A Bad Spill

While Mr. William Batte of Stratford, who came up to his home here for over the week-end, was circling around the Bell Telephone corner about 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon on a motor cycle with his younger brother, Bert, astride a seat behind him, the presence of a Ford sedan driven by Miss Marie Mosack of Carleton Place, breaching towards him from the opposite direction, necessitated him making such a short turn that the cycle slipped on the pavement and shot in between the wheels of the Henry, the hind end of the bus passing over the cycle, which emerged from the ordeal with nothing more serious than a displacement of the engine and the light carried damaged. The two occupants of the wheel also came off luckily, the driver sustaining but a slight abrasion of the elbow and the loss of a pair of trousers, which were torn almost to shreds. Otherwise there were no casualties in an accident that might easily have been featured with tragedy.—Walkerton Times.

Man Falls Twenty Feet

The fact that he landed feet first in a flower bed, the soft earth of which broke the force of his fall, somewhat probably saved Robert Durbin from serious injury when the ladder from which he was painting a gable on his house slipped, precipitating him to the ground last week. Mr. Durbin fell first to the roof and slipped down to the ground, a distance of 20 feet. Neighbors carried him into the house, where it was found he had escaped with a severe shaking up.—Wingham Advance-Times.

Ran Over but Unhurt

A remarkable escape was that last night of Lorian Bell, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maitland Bell. In company with a number of companions, she was learning to ride a bicycle, and in turning on to the road, got in front of a truck driven by Joseph Allison. She was knocked down and run over, but on being carried to her home, was found to be unhurt except for bruises and scratches.—Wingham Advance-Times.

Kicked in Face by Horse

A serious mishap occurred early Monday morning to Mr. Herman J. Johnston when he was kicked on the side of the face by a horse. He went to the pasture field adjoining the village on the west side accompanied by John Bradley, who was on a similar errand of catching the horses. Bradley had caught his and was waiting nearby while Johnston had his own horse and another horse in the corner. He was about to lay his hand on the horse's head, when the other horse kicked with full force, landing right on the face of the unfortunate man.

Ernie Morrow saw the affair from his house nearby and hurried to Bradley's assistance, and they carried the unconscious man to the Morrow home. He was knocked out completely and remained unconscious for about two hours. Dr. Martin was called and was soon in attendance.

It is hoped that no bones are broken, as he got a crushing blow on the left side of the face. The patient was taken to his home in the village a couple of hours after the accident, and he is making satisfactory improvement.—Dundalk Herald.

Disgraceful Case of Cruelty

Following close upon the receipt of the news of the cow poisoning in Melancthon came reports of extreme cruelty to horses in Mulmur Township. Last Sunday, on going out to the pasture, Mr. Ross Dobson of Mulmur discovered a valuable mare dead in a pasture. Examination disclosed death due to some person having cut off the animal's tongue close to the root. Dr. Thomas McMahon of Mansfield said the beast had bled to death in two hours. On the night of June 4, a horse in Dobson's stable narrowly escaped death when some unknown party slashed its neck, just missing the jugular vein.—Shelburne Free Press.

Pretty Little Deer Thriving in Captivity

While out in the orchard one morning a few days ago, Mr. Will Young, East Wawanosh, noticed a doe and her baby fawn a few feet away in the orchard. The mother animal rushed at him as soon as she saw him, and only an apple tree which he was able to jump behind and the timely arrival of his dogs saved him a real battle, as the doe was out to protect her young at any cost. She commenced a battle with the dogs, but gave up and fled over the fence, when Will went over and took charge of one of the nicest little fawn we have ever seen. It is becoming quite a pet at the Young home and makes itself quite at home, even going into the house and taking charge of the dog's corner behind the stove. It enjoys milk out of a pail just like a calf and is quite a curiosity in the neighborhood, people motoring for miles to see it.—Wingham Advance-Times.

Train Wreck at Allenford

The southbound afternoon passenger train on this branch of the C. N. R. was derailed about two miles south of Allenford last Tuesday when the rear coach left the tracks and went over on its side. W. Bennett of Stratford sustained a dislocated shoulder and injuries about the head and was taken to Hanover Hospital. Two other passengers in the coach were slightly shaken up. The Palmerston auxiliary had the tracks clear a few hours after the accident.—Chesley Enterprise.

Palmerston Man Fatally Burned

The death of Mr. John Ramon of Palmerston occurred at the Palmerston Hospital on Saturday, June 12, as the result of severe burns received early on Friday, when the coal oil which he was using to light the fire for breakfast exploded, enveloping him in flames, which burned him badly about the head and body. The house was practically destroyed.—Palmerston Spectator.

