IS SPRING WEATHER LATE IN COMING?

Many Citizens of Opinion That 1926 Season is Away Off Color So Far As Arrival of Warm Weather is Concerned.

Can the spring of 1926 be regarded as a late one? This is a question that we have heard argued a good deal by many citizens during the past couple of weeks. Some will tell you it is, others that it is perfectly reasonable weather that we are getting. A glance at our Twelve Years Ago column on another page will show that the spring of 1914 was much the same as this one, while we heard of one farmer who moved to a new farm he had purchased that year, taking his household effects by sleigh. This was in the middle of April. He further stated that the 1914 crop was a bumper one.

Just for comparison we give below the dates of the opening of Toronto harbor since 1910 which should be about as good a criterion as any we have on hand as to the changing seasons. These dates we have taken from a Toronto paper.

Mr. H. R. Koch, of the High school, Mr. A. G. McComb of the Public school, and Mr. J. A. Graham, representing the Teachers' Association, are in attendance at the annual meeting of the O. E. A. in Toronto this week.

Miss Marguerite Alexander of Toronto is visiting with her parents.

Mr. S. Cull, of the Royal Bank staff at Blind River, spent the Easter holiday in town.

Messrs. Harold and Irvin Sharpe of Toronto visited over the holiday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben. Sharpe.

Miss Jean Cresswell, of the High school staff, visited at the parental home at Winchester over the holiday.

Miss Betty Kelly of Toronto visited with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kelly.

Misses Witham and Schaefer of the teaching staff of the Public school, are spending the vacation period at their parental homes in Hanover.

Mr. E. Blodgett of Timmins, New Ontario, is visiting with his brother-in-law, Mr. Hermie Burnett, Glenelg.

Miss Sarah Fulton of Barbhead is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Henry.

Miss Ruby Blyth of Toronto is holidaying at the parental home at Varney.

Dr. Neil McKinnon, Toronto, formerly of Priceville, has completed his course at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, and has received an appointment in the School of Hygiene in connection with the University of Toronto.

Mr. Grant McComb and son, Gordon, are visiting his brother, Archie, in Toronto, this week, and attending the annual meeting of the Ontario Educational Association.

Mrs. Gilbert McKechnie visited with Stratford friends on Tuesday.

Mr. Malcolm McKinnon of Priceville is the guest of his cousin, Mrs. J. M. Burns, while his father, Mr. Hugh McKinnon, is confined to Durham Hospital with a broken leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Aljoe and children were in Toronto for a week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Whitaker.

Mrs. John Blake and daughter, Mary, of Hanover, were Easter guests of Mrs. J. Metcalfe.

Miss Alma Metcalfe of Owen Sound spent over Easter at her home here.

Commenting on this, Tuesday's daily says: Despite the ice and snow, Toronto harbor will likely open for navigation tomorrow with the arrival of the Dalhousie City. This boat is expected to arrive about 11 o'clock. Since 1910 navigation has opened as follows:

- 1910—March 28, Macassa.
1911—March 30, Macassa.
1912—April 9, Macassa.
1913—April 12, Dalhousie City.
1914—April 2, Dalhousie City.
1915—April 1, Dalhousie City.
1916—April 4, Dalhousie City.
1917—March 30, Macassa.
1918—April 4, Macassa.
1919—March 6, Macassa.
1920—March 21, Macassa.
1921—April 4, Macassa.
1922—March 27, Dalhousie City.
1923—March 29, Dalhousie City.
1924—March 29, Dalhousie City.
1925—March 24, Dalhousie City.
1926—

From the above we would say that it would be safe to say that the 1926 season is, on the average, about a week late, but this is a long way from what some of us are thinking, many expressing the opinion that if the weather does not soon take a change we shall have no summer at all.

Two Tales of Church There is a story of two old ladies at a Scottish church service. After the minister had discussed all the points of his sermon from "firstly" to "seventhly," and just before the preparation began, one of the ladies said to the other, "Has he no duty yet?" "He has finished," replied her companion, "but he won't stop."

One further church tale. A rector and a long-winded curate were called upon to speak in connection with a certain religious function. The curate spoke for about half an hour, and before sitting down, turned to the rector, saying, "I hope I have not encroached upon your time."

"Time," growled out the impatient rector, "you have encroached upon eternity."
