

Crawford

(Our Own Correspondent) Mr. Arthur Petty and the Misses Esther and Margaret Petty of Hampden were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boyce.

The young people of Crawford have organized a Young People's Society. They heartily welcome any in the community who wish to attend their meetings, which will take place twice a month. The first meeting, under the leadership of Miss Ethel Henderson, will be held on Thursday, September 30, at 8 p.m. The officers are: President, Mr. James McDougall; Vice-President, Miss Ethel Henderson; Secretary, Mrs. Edgar Boyce; Treasurer, Mrs. George Torry.

Miss Jessie Twamley, teacher at Lamash, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald.

Communion service was held in the United church last Sunday. Two new members were enrolled by profession of faith, and a number joined by certificates from other congregations.

Mr. David Hastie is a recent purchaser of a new Ford touring car. Mr. James McDougall is also the owner of another touring car.

Mrs. George Hastie spent last week visiting Toronto friends. While in the city, she attended the C. N. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Boyce of Welbeck and Mr. and Mrs. James Alexander of Elmwood spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald.

Our representative elder, Mr. Donald McDonald attended the Grey Presbytery in Durham which was held Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Herman Bierworth attended the party on Tuesday which was given in honor of his sister, Miss Marie, and Miss Jessie Fiddis, before their departure to enter the nursing profession at the Western Hospital. Each was presented with a fountain pen, eversharp pencil, box of writing paper and book of poems.

Clive MacCallin has returned from his holidays. He attended the Exhibition.

Rocky Saugeen

(Our Own Correspondent) Mr. Charles Weppler spent Sunday with friends at Aytun.

Miss Kathleen Firth spent Sunday with Miss Ethel McLean.

The School Fair was held at Edge Hill this year with a great attendance. Our school captured a lot of first and second prizes for their exhibits.

The U. F. O. and U. F. W. O. met at the school last Friday night for their monthly meeting and were honored by our member, Miss Agnes Macphail coming in quite unexpectedly, and she gave them a short address which everybody enjoyed very much.

Mrs. E. Wilkie has returned to her home after spending a few weeks in Toronto.

Glenmont

(Our Own Correspondent) Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Atkinson of Proton visited recently at Mr. Alfred Tucker's.

Several from this neighborhood took in the School Fair at Holstein on Monday and had a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Stephenson, who has been with her daughter, Mrs. J. Hiltz, spent a few days in Toronto. She was accompanied by Mrs. Henry Eckhardt.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Adams spent Sunday afternoon at Mr. Thomas Harrison's, Jr.

Rev. and Mrs. McCormack of Priceville had tea Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Jake Hiltz.

Miss Phoebe Livingstone of Toronto spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. Charles McKinnon.

Mr. W. J. Wilson motored to Toronto on Monday with his daughter, Thelma, who is entering the Normal school there. Miss Hazel Wilson is attending High school in Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. William McLeod and daughter, Donald, visited on Sunday at Mr. John Calder's.

Mrs. John Scott and daughter, Mrs. Chester Fowler of Ventry, spent Tuesday with the former's sister, Mrs. Thomas Weir.

Mrs. Charles McKinnon and her sister, Miss Phoebe Livingstone, spent a day or so with their sister, Mrs. McNally, of Glenelg.

Dornoch

(Our Own Correspondent) Rain seems to be the order of the day now. We hope it will clear up for the Durham Fall Fair.

Rev. Mr. MacWilliam is this week attending the funeral of his father in Mount Forest.

Mrs. J. McIntosh of Owen Sound spent the week-end with friends here.

Mr. D. Sweeney is wearing a broad smile over the arrival of a baby girl.

Miss Nora Sullivan left Monday to attend Owen Sound Business College.

Mr. Morrow Riddell spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Riddell.

Congratulations to Miss Mamie Sullivan, Separate school teacher, on winning second prize for her school parade on Saturday.

Mr. Robert Mortley has started threshing again, and is at present north of Dornoch.

Traverston.

