1.—Crayon sketch of Viscount Willingdon drawn on board Empress of Scotland just prior to the vessel sailing for Canada.
 2.—Crayon sketch of Viscountess Willingdon drawn on board the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Scotland just prior to the vessel's departure for Canada.
 3.—Misty (inset) Cairn Terrier, belonging to Their Excellencies which gained instant popularity.
 4.—Menu card designed for use on Empress of Scotland when she carried the Governor-General to Canada, showing on a map of the world the various positions held all over by the Empire by Viscount Willingdon.
 5.—Canadian Pacific Flagship Empress of Scotland which carried Their Excellencies to Canada.

Their Excellencies Viscount and Viscountess Willingdon made many friends on their voyage from England to Quebec on board the Canadian Pacific flagship Empress of Scotland, when His Lordship came here in October to become Governor-General of the Dominion. They paid visits to all parts of the vessel chatting with new settlers for Canada and presiding at the various functions that take place aboard ship during an ocean voyage. Sharing their popularity was their Cairn Terrier, Misty, who was friends with everyone except perhaps a plump Chow who looked to him as though he might develop into a dangerous rival.

Canada's thirteenth Governor-General had a fine reception when the ship docked at Quebec. He struck a tactful note when he told his French-Canadian audience he too could claim descent from the Normans and that French blood flowed in his veins equally as in theirs. "In this country," he said, "the descendants of our two races have worked for many years under the British Crown for a common purpose and object, namely, to promote the welfare and prosperity of the people of this wonderful country."

First impressions are vital in establishing successful relations and perhaps no impression gave so cordial an effect as one of His Lordship's speeches aboard the Empress of Scotland, which was broadcast all over Canada. In it he said: "I wonder if I may venture to add one word of rather an intimate and personal character. It is this—in wishing all health and happiness they can possibly expect and obtain, may I ask them one and all to give an occasional thought—a kindly thought—to one who is about to undertake very grave responsibilities for the British Empire in the great Dominion of Canada."

That is the true democratic note, sounded with modesty and feeling and sure of an unreserved response throughout the length and breadth of Canada.

A GALA NIGHT WITH HOLSTEIN FOLK

Presbyterian Congregation Give Another of Their Celebrated Fowl Suppers Monday Night Which Was, As Usual, Well Attended.—Held Annual Anniversary Services on Sunday.

The Rev. J. T. Strachan of Owen Sound was the special preacher in charge of the annual anniversary services of the Holstein Presbyterian congregation last Sunday and preached excellent sermons to a well-filled church both morning and evening. The congregation were delighted with his discourses and the 25th anniversary is said to have been the most successful in the history of the church.

On Monday the usual fowl supper and concert were given, the former in the basement and the latter in the auditorium of the church. This, too, was well attended and the Holstein ladies well sustained their enviable reputation as hostesses, their presence being served plentifully with the many good things they had to offer, and even when the repast was over it would seem that they were prepared, so far as eatables were concerned, to do it all over again.

The concert this year was a departure from the usual talent. Instead of local entertainers, augmented by talent from nearby communities, the committee in charge had secured the services of the Rupert Legionnaire Company of Owen Sound and a really fine program was put on. Miss Ayeart, the elocutionist, gave several selections in good form, showing her ability in both light and heavy offerings. Harry Parker, the boy violinist, made a hit with the audience, as did also Mr. Harry Dunbar, pianist and lady impersonator. Rupert Legate, in his humorous song, captivated the audience in his first number and in every instance the members of the company were forced to respond to an encore.

The evening was anything but ideal for so large an attendance, but the annual entertainments of this church have gained a most enviable reputation and it takes more than a cold night and a little rain to prevent those from a wide circle attending the annual fowl supper.

FIRST SNOW FELL HERE LAST SUNDAY MORNING

Durham experienced its first real fall of snow for the 1926-7 season on Sunday morning, the fall coming sometime between midnight and break of day. About two inches fell, but it soon disappeared when the sun rose and by the middle of the forenoon nothing was left but a considerable amount of mud on the roads. Other places near here received a more liberal helping of "the beautiful" than Durham, Dundalk being reported as having enjoyed quite a snowstorm, there being snow on the sides of the streets when the Monday night train came through. The snowfall was an aftermath of the recent storms out West, and a lot of nice weather may now be expected, as the weather for the past ten days has been decidedly cool and needed something of this kind to clear it up and take the sting out of the air. This Wednesday it is still cold and trying hard to snow.

