PRICEVILLE COUPLE HONORED BEFORE LEAVING VILLAGE

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. MacDonald and Family Recipients of Address and Valuable Presentations Before Departure to Take Up Residence at Owen Sound.

One of those happy occasions that lives long in the memories of the participants took place in the MacKinnon Hall, Priceville, on Friday evening, April 9, the occasion being a social reception...

The hall was filled to capacity, and the meeting was called to order with Mr. Thomas Nichol in the chair. A beautifully spiced program was rendered as follows: Orchestral music, a vocal solo by Mr. Thomas Nichol...

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonald arrived in town Monday night from Disley, Sask., and are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith. Mr. McDonald has disposed of his farm in Ontario if a satisfactory holding can be found.

Mrs. Murray Ritchie, north of town, returned from Toronto last week, after visiting for a week with relatives and friends.

Mrs. N. McCannel, who spent a week in Toronto visiting relatives and friends, returned to town last week. Mrs. McCannel, while in the Queen City, attended the closing exercises of Knox College...

Mr. Frank Williams of Tisdale, Sask., who came East on business, was the guest of his brother, Mr. Harry Williams, Edge Hill, over the week-end.

Mrs. J. L. Yue and son, Alex., of Kitchener are visiting her brother Dr. and Mrs. Pickering.

Miss Vera Allen of Toronto has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Allen.

Mrs. Wes, Lyons and son, Jack, of Markdale, spent some time this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Allen.

Mrs. Campbell and little son of North Dakota, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Greenwood.

Miss Marjorie Firth, nurse-in-training in Owen Sound Hospital, is ill at her home here, returning to town Wednesday night of last week. Miss Firth has recently had her tonsils removed...

Mr. MacDonald responded in a masterly and appreciative address in which his thoughts went back to his early associates and co-workers, especially in the church work...

He expressed their appreciation of those tokens of love from the Presbyterian church, the beautiful words and the more tangible expression, those easy chairs, as they related in them, they would be a reminder of friends in and around Priceville.

He concluded with the wish that the Giver of every good and perfect gift would bless and prosper us and extended an invitation to visit them in Owen Sound.

The pastor, Rev. Mr. Sutherland, then called on to speak, aptly chose as his topic, "Builders of Civilization," extracts of which follow:

We regret exceedingly to see Mr. and Mrs. MacDonald leave us, because in the first place they have proved themselves real builders of society. Priceville is a better village because of their being in it.

The world's real heroes are not its conquerors but its builders. If we had something to drink tonight, a good and appropriate toast would be, "Here's to the Hoop That Holds the Barrel." That is to say, "Here's to the man who can hold things together, who can build things, together, that is, co-operation."

HYMENEAL

FINDLAY-HAY

The marriage of Miss Ethel Hay, youngest daughter of Mrs. David Hay, Toronto, to Dr. Murray Findlay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Findlay, Toronto, took place in Wychwood Presbyterian church on April 7, with Rev. H. S. Lee officiating.

The death occurred in Durham Hospital last Sunday evening about 8 o'clock of Mr. William Yandt of Normanby Township, after an illness dating back to last fall, when he was brought here for examination, when the cause of his indisposition was discovered.

Mr. Yandt was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Yandt of Normanby, was born in that township 47 years ago and has lived all his life in the vicinity in which he died.

He was highly regarded as a citizen, and his widow and family will have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in their bereavement.

Besides Mrs. Yandt, a married daughter, Mrs. Louisa Davis, and a small family are left to mourn. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the family residence to Maplewood cemetery, the services at the home and grave being taken by Rev. B. D. Armstrong, pastor of Durham Presbyterian church.

The Non-Trombonists Reward "But," protested the new arrival, as St. Peter handed him a golden trumpet, "I can't play this instrument; I never practised while on earth."

"Of course you didn't," chuckled the old saint. "That's why you are here."

