Meandering with Marjorie

By MARJORIE ADAMS

School days! School days! They will be upon us before we realize it, won't they? Now is the time, though, to prepare for them.

It seems to me that pencils were the bane of my school day existence. Father kept me supplied with beautiful, long, yellow ones of which I was inordinately proud. I was, sad to say, extremely susceptible to flattering remarks regarding them and would find, usually, that I had "lent" all of them when the time came to write, and I would be reduced to the use of an ignominious stub which I kept for emergencies. The automatic pencil has done away with this plight to a great extent.

1. Cakes will never stick if the pans are first greased well with lard and then floured?

2. A lump of camphor placed in the case in which silver is wrapped keeps the silver remarkably free from tarnish?

3. Powder puffs ought to be washed in warm, soapy water and rinsed in clean soapy water?

RECIPE

Gingerbread

1 cup of sour milk 1 1/2 teaspoonsful of baking soda 1 cup of molasses 2 1/3 cups of flour 1/2 teaspoonful of ginger 1 teaspoonful of cinnamon, 1/2 teaspoonful of allspice 1/2 teaspoonful of cloves 1/2 teaspoonful of salt 4 tablespoonsful of melted butter or lard

Mix sour milk and baking soda, add molasses; sift dry ingredients into mixture; add shortening and beat thoroughly. Pour into greased pan and bake twenty-five minutes in a moderate oven.

Marvelous Fall Styles Now Ready

This is the time of year when summer clothes appear faded and worn, straw hats feel out of place and shoes look disreputable.

When I passed the ladies' outfit- ters yesterday and saw the display of fall clothes, I felt positively shabby in the garments which I wore so proudly at the beginning of the season. I actually sneaked in the door and sighed with relief when I found several charming frocks. Dark blue, as usual, is holding its own, and I found an ador- able coat dress trimmed with but- tons. I got a luscious rose silk for dressier occasions, and a dull green all-around dress of twill with creamy lace trimming.

Of course, my summery straw was absolutely passe; so I looked at hats and found a lovely assort- ment. I found just what I wanted right away, but I could scarcely leave—it was such fun posing in the other hats.

DOMINION EXPRESS CO. CHANGES NAME

After September 1, It Will Be Known as the Canadian Pacific Express Company.

After forty-four years of opera- tion during which it has grown up with the country and contributed in no small way to Canadian devel- opment, the Dominion Express Com- pany will no longer be known by that name. After September 1 next that great transportation agency will be known as the Canadian Pacific Express Company. In all parts of Canada and the United States and throughout the civilized world, signs on the windows of the many hundreds of branch offices will be changed, and thus will be forged a still closer link with the great parent company whose railroad, steamships and hotels are known around the world.

To mark the change of name, the Company has issued an attractive little booklet giving a short history of its career and a synopsis of its present wide-spread activi- ties. The Dominion Express Com- pany was incorporated in 1873, but it was in 1882 that Mr. Van Horne, then president of the C. P. R., took it over as an operating part of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Mr. G. A. Kirkpatrick, later Sir George Kirkpatrick, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario, was its president, and Mr. W. S. Stout, a young but thorough- ly experienced express man became its superintendent. Mr. Stout is today president and has for many years guided its fortunes in that capacity. For some years he and his assistants had a hard and uphill fight. They not only moved traffic but helped create it by finding Canadian and foreign markets for Canadian products and by scientific rate mak- ing encouraging the farmer, fruit grower and others whose markets were far away. The growth of the company over those many years is an interesting story, and it is an important chapter in the commer- cial history of this country and its present position where it is daily entrusted with hundreds of mil- lions of dollars in goods and treasure by the public, business institutions and the government is a matter for justifiable pride. The booklet is handsomely illustrated and is being widely distributed wherever the company operates.

To the Electors of South-East Grey, Dear Fellow Electors:

Chosen unanimously as the Lib- eral-Conservative candidate for this banner riding, I pledge myself, if elected, to use my every power and influence for the furthering of the best interests of the farmers, the industrial workers and the commer- cial classes of our beloved Canada.

I will endeavor to have the enor- mous debt of this country reduced and this land of ours made a place which will not only hold its own youths and maidens, but will attract the masses of the best blood of the motherlands. "Canada for Cana- dians" is my motto; your best inter- ests my highest ambition; your united support my heartfelt desire.

Gratefully yours, R. T. EDWARDS, The People's Candidate.

WHO MAY VOTE

My Dear People: The lists of names of voters are now being prepared. A registrar has been appointed in each poll. The registrar hangs up what he sup- poses is a complete list in two pub- lic places in each poll on August 23. It is the duty of every citizen to see that his or her name is on the list; if it is not, see the regis- trar and have it put on. Names can be given to the registrar any time you can find him or her up until 6 o'clock on September 4, but for the convenience of the public, the registrar must be in his or her home or in some place advertised by him (or her) on September 1, 2, 3 and 4, between the hours of 2 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon.

Any citizen can have names added to the list, so long as the persons, whom he asks to have registered, are qualified voters.

Anyone may vote who (a) is a British subject, and (b) is twenty-one years of age (on or before voting day) and (c) has ordinarily resided in Cana- da since July 20, 1925, (d) has ordinarily resided in South-East Grey since May 20, 1906, (e) is not expressly denied the right to vote.

"Ordinarily resided" is defined to mean on page 78 of Election Instruc- tions. "Residence may be inferred either from the existence in the district at the time of a personal or family home in which the voter was living or to which, although he may have been actually absent, he intended shortly to return, or alternately, from the voter having been actually lodging otherwise as a mere visitor.

Should election day, September 14, arrive and a qualified voter's name not on the list, such one can vote by having some voter, whose name is on the list, vouch that the one whose name is left off is a qualified voter.

Men or women working out of their poll can save a long trip by being registered in the poll in which they are working.

Official nomination to be held in Durham on September 7 at 2 o'clock. Cut this out for reference.

Sincerely, AGNES C. MACPHAIL.

STORE NEWS IS DESIRED

Recently a newspaper in the county sent out twenty letters ask- ing representative subscribers what feature of the paper appealed to them most. Replies showed that over half were most interested in the store news. There is no question but the people read the adver- tisements. If the business man will put as much time and thought into his advertising as into any other feature of his work, he will get re- sults.—Barrie Examiner.
