

GLENELG SCHOOL FAIR WAS BEST YET

Larger Number of Exhibits, Keener Competition and Larger Crowd Than Ever Before, Claimed for This Popular Annual School Fair.

Another milestone has passed in the history of the annual School Fair of Glenelg Township, and if the reports of those who were there are to be credited, and we think they are, the 1926 season was a banner one for this popular event in the matter of attendance, the number of exhibits and the interest displayed.

The fair was held on the grounds of No. 3 on the second concession last Saturday. This is better known as the Edge Hill school, and is chosen because it is so centrally located. The school fairs belong to the Townships, they are absolutely non-political, are run under the supervision of the District Representatives of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and are filling a place in the country that nothing else can.

The fair at Edge Hill this year was most representative, there being eleven schools in the competitions from all over the township, though only ten were entered in the parade. This latter event was won by the Top Cliff school, but we understand the competition in all entries was close. The usual races were run, and a program of sports continued to keep the crowd interested until the inside exhibits in the school had been judged. For these, the building was filled to overflowing, with the roots and other things stored outside for want of room. Following is the prize list:

Mr. T. Stewart Cooper, the District Representative, also said a few words, explaining the object of the school fairs. They were not, he said, as some people thought, run

MRS. JOHN HEWSON DIED ON SUNDAY

Former Well-known Resident of Normanby Passed Away Suddenly From Heart Trouble—Had Visited Relatives Here This Summer, and Death Was Great Shock to Family Here.

The receipt of a telegram Monday from Varysburg, New York, announcing the death on Sunday of Mrs. John Hewson, was a great shock to her sitters, Mrs. James Kerr of Varney, and Miss Jessie Derby of Normanby, and also to her aged mother and other members of the family. While Mrs. Hewson had not been in the best of health for several years, the announcement of her passing was the first intimation the family here had that anything serious was wrong and naturally was a great shock to her family.

Mrs. Hewson, who was before her marriage Miss Annie Derby, was born at Hampden, in Normanby Township, about 68 years ago, the daughter of Mrs. Derby and the late Mr. Andrew Derby. Here she grew up to young womanhood, but about 40 years ago, left for the United States and lived in Chicago and Buffalo for a time. It was while in Buffalo about 33 years ago that she met and married Mr. John Hewson, in the employ of the Buffalo Street Railway Company, and for a number of years they lived in this city, removing about 15 years ago to Varysburg, in Wyoming county, about forty miles from Buffalo, where they purchased a farm and have since resided.

Only six weeks ago Mrs. Hewson, in company with her nephews, motored here from New York State and spent a week with relatives here, and while not in very robust health, she was bright and cheerful and gave no evidence that she was so soon to pass away. Returning to her home, she was in apparently her usual health, and the family here had received no disquieting news of her condition until the telegram came announcing her death.

Besides her husband, she leaves a son and daughter, both grown up, to mourn their loss. Surviving also are her aged mother, Mrs. Derby, in Normanby, 91 years of age, a brother, Andrew, of Hampden, and four sisters, Miss Jessie, in Normanby, Catherine, in Detroit, Agnes (Mrs. Ledbetter) of Stamford, Conn., and Mary (Mrs. James Kerr), at Varney, to all of whom The Chronicle extends the sympathy of the community.

The funeral was held yesterday from the family home near Varysburg, but it is not known here whether interment will be made there or at Buffalo, where a young son, five years of age, was buried some years ago.

by politics or any politician. The Dominion Government had nothing to do with them. They were fostered entirely by the Ontario Government, were non-political, and when politics entered, he (Mr. Cooper) stepped out.
In the speaking contests, Miss Mary Anderson based her address on "Honor the Flag," while Miss Mary Collinson took as her subject, "Pioneer Life." The addresses of Misses Allie Eckhardt and Bertha McNally were entitled the "Federal Government."

What's That!
"Was he on his knees when he proposed to you?"
"No, I was."

DURHAM CLERGYMEN GET HIGH OFFICE IN GREY PRESBYTERY

7th of October in connection with the general work of the church. The other business dealt with was mostly of a routine nature, but under the chairmanship of the Rev. C. Elmer Kenny of Owen Sound, there was little lost motion and much work was accomplished at all sessions.

The morning session opened at 10 o'clock, the opening ceremony being the administering of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper under the direction of the chairman. In this ceremony, the Revs. Dr. Fraser of Owen Sound, Mr. Gallagher of Meaford, and Smith and Peters of Durham distributed the elements.

The business of organizing the Presbytery was the first business of the meeting, together with the welcoming of new ministers and lay representatives.

The Afternoon Session

Commencing at 2 o'clock, the afternoon session was featured by the address of Rev. Mr. Bryce and the report of the Committee on the Maintenance and Extension Fund, which was adopted. Reports from the various standing committees were received and adopted, and the nominating committee was appointed whose duty it was to nominate the standing committees for the current year.

The Rev. Mr. Bryce reported for Home and Foreign Mission work, Religious Education, College Work, Evangelism and Social Service work and the necessity for the preservation of Sabbath day observance. He spoke of the Maintenance and Extension Fund and the interest taken in it, particularly by the laymen. He made the statement that while the United church was particularly rich in consecrated laymen who are more and more devoting their time to the managing of the affairs of the church, they were also most generous in their monetary donations for the advancement of the work.

Evening Session

The evening session at 7:30 received the reports of the committee on Home Missions, the committee on Religious Education, and the rearrangement of the work of the colleges, ministers and students. The report of the nominating committee was next received, and the election and installation of officers proceeded with. Upon the recommendation of this committee, the following officers were unanimously elected:

Rev. W. H. Smith, B.A., Durham, Chairman of Presbytery for the ensuing year.

Rev. W. J. Gallagher, M.A., B.D., Meaford, re-elected Secretary.

Rev. J. E. Peters, M.A., Durham, Treasurer, to take the place of Rev. Dr. Fraser of Owen Sound, who has for a long number of years been treasurer of the Owen Sound Presbytery and during the past year of Grey Presbytery.

Both at noon and at 6 o'clock, the ladies of the Durham congregations served dinner and supper in their usual customary faultless manner, and at the close of the night session, were tendered a warm vote of thanks by the delegates present, who also passed a vote of thanks to the old board of officers who had done so much for the advancement of the presbytery during the past year. The benediction by Rev. W. H. Smith, the newly-elected chairman.

brought a most successful meeting to a close. The next meeting is to be held on the second Tuesday in January at Owen Sound.

HIGH-POWERED DRAMA IN FLYNN'S NEW PICTURE

A tremendous fight scene, with the whole police department and the city officials of a great metropolis at the ringside to watch their champion do battle against great odds; high-powered tincture of Drama; side-splitting comedy and the pathos and heart throbs of real people acting in a real way make "High and Handsome" one of the outstanding pictures of recent months. This is the latest starring vehicle in which Lefty Flynn is appearing at the Veterans' Star Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings. The adventures and romances of "Officer Hanrahan" as adapted from Gerald Beaumont's well known short story, form a vivid and colorful slice of life and put the popular star up another notch in the favor of the public. A Persian cat, a heavy-weight champion and a pretty girl play a big part in this sizzling comedy-drama; and Producer Harry Garson, who also directed the picture, has reason to be proud of his product. A picture which can interpret so faithfully the code of a great police department and make