"CODE OF THE WEST" IS A ROARING WESTERN ROMANCE

Flapperism comes in for a sound spanking and jazz receives a knock-out blow in Paramount's "Code of the West," which Lucien Hubbard adapted and William K. Howard produced from the Zane Grey novel of the same name and which comes to The Veterans' Star Theatre Friday and Saturday evenings, April 16 and 17.

The direct and drastic methods of the West were never better illustrated than in this absorbing photoplay in which a sturdy son of Arizona teaches a flapper daughter of New York the a-b-c of living and loving.

Pictured against marvelous natural backgrounds and abounding in breath-taking thrills, "Code of the West" unfolds its vivid, appealing story of the romance of Georgie May Stockwell, a frivolous little flapper, and Cal Thurman, a sturdy, virile cowboy.

The young westerner, unused to the ways of the East, falls an easy victim to the charms of Georgie, who flirts outrageously with him but laughs at him when he proposes to her. The realization that she has only been playing with him infuriates Cal, and he forces her to marry him.

This is the beginning of an unusual series of events that reach a terrific climax during the height of a roaring forest fire. The manner in which Georgie and Cal escape paving the way to their ultimate reunion provides several mighty thrills and some great dramatic moments.

Owen Moore has the strong role of the cowboy-caveman, and Constance Bennett gives a good account of herself as the flighty, flirty flapper. Others in the cast are Mabel Ballin, Charles Ogle and David Butler.

Anything to Oblige "Waiter, ask the orchestra to play nothing for a while." "Yes, sir, if they have the music, sir."

