

Corner Concerns

(Our Own Correspondent) Mrs. Earl Mead and Isabel Matthews visited one day last week with Mr. William Grant and family of Mount Forest.

Although oats have suffered grief this year from rust, smut and wind-rain-storms, those hullless cats Joe got from his friend the groceryman suffered none of those ills, and had he had none other, he would have had nothing at all to complain about.

Mr. Robert Barbour treated himself to a new Ford coupe last week from Smith Bros., and this week Mr. Matthew Hooper has purchased a new Chevrolet touring car from D. McTavish & Son. In each case it was the second car of the same make. We are going through the experience for the first time.

Crops have suffered much through Friday's wind and rain and are laid flat and will have to be cut one way, which means four times the work of harvesting as well as loss. A couple of flocks of wild geese were seen going south last week, which will have a tendency to make some people hustle to get the harvest cut before winter.

The Conservative candidate called in this neighborhood one day last week on his canvass, and judging from the encouragement he is receiving, we now believe the farmers have been sincere when saying if a capable man and real farmer were placed in the field, they would heartily support him, and it is only right they should. Farmers should have representation in Parliament of men who are real farmers, who know just in every riding are there men available, so that in any riding where one is to be had, there should be no mistakes made in electing him so that we may have a reasonable share of representation.

Promptly at 1:30 o'clock, Mr. T. MacIntyre of Dundalk called the audience to order, and a lengthy program commenced. Harry Louie and company supplied the comic part of it. The Dundalk Band, the Swinton Park Pipe Band and Orchestra, the Campbell Orchestra from Walkerton supplied music. The Gohoon girls staged some good step dancing. Basket lunch then commenced after which a softball game was played between Shrigley and Flesherton, the former winning 47-11. Then Swinton Park and Feversham lined up for football and played a very fast game resulting in a tie 2-2. The crowd then went back to the grove and gathered around the platform, where the dance commenced and continued until an early hour. At the auction sale, which was held by Mrs. Sara McKechnie last Friday, there was a large crowd. Mr. Robert Brigham officiated as auctioneer in his usual efficient manner, and everything realized good prices. Mrs. McKechnie left on Saturday for Hamilton where she purposes making her home. Previous to her leaving, her friends and neighbors presented her with a purse and the following address: Dear Mrs. McKechnie:

With feelings of deep regret, we, your friends and neighbors, have learned of your proposed departure from our community. With especial sorrow do we feel your removal owing to the sad bereavement which you have so recently sustained, and we assure you of our most sincere sympathy at this time. We have always found you and your late husband most ready to help in all times of need. As neighbors, you have been ever ready to take your part in the life of the community, and in all that pertains to the general welfare. As a community, and individually, we feel that your absence will be a distinct loss. In the church, in the work of which you have so long taken an active part, there will also be a vacancy which will be hard to fill.

As a Sunday school teacher and also in the work of the Women's Missionary Society, you have been faithful, painstaking and conscientious. Especially in the service of song your voice will be sadly missed. But we hope that although you are leaving us at this time, you will often return to visit us, and that the friendships which have been so dear to us will still be sustained even though you are away from us. Accept this purse not for its intrinsic value, but as a slight token of the love and friendship which we bear to you. May the loving father comfort and sustain you in this your time of sorrow and be with you at all times wherever you may be and may the peace of God which passeth all understanding abide in you richly and bless you.

Signed on behalf of the Crawford United church and neighbors, Dougal Hastie, Will Campbell, Edgar Boyce.

BRIDGE BUILDING ON ALL SIDES No Less Than Three Structures In Progress Summer—Has Been a Bustle In This Line.

The bridge in Durham, at the cross-roads of the village, is still another near Hutton Hill the second concession of Bent seems enough for this locality to erect in one summer, but the case, of the three, that will be the one to be completed, is not far astray to say that the work is just beginning.