(Our Own Correspondent) From the rush and bustle of an election campaign to the quietude of farm life with its manifold duties and its own allurements is certainly quite a change; but we are not losing any sleep over it. One thing that impresses a stranger, ranging over the country, is the kindness, hospitality and industrious habits of the people. There are exceptions, of course, but the majority of folk are just "splendidly true." This past summer has witnessed more improvement in buildings than for many a year. South-East Grey has far too many farm homes.

Among those who left for Detroit this Monday morning were Messrs. Ed. Curry, Wilbert Greenwood and Keith Edwards, the latter having come home to help his dad during the contest.

Miss Margaret Greenwood and her cousin, Archie, spent three days of last week at London Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Jack and daughter, Clara, visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Nelson and family in Puslinch lately.

Mrs. C. W. Rutledge of Markdale is visiting among kindred and old neighbors at present.

Mr. Ed. Cook of Palmerston spent the week-end at the parental home.

'Twas a pleasure to have a bunch of the officials of Queen Street United church along with the pastor, Rev. J. E. Peters, and Messdames Moore and Watson and Miss Phoebe Wolfe at our home on Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. Clifford Cook cut up a big pile of poles for J. R. Edwards on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Atkinson and family and Mrs. Joseph Atkinson spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Edwards.

Quite a number from this neighborhood were present at the big sale of the late Mr. Aca Hill's stock and effects in Artemesia on Monday afternoon.

Mr. H. McArthur has taken out a lot of poles for the new telephone line on the 4th and 6th concessions.

The September meeting of the local Women's Institute was held some time ago at the fine home of Mrs. Colin McArthur on the 10th concession. About thirty fair ones were present, and a most profitable time was spent. Mrs. McArthur and Miss Merron served a dainty luncheon at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. R. T. Edwards, son Keith, Miss Mina and Mr. Ed. Curry of town motored over to Dunganon on Saturday evening to visit Mr. and Mrs. George Henry and other friends. They had a most enjoyable trip.

Mrs. M. J. Davis, Basil and Miss Jennie were guests the first of the week of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lawrence of North Egremont.

Swinton Park.

(Our Own Correspondent) The heavy rains of last week-end have delayed harvesting operations, and the ground is flooded in many sections. There will be great difficulty in harvesting the grain.

A good number from here attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Alex.

There passed away at her home on the 10th concession of Egremont on Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Matthew Mather, aged 82 years, 8 months. She had been confined to her room during the past year. She was a resident of this vicinity during the past nine years, having come here from Renfrew, Ontario. The funeral took place on Saturday to Mount Forest cemetery. Rev. C. Jay was the officiating clergyman and Mr. Colin McMillan undertaker. She leaves to mourn her demise two sons, James at home, and John on adjoining lot; and three daughters, Mrs. Holliday, of Eastern Ontario, and Elizabeth and Mary E. at home. The deceased lady was born in Lanark County, January 16, 1844, and was married to the late Matthew Mather on January 1, 1869. Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago. The flowers were beautiful and consisted of pillow from the family, spray from her grandchild, Holstein, also sprays from Miss E. Sharpe, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. W. H. Rogers and Mrs. J. Klager, wreath from Mrs. W. J. Philp. Those from a distance at the funeral were Mrs. James Holliday, Renfrew; Mr. and Mrs. Klager, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. D. Bronson, Drayton.

Rev. J. Walker of West China, and an old college mate of Rev. C. Jay, preached on the Holstein charge last Sabbath and delivered excellent addresses on the work in West China.

Mr. R. J. Gadd is slowly improving after his severe attack of pneumonia.

Bert Gibson, while motoring from Toronto last Sunday, met a motor bus about five miles south of Arthur. The glare of the bus' headlights blinded Mr. Gibson to such an extent that he did not notice a bridge which he struck and damaged his car by smashing a front wheel.

MacDonald, which was held on Monday at McNeil's cemetery, Priceville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Knox visited on Saturday last with the former's brother, Mr. William Knox.

Mr. Oliver Milliner with his gas outfit has commenced threshing, and the crops are turning out well, especially oats.

Mr. R. R. Kinnell has purchased a car of western oats and has them at his farm on the 14th concession.

Mrs. J. Hay, who has been ill for the last couple of weeks, we are glad to say, is very much improved.

A number from here attended a party held at Mr. Charles Whyte's, Priceville, where a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Messrs. J. and R. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy spent Sunday at Clarksburg.