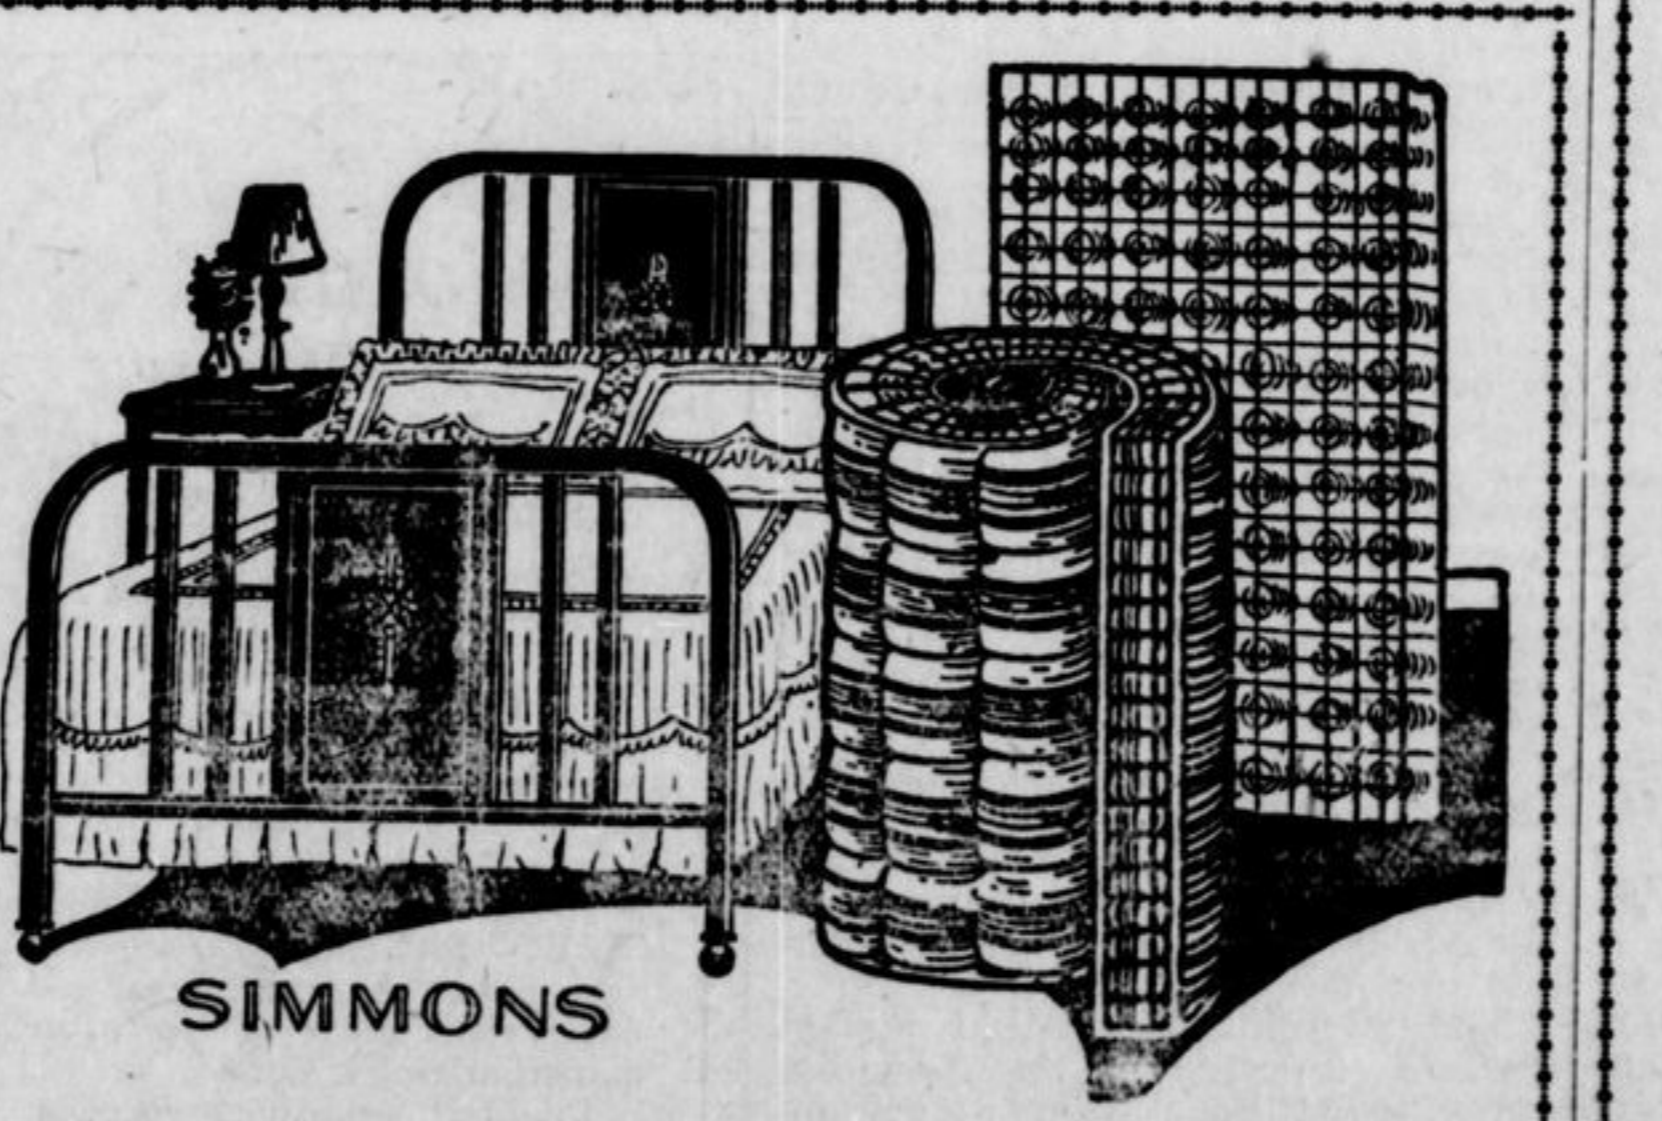

No Wonder Jerry: "That woman you were with last night looked old enough to be your mother." Harry: "Yes, isn't it queer? She's my grandmother."
