now C. N. R. agent at the lake port. The always present Dr. Lorne Robertson of Stratford, who is an annual visitor here, was on hand with his rink, and was a runner-up in two events, going into the second round in the Hahn Trophy event, and into the semi-finals in the Toronto Star event. In the former, Meaford and Goderich went into the finals, the latter winning out 10 to 11. The finals in the Toronto Star contest was contested by rinks from Owen Sound and Mount Forest, the former winning 10 to 6.

With the Hahn Trophy went prizes of sweater coats and electric irons; with the Toronto Star Trophy, stainless steel knives and fancy bowls, and in the Hard Luck event, dinner knives and sweater coats.

PRESBYTERIAL MET LAST WEEK AT ARTHUR

Referring to the work of the W. M. S. during the past year, a year which had been so tense in feeling, so marked in devotion and faith of its women, so critical in history and so glorious in results. Truly, "The Lord hath done great things for us, thereof we are glad." The speaker said the predominant note of the meeting should be one of gratitude and thankfulness to Him who has guided and preserved his people. The expectations of even the most hopeful of a year ago have been surpassed, though the church has suffered disappointments, discouragements, financial and material losses and also broken friendships. She showed how the Presbyterian church by its dignified service and by its simple, positive gospel messages was particularly suited to the needs of a growing nation like Canada. She stated that during the year, the executive met regularly, and the great work of reconstruction went steadily on. A school home was purchased and equipped at New Liskeard, a hospital in South Porcupine, and much good work done among the foreign element in Canada. Mrs. Ledingham referred to the good work done by the women of Saugeen Presbyterian, a wonderful zeal and enthusiasm has been induced and a wealth of hitherto undeveloped talent brought to light. She made an appeal for all the women to join the W. M. S. and unite in prayer for the advancement of the kingdom.

Short, departmental reports were given by the different officers of last year, and the morning's session was closed by prayer by Mrs. Derby of Durham.

The afternoon session commenced with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. Riddell of Palmerston and Mrs. Welsh of Harrison.

The first speaker was Miss Bessie MacMurchy, Toronto, a member of

She made an appeal for all the women to join the W. M. S. and unite in prayer for the advancement of the kingdom.

Short, departmental reports were given by the different officers of last year, and the morning's session was closed by prayer by Mrs. Derby of Durham.

The afternoon session commenced with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. Riddell of Palmerston and Mrs. Welsh of Harrison.

The first speaker was Miss Bessie MacMurchy, Toronto, a member of the Council Executive of the W.M.S. She gave an inspiring address, dealing with the work of the Women's Missionary Society at home and abroad and showed the great interest and devotion of the different Presbyterials she had visited throughout the province. She referred to the valuable information given by the W. M. S. and the importance of the different branches, young people's societies, mission bands and Canadian girls in training classes. Miss MacMurchy particularly stressed the fact that while the Council Executive laid plans for carrying on this great work, success depended on each auxiliary doing its part.

In her discussion on missions abroad, the speaker considered it would be advisable for the Presbyterian church to have separate mission fields and to control them rather than in conjunction with any other church. She was of the opinion that royal commission would grant this request, if not they would enter new fields already unoccupied.

Reports from young women's associations, from Canadian girls in Training and from mission bands were read. During the afternoon a duet was rendered by Mrs. Crewson and Mrs. MacLean, which was much enjoyed, as were also two choruses by Arthur Mission Band.

Miss Sinclair of Harrison then gave a splendid talk on the work and importance of the Canadian girls in Training department and emphasized the fact that the C. G. I. T. should be a stepping stone from the Mission Band. When the girls of the teen age drop out of the latter, the C. G. I. T. answers the needs of the growing girl by giving her a four fold development, physical, intellectual, spiritual and social. Miss Sinclair hoped that before long each auxiliary in the Presbytery would have a class formed.

Miss Christie, Holstein, who attended the provincial meeting in Toronto, was called on to give a short synopsis.

The report of the Resolutions Committee read by Mrs. Howes, Harrison, read as follows: (1) That thanks be tendered the session and managers of St. Andrew's church, Arthur, for the use of the church. (2) Also to the ladies of Arthur Auxiliary for their kind hospitality in providing luncheon and tea for all. (3) That a resolution of sympathy be sent to Miss Thynne, Palmerston, Glad Tidings Secretary, who has lost a brother recently.