The Thornbury Arson Case

The two men, Rogers and Kenneth, implicated in the fire that occurred at Thornbury last Thursday, were arraigned before Police Magistrate Hogz in the Police Court of that town on Tuesday charged with arson and other offences. The court room was crowded to the doors with curious spectators. The first charge against James E. Rogers was "that on or about the 10th day of June, 1926, at the town of Thornbury, he did unlawfully and without legal justification or excuse and without color of right, set fire to a certain building situate in the Mill Reserve in the Town of Thornbury, used and occupied by the said James E. Rogers as a jewelry store."

Harry Kenneth was called upon to answer the same charge. Rogers and Kenneth were also charged with conspiring together to defraud by setting fire to the building. A third charge was laid against Kenneth of breaking and entering the premises of James E. Rogers and stealing therefrom certain articles of jewelry. The defendants elected to be tried by jury in all the cases and were remanded to the Fall Assizes at Owen Sound. County Crown Attorney Dyer appeared for the prosecution and E. J. McEwen of Collingwood for the defence. The informations were laid by Mr. Douglas H. Saville, Deputy Fire Marshall, Toronto. Bail was accepted in each of the cases in two sureties of $2,000 and the defendants in $1,000 each.—Collingwood Enterprise.

Four Pound Trout Caught at Eugenia

A speckled trout weighing four pounds and two ounces caught in the lake at Eugenia! To catch such a fish has been the dream of hundreds of the followers of Isaac Walton, who have spent their leisure hours dangling a worm in the quiet waters of that famous reserve which is in our midst. The dream has at last been broken, and has become a beautiful reality since Jim Dargavel, manager of the Durham Furniture Company at Rock Mills, brought a fine monster to justice on Friday evening last, off the eighth line bridge. It was a lovely fish and one that would make some of these Nipigon fighters sit up and take notice. As warmer weather comes and the water recedes, the big fish are taking hold, and enthusiasm will soon be at its height. This part of Grey County is one of the best trout fishing grounds in Ontario, large numbers of excellent size being reported. In one lake, about twelve miles from Flesherston, thirteen fish were caught that tipped the scales at twenty pounds, while another catch of thirteen weighed thirteen pounds even. It has been quite a few years since so many fishermen have been seen here, and

TYPHOID VICTIM AWARDED $2,000

Judgment Against City, Etc., Given by Justice Logie—Suit, Regarded as Test Case, Likely to Be Appealed

Judgment in favor of Miss Susie McQueen against the City of Owen Sound, the Public Utilities Commission and the Board of Health, was rendered by Justice Logie Saturday noon. Miss McQueen was awarded $2,000 and costs. Stay of 15 days was granted. Miss McQueen was suing the municipality and the other bodies for damages for an illness of typhoid fever which she contracted from alleged impure water supplied by the city.

In his finding, Justice Logie rebuked the civic authorities concerned in the supplying of water to the city for negligence. He found that all parties in action, as defendants, were equally negligent. He stressed the fact that chlorination of Owen Sound's water supply had been left off, despite repeated warnings, until it was too late, and the whole community was caught in an epidemic of typhoid.

There were quite a number of cases in August and September of last year, and it is definitely known that this is to serve as a test case. It is probable that the finding of the court just concluded will be appealed by the city and the other bodies.

Has About One Hundred Chinchilla Rabbits

The rearing of fur-bearing animals is becoming quite an important industry throughout the Beaver Valley, and many of those who have embarked upon this new enterprise are meeting with considerable success. Fox farming has had quite a number of votaries for some time. Muskrat farming is another branch of the enterprise quite recently taken up, while quite a few people are now engaged in the task of raising Chinchilla rabbits.

The raising of rabbits is not only an interesting hobby, but, properly managed proves very profitable. The demand for the pelts of the Chinchilla rabbit is steadily increasing, as the soft, glossy and attractive looking fur is rapidly growing in popularity with the fair sex.

One of the largest breeders of Chinchilla in the district is Mr. R. Goff of Clarksburg, who in his large, airy, well-equipped and well ordered rabbitry on his Marsh street, has nearly a hundred splendid specimens of these furry beauties. His principal stud buck is Lord Aidelud, a magnificent animal imported from England, where it won six prizes. Another stud buck was imported from the United States and is also a prize winning champion.

In fact, most of Mr. Goff's animals are either prize-winners or from prize-winning stock. They are all beautifully furred, and the four distinct colors, which are essential on all true Chinchillas show up distinctly on all of them. Mr. Goff has rabbits of varying ages in his collection, including some just a few days old. He has a fine, new rabbit house, of excellent design, with a cement floor, and with an ideal system of ventilation—the latter a most important factor in raising sound, healthy animals.

