

SOME THINGS YOU MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN KNOWING

The moustache can never be grown upon the forehead. Experiments have shown that the upper lip is the only place in which it will thrive. In Switzerland the natives find it extremely difficult to put on their shoes without stooping over. Scientists have proved that it is possible for the elephant to build a nest for its young in the tops of trees, even the oak. On cold days, if a phonograph is not wound up at intervals, it will run down and stop. This will so happen on warm days. It is said that the people of Italy refer to eat their breakfast in the morning rather than any other time of the day. Psychologists tell us that it requires almost twice as much wind to a person to play a cornet as it does to play a violin.—California News.

A credit manager says some people seem to get their fashions for buying their debts from Paris.—Detroit News.

The Days Of Long Ago

Taken From Chronicle Files of Twenty and Twelve Years Ago.

March 15, 1906.
It's time you were thinking about your spring footwear. Peel's hand made are the choice.

The Band gave its second and last carnival of this season on the rink on Friday last. The following are the prize-winners: Historical, Jessie Laidlaw; Fancy, Pearl Warner; National, Jean Brown; Comic, Robbie Laidlaw; Historical, men, Shirley McIntyre; Fancy, J. McClocklin; National, E. Glass; Comic, F. Glass; Glown, A. Knisley; Negro, B. Saunders; Indian, C. Siegner; Fancy, boy, A. Hutton; girl, Loretta Peel; smallest girl, Marguerite Hutton; Open race, W. Lavelle, B. Moore, A. Saunders.

We regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Alex. Merchant of Yeovil. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. James Matthews of Egremont, was 28 years of age and died under very painful circumstances on Monday last.

Mr. N. McIntosh, of the Farmers' Manufacturing & Supply Company, has severed his connection with that institution and left for Western lands Tuesday morning.

Another pioneer passed away Thursday last in the person of Mrs. John Davidson in her 84th year. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson came to Durham about 1845 and settled on the Rombough farm where the cement works now stands. For some time, the deceased made her home with her daughter, Mrs. C. L. Grant. Besides Mrs. Grant, another daughter, Mrs. McDonnell of Detroit, and one son, Archibald, the first white child born in Durham and still residing here.

Mr. William Black, employed on the repair gang at the cement works, fell a distance of 35 feet on Wednesday of last week, and though forced to use crutches at present, was not much hurt by his fall.

We are in receipt of a memorial card announcing the death on the 5th inst., at his home at Dunville, of Mr. Robert White, a former editor of The Chronicle and the first who occupied this position to join the great majority. It is 30 years since Mr. White was in Durham, the paper being conducted under the partnership name of White & Johnston.

A quiet wedding took place on the morning of March 6 at the home of Mrs. John McGillivray, Mulock.

and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Ritchie and presented them with an address and handsome rug.—Edge Hill correspondent.

The board and members of the Methodist church have decided to reseat the church, and an order has been placed. The seats will be of the opera style and solid oak.

The council is asking for tenders for veneering and renovating the town hall, and we understand it is their intention to enlarge it by putting an addition to the south end which will serve as a stage and dressing rooms and give a proper rear exit.

On Wednesday of last week, an interesting event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Watson when their eldest daughter, Irene, was united in marriage to Mr. Crawford Harrison of Egremont. The wedding march was played by Miss Ethel Morrison, and the nuptial knot tied by Rev. J. A. Leece, B.A.—McWilliams Correspondent.

Mr. Edlin and Miss Connie Wilton entertained a number of their young friends one evening recently. The evening was spent in games and music.—Knox Corners correspondent.

On Friday evening, February 27, forty or fifty friends of Miss Eva Redford assembled at her home to say goodbye before she left the neighborhood to take up her residence in Durham. The evening was spent in music and games. Miss Redford was presented with a hand satchel and Bible.—Mulock correspondent.

On Thursday evening of last week, before their departure from this neighborhood for Durham, friends