Holstein.

(Our Own Correspondent) Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks of Listowel, accompanied by his two brothers of Loring, New Ontario, motored to the village on Monday and were present at the School Fair.

Mr. Rory McLean of Stayner spent a couple of days in the village recently.

The Egremont School Fair was held here on Monday, nine schools being represented. The affair was under the direction of Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale. The exhibits were numerous in each class and of excellent quality. Holstein school carried off $33.85 in prizes. S. S. No. 12 carried off first in the school march. S. S. No. 10, second, and Holstein school secured third place. In the speaking contest, Miss Florence Patterson secured first place for girls, and Miss Marie Aitken second in the girls' class. Master Bert Mather was first in the boys' class. A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation of a gold medal to Miss Isabel Hastie for having secured the highest standing at the recent Entrance examinations held in Holstein. The medal was presented by the Women's Institute. There was a record attendance at the fair, and the competition was keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McClocklin of Durham were recent visitors at Mr. J. Orchard's.

Miss Alma Knox of Guelph was a recent guest of the Leith family.

Miss Alva Irvin of near Mount Forest spent a short time recently with her uncle, Mr. R. Irvin.

Mr. John Rocks of Toronto was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rutherford of Toronto spent a few days with the Aitken families last week.

Mrs. Snell (nee Mary Brown) of Thompsonville, Mich., and formerly of this village, called on a few old friends last week.

Master Carmen Tyndall spent the week-end with his brother Maxwell, in Guelph.

There passed away at her home on the 10th concession of Egremont on Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Matthew Mather, aged 82 years, 8 months. She had been confined to her room during the past year. She was a resident of this vicinity during the past nine years, having come here from Renfrew, Ontario. The funeral took place on Saturday to Mount Forest cemetery. Rev. C. Jay was the officiating clergyman and Mr. Colin McMillan undertaker. She leaves to mourn her demise two sons, James at home, and John on adjoining lot; and three daughters, Mrs. Holliday, of Eastern Ontario, and Elizabeth and Mary E. at home. The deceased lady was born in Lanark County, January 16, 1844, and was married to the late Matthew Mather on January 1, 1869. Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago. The flowers were beautiful and consisted of pillow from the family, spray from her grandchild, Holstein, also sprays from Miss E. Sharpe, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. W. H. Rogers and Mrs. J. Klager, wreath from Mrs. W. J. Philp. Those from a distance at the funeral were Mrs. James Holliday, Renfrew; Mr. and Mrs. Klager, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. D. Bronson, Drayton.

Rev. J. Walker of West China, and an old college mate of Rev. C. Jay, preached on the Holstein charge last Sabbath and delivered excellent addresses on the work in West China.

Mr. R. J. Gadd is slowly improving after his severe attack of pneumonia.

Bert Gibson, while motoring from Toronto last Sunday, met a motor bus about five miles south of Arthur. The glare of the bus' headlights blinded Mr. Gibson to such an extent that he did not notice a bridge which he struck and damaged his car by smashing a front wheel.

MacDonald, which was held on Monday at McNeil's cemetery, Priceville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Knox visited on Saturday last with the former's brother, Mr. William Knox.

Mr. Oliver Milliner with his gas outfit has commenced threshing, and the crops are turning out well, especially oats.

Mr. R. R. Kinnell has purchased a car of western oats and has them at his farm on the 14th concession.

Mrs. J. Hay, who has been ill for the last couple of weeks, we are glad to say, is very much improved.

A number from here attended a party held at Mr. Charles Whyte's, Priceville, where a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Messrs. J. and R. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy spent Sunday at Clarksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks of Listowel, accompanied by his two brothers of Loring, New Ontario, motored to the village on Monday and were present at the School Fair.

Mr. Rory McLean of Stayner spent a couple of days in the village recently.

