H. R. KOCH'S DEATH A SHOCK TO TOWN

Well-known Secretary-Treasure: of Durham Furniture Company and One of Town's Most Prominent Citizens, Passed Away Thursday Evening Last After Only Few Hours' Illness .- Funeral Held Monday Afternoon From Knox United Church.

Thursday evening of the death of Mr. H. R. Koch, Secretary-Treas. urer of the Durham Furniture Comof town over the holiday, there were the news of his death was the first intimation that many of us had that anything was wrong

The late Mr. Koch had been exceptionally busy during the past fore he was taken ill, had been in his office until about 10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon he complained of a slight headache but thought nothing of it, and outside of this was apparently in his usual good health, Returning to his home about 11 o'clock, Mr. Koch remained downstairs for a short time reading before retiring, and it was not until about 1 o'clock Thursday morning that Mrs. Keeh, noticing that he was unable to get to sleep, asked him if anything was wrong. Receiving no answer, she investigated and was horrified to find that he was unable to speak to her and was unconscious. His physician, Dr. D. B. Jamieson, was at once summoned and pronounced him as suffering from a paralytic stroke and in a

REV. ARMSTRONG

IN MOTOR ACCIDENT Pastor of Durham Presbyterian Church and Family Have Narrow Escape When Car Swerves in Loose

Gravel and Ran into Ditch. Tuesday's Mail and Empire contained a dispatch from Brampton stating that while motoring near Norval, between Brampton and Georgetown, Rev. B. D. Armstrong and family of this town had been the principals in a serious motor accident which, while it might easily resulted in fatalities, was fortunately attended by only damage to the car. The dispatch says: "When his car side slipped in some loose gravel on the Provincial Highway at the west end of Norval Village Monday afternoon, Rev. Mr. Armstrong, Presbyterian minister of Durham, lost control of his car, and the car ran off the road into a deep ditch on the south side and turned turtle twice.
