

Pass It Around

"When a bit of sunshine hits ye, after passing of a cloud, When a fit of laughter grins ye And yer spine is feelin' proud, Don't forget to up and fling it At a soul that's feelin' blue, For the minut that ye sling it It's a boomerang to you."

He: Miss Passe is quite a gold-digger. She: Yes, she must have got her start in the gold rush of 1849.

The Days Of Long Ago

Taken From Chronicle Files of Twenty and Twelve Years Ago.

TWELVE YEARS AGO

June 4, 1914. We are pleased to learn that Mr. Charles F. Lawrence, son of Mr. H. Lawrence, Bentinck, has been successful in passing his examination in arts at the Toronto University, taking honors. Hats off! Charlie is now a B. A.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. John Mitchell, who passed away yesterday forenoon at the age of 46 years.

Hampden Correspondence.—The death of Mrs. John Young caused much sorrow in this community.

Corner Concerns Correspondence.—Mr. James McLaughlin, while helping his son-in-law, Mr. William Allen, on Saturday, was stricken with some malady resembling a paralytic stroke which has laid him up since. We are sorry to report that Mr. James Allan has not recovered from his severe cold as expected and is under the doctor's care.

Born.—In Egremont on Tuesday, May 26, to Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hargrave, a son.

Married.—In Durham at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Pilkey, by Rev. W. W. Wylie, on Tuesday, June 2, Mr. John Damm to Miss Viola Virginia Pilkey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Twamley announce the engagement of their daughter, Addie, to Mr. Charles Hastings, postmaster at Webb, Sask., the marriage to take place on June 17th.

Mr. William Clark has always been a successful gardener and is showing a good example to many fellow-laborers like himself on solving the high cost of living. He works at the cement plant on 11 and 12 hour shifts, but is able to keep up a fine garden all by himself.

Mrs. George A. Smith (nee Jessie Robertson) of Mason City, Iowa, is still in a serious condition and will undergo an operation on Monday next in Rochester, Minn.

For the next couple of weeks, we hope the readers will bear with us should The Chronicle fall below its regular standard. We intend to move from our present premises and will be decidedly unsettled for some time and unable to give the paper as much attention as we would like. As the result of the holding of a charity for Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Damm Tuesday night, which has been described as a disgraceful piece of rowdyism, several names have been handed in to the police and court cases may result.

June 11, 1914.

Mr. Archie Brown of Bentinck near Mulock, who has been ill with anaemia for the past couple of years, died at his home on Sunday last at the age of 47 years.

Ford cars have been sold to Dr. Smith of Dornoch, H. W. Hunt of Vickers and R. E. English of Glenelg. Some windows in the basement of Trinity church have been broken by small boys who were evidently playing about the church.

Mr. S. Scott, who has been in business here for 31 years in one stand, moved his goods across the road on Monday and will henceforth occupy the premises used during the last four or five years by Miss Cochrane. Miss Cochrane has moved to the Kelsey store next to the Garfrax street bridge, the store formerly occupied as a shoe store by Mr. Thomas McGrath. Some changes are being made in the store vacated by Mr. Scott, and today we make a start to move in The Chronicle plant.

The Methodist choir concert on Thursday night of last week was quite a success, the seating capacity of the church not being sufficient to accommodate the audience, and a number of additional seats had to be provided. A couple of instrumentals by Messrs. Box and Gillies on the slide trombone and baritone, respectively, were much appreciated. Miss Mabel Latimer and Miss Florence Barclay each rendered a solo in good form, and Miss Rita Irwin, choir leader and organist, contributed three instrumental solos on the organ.

As a sequel to the charity of last week, information was laid against 17 offenders. Of this number 14 pleaded guilty, two tried and found guilty and one dismissed. The fine and costs amounted to about $3.00.

The South Grey Liberal convention was held here Wednesday, and the following were nominated to oppose Dr. Jamieson in the provincial field: D. Knechtel, Hanover; Walter Hastie, Egremont; W. Calder, Durham; John Boland, Arden; Dr. Mearns, Hanover; George Binnie, Glenelg; Neil McCannell, Glenelg, and Charles Ramage, editor of The Durham Review. They all made brief addresses declining the nomination, except Mr. Ramage, who signified his willingness to run.

Born.—In Glenelg, on Tuesday, June 9, to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Atkinson, a daughter.

Born.—At Elrose, Sask., on May 26, to Mr. and Mrs. H. Hintze, a daughter.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

June 7, 1906.

We regret to chronicle the death of Mrs. William Allan of Egremont last Monday.