Anyone thinking of embarking on the breeding of rabbits either for pleasure or profit will find a visit to Mr. Goff's rabbitry a source of much interest.—Collingwood Bulletin.

Walking Around the World

Eric Trickey, a Teonton, lingered a while in Port McNicoll to earn sufficient to continue his walking tour of the world which is the condition under which he is to win the wager. These conditions also allow him to take advantage of the water routes on the Great Lakes, and that is the reason he found himself in this village.

Trickey is a man barely 20 years of age, and on his globe trot has already visited many countries in the old land, arriving in New York from Spain in Spain he visited Buffalo and Niagara Falls and Toronto and headed north via Barrie. He boarded the Assiniboia on Saturday for Port Arthur and will make for Vancouver, where he will leave for Australia.—Midland Argus.

Young Minister Suffered Broken Leg

An unfortunate accident occurred at Faversham last week while Rev. Koeper, who is a young man serving the continuing Presbyterian congregation here was taking a stroll back to Mr. McLean's woods. He was getting over a fence, and the top rail rolled away, causing him to come down on his leg on the other side of the fence, breaking the bone below the knee. Dr. McWilliams of Dundalk, who is taking of Dr. Guy's practice, he being in Montreal attending the Council of the United Church, was called and the unfortunate man removed to the hospital at Collingwood.—Flesherston Advance.

To Dredge Harbor

The grant of $20,000, which went through the main estimates of the House of Commons for Owen Sound harbor, will be largely used to dredge the entire harbor to a depth at which boats will be able to navigate. It is possible a further grant for dredging and other necessary harbor improvement will be made in the supplementary estimates. Meaford harbor was granted $10,000.

Constables Meet

At a meeting of county constables of Grey County, called by Sheriff J. S. Wilson, there were some 25 officers in attendance. The sheriff, in addressing the constables, outlined the work a constable is supposed to do, while License Inspector M. C. Beckett spoke on the enforcement of the O. T. A. Provincial Constable Denton also addressed the gathering. Fish and game laws were thoroughly gone over, and the constables were instructed to pay more attention to their enforcement.

"THE SHOCK PUNCH" NEW DIX PICTURE

Frances Howard Featured in Big Paramount Film.

Action! Punch! Red blood! Comedy! That's the order of the day at the Veterans Star Theatre on Friday and Saturday, June 25 and 26, here the Paramount picture, "The Shock Punch," starring Richard Dix, is the feature.

"The Shock Punch" is a screen version of John Monk Saunders' Liberty Magazine story adapted for the screen by Luther Reed and directed by Paul Sloane, who made "Too Many Kisses," also starring Dix. Frances Howard, who played opposite Dix in "Too Many Kisses," is featured at the head of the cast in this one, too.

In "The Shock Punch," Dix has the role of Randall Lee Savage, scion of a wealthy family, who, in a course of boxing to keep physically fit, develops a "shock punch." He is forced to use this knockout punch on several occasions, especially when in an attempt to prove his daring, he takes a position among structural iron workers. These workers take delight in teasing the embryo and force him to perform hazardous feats on iron beams as they are

HANOVER WOMAN JAILED 3 MONTHS ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Mrs. Margaret Otter Appeared for Sentence Before Magistrate Greasor.

Mrs. Elizabeth Otter, of Hanover, charged with having abandoned her infant child and placing it in danger of losing its life, appeared before Magistrate Greasor in police court at Owen Sound on Monday afternoon for sentence, she having previously pleaded guilty to the charge. Since she last appeared, she had engaged counsel to look after her interests, and W. S. Middlebro', K. C., appeared for her. He asked permission to withdraw the plea of guilty, but this request was denied, and then Mr. Middlebro' made a strong plea for leniency.

T. H. Dyer, County Crown Attorney, was the prosecutor, and outlined the facts in the case, which were to the effect that the accused gave birth to the child in an outhouse on her father's premises in Hanover, and after wrapping it up in a newspaper and an old apron, placed it in a barrel, where it was subsequently found by her father. The child is still living and doing well. Mrs. Otter was sentenced by the Magistrate to serve three months in the county jail for her crime.

And a Bargain at That

A little boy had got into the habit of saying "Darn," of which his mother naturally did not approve. "Dear," she said to the little boy, "here is ten cents. It is yours if you will promise me not to say 'darn' any more."

"All right, mother," he said, as he took the money. "I promise."

As he lovingly fingered the money, a hopeful look came into his eye, and he said: "Say, mother, I know a word that is worth fifty cents."
