

Holstein.

(Our Own Correspondent)

Last week we referred briefly to the death of Mrs. James Bruce who departed this life, Oct. 10th, 1926, at the ripe age of 88 years. The deceased lady was born in the township of Dumfries in 1838 near the village of Ayr. She came to Holstein when a young woman and resided for a number of years with her brother, the late W. T. Petrie. She was married to the late James Bruce in 1871. He predeceased her in 1911. She had one son, Alexander who died in 1902, aged 25 years. She is the last of a family of five brothers and three sisters. The funeral service was held in the Presbyterian church and was conducted by Rev. W. Johnston, her pastor. At the close of the address her favorite hymn "In The Garden" was rendered by Miss Inez Allan and Mr. Arthur Brown.

Mr. Colin McMillan had charge of the remains, the pallbearers being Messrs. Robert Christie, Robert Aiken, Jim Orchard, J. D. Roberts, J. A. Smith and Wm. Nelson. Beautiful flowers adorned the casket and were contributed by Mrs. Edna Olsen, Raymond Nebraska, a wreath; also a wreath from Mrs. W. T. Petrie, Holstein, sprays from Mrs. A. B. Petrie, Mrs. Christie and Geo. Petrie, Toronto, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Toronto and Miss Ethel Sharpe Holstein.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Christie and Geo. Petrie of Toronto, Mrs. W. A. Reid, of Toronto, Mr. Wilfred Petrie, Walkerville, Miss Tena Petrie and her two brothers and their wives of Milton and Altwood. The remains were laid to rest in the Reid Cemetery.

Mrs. West, of Louell, is spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Eric Sharp.

Mrs. Hildyard returned last week after a four months' visit with relatives and friends in England.

Rev. G. S. Jay and wife and little son were in Monticello visiting old friends on his former charge. During their absence Mr. and Mrs. McPherson, her father and mother and Mr. and Mrs. Moore and her uncle arrived at the parsonage and spent a couple of days, Mr. and Mrs. Jay returned Tuesday.

The Young Women's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will hold a Hallowe'en Social in the church on the evening of November 1st.

Ed. Haas is opening his shop and will carry on his vulcanizing operations as usual.

The little two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Holliday, Gleneden wandered away about five o'clock Tuesday evening. He was found about 8 o'clock that evening lodged in a wire fence in a stream of water. The little fellow succumbed from exposure Wednesday morning. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Watson of Knox spent a day recently with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Aitken.

Miss Blair, teacher at Orchardville spent part of the week end with Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Arnill.

Miss Eileen Gibson accidentally scalded herself while pouring water from a tea kettle.

Mr. Art Fischer is leaving this week for Woodstock.

Mr. R. Gadd is making rapid progress to recovery from his recent illness and will open the shop in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Millan have gone to Buffalo to visit her sister.

The Anniversary Services of the Presbyterian Church were held on Sunday last. Although the weather was inclement there were good congregations at both services which were conducted by Rev. Strachan of Owen Sound. On the Monday evening the fowl supper and entertainment were well attended. The Rupert Legate Company consisting of Himself, Comedian Harry Cameron, Violinist, Mr. Dunbar, Pianist and lady impersonator and Miss Ayearst Elocutionist was of a high class and was much appreciated by those present. Some $133 was realized on Monday evening.

Edge Hill

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. Arthur Edge was in Chesley on Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Ritchie of town visited over the week end with Mr. and Mrs. James McNally.

Mrs. Prior of Mildmay was the guest of her cousins, the Misses Edge for a few days.

This week will finish the threshing in this vicinity. There are no overflowing granaries this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Liddle and children of Walkerton visited the Misses Edge on Monday.

On Saturday Mrs. Fred Staples had the misfortune to slip and fall, breaking the left arm just above the wrist. Mrs. Jameson and Bell reduced the fracture and she is doing as well as possible.

Glenmont

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Bell, who has spent the past few months with her daughter, Mrs. Ann, has gone to Orillia to visit her sister there.