After the offering was received, Mr. Dece, Mount Forest, offered a dedicatory prayer, following which the report of the Nominating Committee was given, and the election and installation of officers for next year took place. These are as follows:

First Honorary President, Mrs. Milligan, Clifford; Second Honorary President, Miss Thynne, Palmerston; President, Mrs. Ledingham, Harrison; First Vice-President, Mrs. D. R. Armstrong, Durham; Second Vice-President, Mrs. MacDonald, Arthur; Third Vice-President, Mrs. Dyer, Mount Forest; Fourth Vice-President, Mrs. Marshall, Knox, Normandy; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. McPhee, Mount Forest; Recording Secretary, Mrs. J. C. Richardson, Palmerston; Supply Secretary, Mrs. Howes, Harrison; Glad Tidings Secretary, Miss V. Porterfield, Clifford; Home Helpers Secretary, Mrs. Renwick, Dromore; Mission Band Secretary, Mrs. McKenzie, Palmerston; Literature and Library Secretary, Miss Christie, Holstein; Treasurer, Mrs. Lauder, Durham; C. G. I. T., Miss Sinclair, Harrison; Welcome and Welfare Secretary, Mrs. Rogerson, Arthur; Press Secretary, Mrs. MacNab, Arthur.

BAND WON FROM HOLSTEIN

The Durham Citizens' Band softball team broke into the win column last night when they defeated the Holstein team 24 to 17 in a nine-inning game, the batmen having an inning at bat to spare. There was quite a crowd of Holstein rooters up to see the game, and from first to last, it was an exciting exhibition of the game that has in the past two or three years taken the country by storm.

HYMENEAL

SHARPE—WEST

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the United church parsonage, Holstein, Ont., on June 17, 1926, at high noon, when Rosina Elmel Mildred, eldest daughter of Rev. L. E. and Mrs. West, became the bride of Eric Ernest N. Sharpe, only son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Sharpe of Mount Forest.

The bride looked charming in ivory silk with corsage waist and bouffant skirt, capped sleeve with georgette bell, the bodice being trimmed with seed pearls. The bridal veil of tulle was closely draped to the head with a bandeau of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley, with white snaps. The bridesmaid was Miss Irene West, sister of the bride, who was prettily attired in rose silk crepe with corsage bodice, the skirt being scalloped in cream lace. Her bouquet was pink sweet peas. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate relatives and a few intimate friends under an arch of evergreen trimmed with pink and white flowers. Rev. L. E. West, father of the bride, tied the nuptial knot, and was assisted by Rev. S. A. Mootie, B.A., of Drew, Ontario, the bridegroom's pastor.

The wedding music was played by Miss Sharpe, a former teacher of the bride, and organist of the United church, Holstein. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father to the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. Following the ceremony, Mendelssohn's wedding march was played, the register during the time being duly signed.

The mother of the bride was gowned in pearl grey crepe de chine wearing a corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley and fern. The groom's mother was stylishly gowned in deep rose with hat crepe. The groomsmen were Mr. Mack Foye of Toronto, cousin of the groom, and the groom's gift to the bride was a leather initialed club bag with the new combination lock. The bridesmaid received a lovely necklace of

The rest of the fish until they reach the lingering stage. He gave some valuable hints on the handling, breeding and propagating of speckled trout, and his address was very much appreciated by the gathering. A feature of the meeting was the free discussion, there being very little of what could be termed addresses, the gathering being mostly of a get-together nature in which the various angles of the discussion were discussed by all.

The officers elected were the same as for last year: Mrs. Snettinger of Thornbury, President, and J. S. Wilson of Owen Sound, Secretary. On the executive board were placed the two local members for Grey County. We regret very much that the day (Wednesday) was a busy one for us, and we were unable to be present and give our readers a full account of all that took place.

ENGAGED ON HIGH SCHOOL STAFF

Miss Florabel Nichol, B. A., daughter of Mrs. J. C. Nichol here, has been engaged on the staff of the amber tinted French pearls, the groomsmen being the recipient of a signet ring, and the gift to the pianist was a white gold bar pin, the centre being pearl set in a period.

After the ceremony, a dainty wedding breakfast was served, with a pink and white ornamentation adorning the house and tables. The happy couple left on their honeymoon by motor to Toronto, Niagara Falls and other points in New York State, the bride going away in French blue chire de chine, trimmed with gold lace, with coat and hat to match.

The wedding presents were numerous and costly. Guests were present from Toronto, Galt, South Cayuga, Clatsop and Mount Forest. On their return, the young couple will reside on the groom's farm, "Spring Vale," in Egremont.