Mr. William Sharp has succeeded Mr. James Carson as Bailiff. On Wednesday of last week, Mr. Charles Falkingham received his final summons and quietly passed away from an attack of pneumonia. Deceased was 82 years of age.

Mr. Torry of Allan Park, who has been laid up with typhoid fever, is not recovering as rapidly as his friends would desire. Dornoch Correspondence.—Mrs.

Walter Horsburgh was instantly killed when a bolt of lightning struck the chimney of the house Tuesday morning. Mr. N. Casey had a miraculous escape from serious injury when a horse he was driving shied and threw him out of the buggy on to a pile of stones.

Corner Concerns Correspondence.—Last Tuesday Mrs. William McFadden and daughter, Sadie, were thrown out of a buggy when the harness broke and their horse cut up. Several stitches were necessary to close a cut in the younger lady's forehead.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Dean, a daughter, on May 28.—Darnley's Corners Correspondence.

Married.—On June 6, Miss Maggie Brown to Mr. Melville Storey.

Born.—In Durham, on Tuesday, May 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Holmes, a daughter.

On Wednesday of last week, Mrs. S. Scott passed away at the age of 78 years.

The following from Durham and vicinity departed for the Northwest Tuesday morning: Malcolm McEachern and Dan McKechnie, Bentinck; Archie Ector, Edge Hill; George Lawrence and James Carson, Durham; George Twamley, Dornoch; Thomas Jack, Traverston; all for Saskatoon; M. Jenkinson and B. Jenkinson of Rocky Saugeen to Edmononton; Angus McKinnon and Dan McCormack to Suttler; Mrs. C. Ector and family to Arcola; Miss Stewart, Welbeck, to Grand View; Mr. and Mrs. John Morice, Varney, to Lumsden; Charles McKechnie, to Mildstone.

June 14, 1906.

We are pleased to report the success of Mr. Roy Gordon, who recently passed his first year examination in medicine at the Western University, London.

The following officers were elected for the South Grey Farmers' Institute Saturday last: President, Robert Morice; Vice-President, Daniel Edge; Secretary—Treasurer, George Binnie; Directors—Bentinck, John Pieken, Samuel Putherbach; Hanover: H. H. Miller, Val Kirchner; Normanby, R. Barber, Thomas Gadd; Egremont, D. Hamilton, William Allan; Glenelg, William Ritchie, Thomas McFadden; Durham, C. L. Grant, W. Irwin; Auditors, Charles Ramage, A. Davidson.

Durham Lacrosse Club defeated Arthur 11-4 on Friday. The local players were: C. Lavelle, Matheson, B. McDonald, Wendorf, H. McDonald, Smith, Moore, Gowan, Lawlor, W. Lavelle, Briggs and Glass.

Born.—On May 24 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, a son.—Traverston Correspondence.

A very pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKechnie of Bethune, Sask., on June 6, when their eldest daughter, Cassie, was united in marriage to Mr. Thomas Ledingham of Weyburn, Sask.

In asking for her hand there should be reservations about the thumb.

MEIGHAN TROUPE ENJOY FLORIDA WIEENIE ROAST

Motion picture folks look forward to a location trip with the same anticipation as a group of high school boys and girls going forth on a picnic. Not only do the cinematic celebrities enjoy travel, new sights and meeting strange people, but location work also spells relief from the monotony of studio work.

Thomas Meighan, Lila Lee and others of the Paramount company, who recently completed "Old Home Week" under the direction of Victor Heerman, are among the boosters for frequent location jaunts. The major portion of this film was photographed in Ocala, Florida, a town of 3,000 real estate folks and 2,000 other people. Needless to say Ocala boasts all the advantages that has made Florida the Mecca of Northern tourists.

During their stay in Ocala, the members of the Paramount unit were tendered a wienie roast at the Ocala Country Club. A "wienie," for the benefit of those who don't know, is a hot dog, a frankfurter, and according to Tom Meighan, the little plump sausage, when roasted in a wood fire at the end of a long stick, flavored with mustard, and eaten in the Florida moonlight, makes first-class food.

This was a wienie roast de luxe, however. A ten-piece orchestra played operatic airs from the club house balcony, and a dozen negro waiters in white jackets served cake, salted almonds and pickles during the festivities.

"Old Home Week," which is being shown at the Veterans' Star Theatre Thursday and Saturday, June 10 and 12, is a comedy-romance full of wholesome fun and rich in love appeal. The photoplay is based on a story suggested by George Ade, which means that it is not only humorous but human.

Mrs. Rocksveld: "So you have been married before, Jennie?" Maid: "Yes'm, three times, and if I lose this one, I know where I can lay me hands on a fourth."