HYMENEAL ROWE—BROWNE

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian Manse, Durham on Monday morning, October 18, when Ethel McDonald, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Browne of Copper Cliff and formerly of Mount Forest, was united in marriage to Mr. Hilton Beckwith Rowe, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rowe of Durham. The Rev. B. D. Armstrong officiated, and was assisted by the Rev. B. G. McKay, of Walkerton.

The bride looked charming in a rose satin gown trimmed with cream lace and brilliants, and wore a large black picture hat faced with rose taffeta. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and white heather. She was attended by Miss Clara Rowe, sister of the groom, who was becomingly gowned in pink georgette with pearl trimmings. The groom was assisted by Mr. Cecil McLean.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the groom's parents only the immediate friends of the family being present. The happy couple left early in the afternoon on a two weeks' motor trip to Sudbury, Copper Cliff and other points. On their return they will reside in Durham.

The Chronicle joins the citizens in extending a welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Rowe, and wishing them a long life of marital happiness.

SPECIAL SERVICES HELD LAST WEEK

 Truth About Drink, lantern slides were used to make plainer the dreadful havoc wrought by the indulgence in intoxicating liquor as a beverage. Tuesday night there was a study of "Life Problems", also illustrated, in which the speaker dealt with the problem of personal purity and the proper instruction of young people in the facts of life. The address of Wednesday evenings was an illustrated discussion of the subject "A White Life for Two," when special attention was devoted to the morality and the awful consequences of the social diseases of gonorrhoea and syphilis were plainly set forth.

On Thursday and Friday nights the addresses were devoted to the spiritual side of human life and an earnest effort was made to set forth the relation of a man to his God and to his fellow, and to enlist every one in the congregation in an endeavour to make his and her life more practical than ever in furthering the interest of the Kingdom of God within the heart, amongst the community, and around the world.

JUST FOR TONIGHT

Backward, turn backward,
 O time, be your light,
 Give me love, give me aim, just for tonight.
 Let me get busy, ere Memory fades,
 Washing my tresses and doing up braids,
 Let some beau call for me driving a horse,
 Even a hackboard would not be so worse;
 Let us come trotting back, me at his side,
 Let me say, "Thanks for the old buggy ride,"
 Let me give parties where all behave well,
 Proper in manners, or stories they tell;
 Let some good dancer, with decorous grip,
 Waltz me around with no flask on his hip,
 O, let me rest from this soul killing pace,
 Throw away compact and cigarette case;
 Tune out the radio, let me expand,
 Playing sweet airs on the upright or grand,
 Let me wear skirts that are down to my heels,
 Put on a bustle to see how it feels,
 How I'd love low heels, regardless of height,
 Give me my corsets back, just for tonight!

servations and the reforestation of waste lands, and for the replenishing of our streams and lakes with fish. His reference to his Presbyterian home training, and to Presbyterianism in the world generally touched a responsive chord in many hearts.

Much appreciated musical selections were rendered by the Hanover male quartette, and choral selections by the choir of Durham Presbyterian church. Duets were also given by Mrs. E. M. McFadden and Mrs. J. H. Harding. Mrs. McFadden and Mrs. E. Buschlen, Miss Kathleen Firth recited "The Cattle Thief," by Pauline Johnson with much fervor and expression. Miss Annie Smith gave a much appreciated reading.

A pleasing address was given by Rev. Mr. McKay, who had preached on Sunday, and following the program Mr. Duncan Morrison expressed the thanks of the congregation in a few well-chosen words to those who had assisted in making the anniversary a success. The occasion was marked throughout with a spirit of friendliness, fellowship and devotion which augurs well for the future.

LETTER TO THE ELECTORS

To the People of South Grey:
 At last Ferguson has decided. The election has been declared for December 1. I am in the field as the candidate of the United Farmers of South East Grey, and I am in the field to stay. I have not, nor will I have, any agreement or compromise with either of the opposing candidates or their parties. I have confidence in the people, and I believe their will should be obeyed. I have taken and will continue to take a strong stand for temperance. More later.

Sincerely,
F. R. OLIVER.