The Egremont School Fair was held here on Monday, nine schools being represented. The affair was under the direction of Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale. The exhibits were numerous in each class and of excellent quality. Holstein school carried off $33.85 in prizes. S. S. No. 12 carried off first in the school march. S. S. No. 10, second, and Holstein school secured third place. In the speaking contest, Miss Florence Patterson secured first place for girls, and Miss Marie Aitken second in the girls' class. Master Bert Mather was first in the boys' class. A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation of a gold medal to Miss Isabel Hastie for having secured the highest standing at the recent Entrance examinations held in Holstein. The medal was presented by the Women's Institute. There was a record attendance at the fair, and the competition was keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McClocklin of Durham were recent visitors at Mr. J. Orchard's.

Miss Alma Knox of Guelph was a recent guest of the Leith family.

Miss Alva Irvin of near Mount Forest spent a short time recently with her uncle, Mr. R. Irvin.

Mr. John Rocks of Toronto was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rutherford of Toronto spent a few days with the Aitken families last week.

Mrs. Snell (nee Mary Brown) of Thompsonville, Mich., and formerly of this village, called on a few old friends last week.

Master Carmen Tyndall spent the week-end with his brother Maxwell, in Guelph.

There passed away at her home on the 10th concession of Egremont on Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Matthew Mather, aged 82 years, 8 months. She had been confined to her room during the past year. She was a resident of this vicinity during the past nine years, having come here from Renfrew, Ontario. The funeral took place on Saturday to Mount Forest cemetery. Rev. C. Jay was the officiating clergyman and Mr. Colin McMillan undertaker. She leaves to mourn her demise two sons, James at home, and John on adjoining lot; and three daughters, Mrs. Holliday, of Eastern Ontario, and Elizabeth and Mary E. at home. The deceased lady was born in Lanark County, January 16, 1844, and was married to the late Matthew Mather on January 1, 1869. Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago. The flowers were beautiful and consisted of pillow from the family, spray from her grandchild, Holstein, also sprays from Miss E. Sharpe, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. W. H. Rogers and Mrs. J. Klager, wreath from Mrs. W. J. Philp. Those from a distance at the funeral were Mrs. James Holliday, Renfrew; Mr. and Mrs. Klager, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. D. Bronson, Drayton.

Rev. J. Walker of West China, and an old college mate of Rev. C. Jay, preached on the Holstein charge last Sabbath and delivered excellent addresses on the work in West China.

Mr. R. J. Gadd is slowly improving after his severe attack of pneumonia.

Bert Gibson, while motoring from Toronto last Sunday, met a motor bus about five miles south of Arthur. The glare of the bus' headlights blinded Mr. Gibson to such an extent that he did not notice a bridge which he struck and damaged his car by smashing a front wheel.

MacDonald, which was held on Monday at McNeil's cemetery, Priceville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Knox visited on Saturday last with the former's brother, Mr. William Knox.

Mr. Oliver Milliner with his gas outfit has commenced threshing, and the crops are turning out well, especially oats.

Mr. R. R. Kinnell has purchased a car of western oats and has them at his farm on the 14th concession.

Mrs. J. Hay, who has been ill for the last couple of weeks, we are glad to say, is very much improved.

A number from here attended a party held at Mr. Charles Whyte's, Priceville, where a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Messrs. J. and R. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy spent Sunday at Clarksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks of Listowel, accompanied by his two brothers of Loring, New Ontario, motored to the village on Monday and were present at the School Fair.

Mr. Rory McLean of Stayner spent a couple of days in the village recently.

The Egremont School Fair was held here on Monday, nine schools being represented. The affair was under the direction of Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale. The exhibits were numerous in each class and of excellent quality. Holstein school carried off $33.85 in prizes. S. S. No. 12 carried off first in the school march. S. S. No. 10, second, and Holstein school secured third place. In the speaking contest, Miss Florence Patterson secured first place for girls, and Miss Marie Aitken second in the girls' class. Master Bert Mather was first in the boys' class. A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation of a gold medal to Miss Isabel Hastie for having secured the highest standing at the recent Entrance examinations held in Holstein. The medal was presented by the Women's Institute. There was a record attendance at the fair, and the competition was keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McClocklin of Durham were recent visitors at Mr. J. Orchard's.

Miss Alma Knox of Guelph was a recent guest of the Leith family.

Miss Alva Irvin of near Mount Forest spent a short time recently with her uncle, Mr. R. Irvin.

Mr. John Rocks of Toronto was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rutherford of Toronto spent a few days with the Aitken families last week.

