley to take snow scenes. With the exception of three of the staff and Miss Dove, the entire company started before daybreak for the snow-covered lake but encountered many obstacles which delayed them in getting back. The entire company was to leave at seven that night for Rhyolite, Nevada. In the early afternoon, the transfer men started taking the baggage to the station, but the hotel clerk refused to allow it to be moved until the hotel account was settled. Miss Dove insisted that Business Manager Blount of the company should return early and adjust the account, but the clerk was adamant. Miss Dove finally offered to go security if the baggage could be removed. The clerk agreed, but insisted that she remain in her room as hostage.

Twelve minutes before train time, the company returned, the hotel's business manager paid the bill, Miss Dove was set free, and the company left for Rhyolite, Nevada. Warner Baxter and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr. are featured with Miss Dove in the production, which is dedicated to the pilots of the air mail service.