Mrs. Snell (nee Mary Brown) of Thompsonville, Mich., and formerly of this village, called on a few old friends last week.

Master Carmen Tyndall spent the week-end with his brother Maxwell, in Guelph.

There passed away at her home on the 10th concession of Egremont on Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Matthew Mather, aged 82 years, 8 months. She had been confined to her room during the past year. She was a resident of this vicinity during the past nine years, having come here from Renfrew, Ontario. The funeral took place on Saturday to Mount Forest cemetery. Rev. C. Jay was the officiating clergyman and Mr. Colin McMillan undertaker. She leaves to mourn her demise two sons, James at home, and John on adjoining lot; and three daughters, Mrs. Holliday, of Eastern Ontario, and Elizabeth and Mary E. at home. The deceased lady was born in Lanark County, January 16, 1844, and was married to the late Matthew Mather on January 1, 1869. Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago. The flowers were beautiful and consisted of pillow from the family, spray from her grandchild, Holstein, also sprays from Miss E. Sharpe, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. W. H. Rogers and Mrs. J. Klager, wreath from Mrs. W. J. Philp. Those from a distance at the funeral were Mrs. James Holliday, Renfrew; Mr. and Mrs. Klager, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. D. Bronson, Drayton.

Rev. J. Walker of West China, and an old college mate of Rev. C. Jay, preached on the Holstein charge last Sabbath and delivered excellent addresses on the work in West China.

Mr. R. J. Gadd is slowly improving after his severe attack of pneumonia.

Bert Gibson, while motoring from Toronto last Sunday, met a motor bus about five miles south of Arthur. The glare of the bus' headlights blinded Mr. Gibson to such an extent that he did not notice a bridge which he struck and damaged his car by smashing a front wheel.

MacDonald, which was held on Monday at McNeil's cemetery, Priceville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Knox visited on Saturday last with the former's brother, Mr. William Knox.

Mr. Oliver Milliner with his gas outfit has commenced threshing, and the crops are turning out well, especially oats.

Mr. R. R. Kinnell has purchased a car of western oats and has them at his farm on the 14th concession.

Mrs. J. Hay, who has been ill for the last couple of weeks, we are glad to say, is very much improved.

A number from here attended a party held at Mr. Charles Whyte's, Priceville, where a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Messrs. J. and R. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy spent Sunday at Clarksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks of Listowel, accompanied by his two brothers of Loring, New Ontario, motored to the village on Monday and were present at the School Fair.

Mr. Rory McLean of Stayner spent a couple of days in the village recently.

The Egremont School Fair was held here on Monday, nine schools being represented. The affair was under the direction of Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale. The exhibits were numerous in each class and of excellent quality. Holstein school carried off $33.85 in prizes. S. S. No. 12 carried off first in the school march. S. S. No. 10, second, and Holstein school secured third place. In the speaking contest, Miss Florence Patterson secured first place for girls, and Miss Marie Aitken second in the girls' class. Master Bert Mather was first in the boys' class. A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation of a gold medal to Miss Isabel Hastie for having secured the highest standing at the recent Entrance examinations held in Holstein. The medal was presented by the Women's Institute. There was a record attendance at the fair, and the competition was keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McClocklin of Durham were recent visitors at Mr. J. Orchard's.

and Mr. Colin McMillan undertaker. She leaves to mourn her demise two sons, James at home, and John on adjoining lot; and three daughters, Mrs. Holliday, of Eastern Ontario, and Elizabeth and Mary E. at home. The deceased lady was born in Lanark County, January 16, 1844, and was married to the late Matthew Mather on January 1, 1869. Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago. The flowers were beautiful and consisted of pillow from the family, spray from her grandchild, Holstein, also sprays from Miss E. Sharpe, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. W. H. Rogers and Mrs. J. Klager, wreath from Mrs. W. J. Philp. Those from a distance at the funeral were Mrs. James Holliday, Renfrew; Mr. and Mrs. Klager, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. D. Bronson, Drayton.

Rev. J. Walker of West China, and an old college mate of Rev. C. Jay, preached on the Holstein charge last Sabbath and delivered excellent addresses on the work in West China.

Mr. R. J. Gadd is slowly improving after his severe attack of pneumonia.

Bert Gibson, while motoring from Toronto last Sunday, met a motor bus about five miles south of Arthur. The glare of the bus' headlights blinded Mr. Gibson to such an extent that he did not notice a bridge which he struck and damaged his car by smashing a front wheel.

MacDonald, which was held on Monday at McNeil's cemetery, Priceville.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Knox visited on Saturday last with the former's brother, Mr. William Knox.

Mr. Oliver Milliner with his gas outfit has commenced threshing, and the crops are turning out well, especially oats.

Mr. R. R. Kinnell has purchased a car of western oats and has them at his farm on the 14th concession.

Mrs. J. Hay, who has been ill for the last couple of weeks, we are glad to say, is very much improved.

A number from here attended a party held at Mr. Charles Whyte's, Priceville, where a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Messrs. J. and R. Hardy and Mrs. Hardy spent Sunday at Clarksburg.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brooks of Listowel, accompanied by his two brothers of Loring, New Ontario, motored to the village on Monday and were present at the School Fair.

Mr. Rory McLean of Stayner spent a couple of days in the village recently.

The Egremont School Fair was held here on Monday, nine schools being represented. The affair was under the direction of Mr. T. Stewart Cooper of Markdale. The exhibits were numerous in each class and of excellent quality. Holstein school carried off $33.85 in prizes. S. S. No. 12 carried off first in the school march. S. S. No. 10, second, and Holstein school secured third place. In the speaking contest, Miss Florence Patterson secured first place for girls, and Miss Marie Aitken second in the girls' class. Master Bert Mather was first in the boys' class. A pleasing feature of the proceedings was the presentation of a gold medal to Miss Isabel Hastie for having secured the highest standing at the recent Entrance examinations held in Holstein. The medal was presented by the Women's Institute. There was a record attendance at the fair, and the competition was keen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McClocklin of Durham were recent visitors at Mr. J. Orchard's.

Miss Alma Knox of Guelph was a recent guest of the Leith family.

Miss Alva Irvin of near Mount Forest spent a short time recently with her uncle, Mr. R. Irvin.

Mr. John Rocks of Toronto was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Rutherford of Toronto spent a few days with the Aitken families last week.

Mrs. Snell (nee Mary Brown) of Thompsonville, Mich., and formerly of this village, called on a few old friends last week.

Master Carmen Tyndall spent the week-end with his brother Maxwell, in Guelph.

There passed away at her home on the 10th concession of Egremont on Thursday evening of last week Mrs. Matthew Mather, aged 82 years, 8 months. She had been confined to her room during the past year. She was a resident of this vicinity during the past nine years, having come here from Renfrew, Ontario. The funeral took place on Saturday to Mount Forest cemetery. Rev. C. Jay was the officiating clergyman and Mr. Colin McMillan undertaker. She leaves to mourn her demise two sons, James at home, and John on adjoining lot; and three daughters, Mrs. Holliday, of Eastern Ontario, and Elizabeth and Mary E. at home. The deceased lady was born in Lanark County, January 16, 1844, and was married to the late Matthew Mather on January 1, 1869. Her husband predeceased her 47 years ago. The flowers were beautiful and consisted of pillow from the family, spray from her grandchild, Holstein, also sprays from Miss E. Sharpe, Mrs. Caulfield, Mrs. W. H. Rogers and Mrs. J. Klager, wreath from Mrs. W. J. Philp. Those from a distance at the funeral were Mrs. James Holliday, Renfrew; Mr. and Mrs. Klager, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. D. Bronson, Drayton.

Rev. J. Walker of West China, and an old college mate of Rev. C. Jay, preached on the Holstein charge last Sabbath and delivered excellent addresses on the work in West China.

Mr. R. J. Gadd is slowly improving after his severe attack of pneumonia.

Bert Gibson, while motoring from Toronto last Sunday, met a motor bus about five miles south of Arthur. The glare of the bus' headlights blinded Mr. Gibson to such an extent that he did not notice a bridge which he struck and damaged his car by smashing a front wheel.

MacDonald, which was held on Monday at McNeil's cemetery, Priceville.