Miss Mabel Tucker, R. N., has returned to her duties in a Detroit hospital, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Tucker. Miss Hadley of Nova Scotia, also a nurse, visited for a few days with her friend, Miss Mabel Tucker, and returned to Detroit with her.

Mr. George McKelvey had a sale of farm stock and implements etc. on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. McKelvey intend to reside in Toronto in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Weir and sons spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Weir, Gleneden.

Some from this neighborhood attended anniversary services at Salem United Church, Proton, on Sunday. The services were in charge of Rev. Mr. Harrower of Flesherton and the Cedarville choir, and were much enjoyed.

The telephone line is still incomplete, though the boxes are in. The new line is 612 and the subscribers are Jake Hills 2-1, Thos. Harrison 1-4, J. Weir 1-1, Jos. Dixon 4, Alf. Tucker 5, Thos. Tucker 1-2, C. Watson 6.

Corner Concerns

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. Robert Dixon, (nee Myrtle Allan), Toronto, spent a week visiting relatives and friends in this part. Mr. and Mrs. David Gordon of St. Marys are visiting relatives and friends around here.

Mr. William Hunter spent last week with his machine filling silos for the neighbours, or at least putting what corn they had in them.

Mr. Wesley Andrews has leased the farm of Mr. George Pollock at Pollock Corners and will get possession in the spring.

Mr. George McKelvey had a very successful sale on Monday everything being sold for very good prices.

The damp weather of this week is holding back potato digging. They are a good crop with some while others are not so fortunate.

Those who attended the Varney church fowl supper on Tuesday night spent a most enjoyable time both in the hall where supper was served, and in the church, where a pleasing program was presented.

Green Grove Beef Ring held its annual meeting last Thursday and settled up the accounts for the year and put things in order for 1927.

Deputy Reeve John A. Ferguson has the sincere sympathy of his colleagues and many other friends in the death of his brother at Durham Hospital the beginning of the week.

Mr. Lorne Allan is being looked upon as a general handy man and is kept busy. Last week he put in stabling in Mr. E. Lindsay's new barn and shingled a building for Sandy McDonald.

Next Sunday will be as special day at St. Paul's Church, at least to the lay workers, as Judge Sutherland of Owen Sound, who is well posted and much interested in the work, will deliver an address at 3 p.m. All who wish to get a right idea of their duty should avail themselves of the privilege of hearing him.

Sunday, October 31, is set by St. Paul's people for their Thanksgiving services to be held at 3 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. with an outside minister to do the preaching. The following evening a supper will be served in the basement and a programme given in the body of the church. Thirty-five cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children admits to both.

Born.—To Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Andrews, on October 4th, a son.

Mrs. Robert Mighorn has the sincere sympathy of the neighborhood in the sad accident to her brother, Mr. Arthur Baker of Lovering, Ont., who was engaged as section foreman and was assisting in removing the hand car from the track before an oncoming train. He was so badly injured that he died in less than half an hour, although he got on to his feet and talked and remained conscious almost to the last. The remains are being buried from Hanover this Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Art Fischer is leaving this week for Woodstock.

Mr. R. Gadd is making rapid progress to recovery from his recent illness and will open the shop in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Millan have gone to Buffalo to visit her sister.

The Anniversary Services of the Presbyterian Church were held on Sunday last. Although the weather was inclement there were good congregations at both services which were conducted by Rev. Strachan of Owen Sound. On the Monday evening the fowl supper and entertainment were well attended. The Rupert Legate Company consisting of Himself, Comedian Harry Cameron, Violinist, Mr. Dunbar, Pianist and lady impersonator and Miss Ayearst Elocutionist was of a high class and was much appreciated by those present. Some $133 was realized on Monday evening.

Under Auspices Ladies' Aid Amos Church

(Our Own Correspondent)

Some of the farmers were unfortunate in not getting their potatoes up before the snow storm, while others got theirs raised in the dry weather.

A number from these parts attended the anniversary services in the Presbyterian church at Holstein last Monday evening and reported a good time.

Mr. Wallace Hooper has left for Detroit where he contemplates spending the winter.

Miss Mary Mather has returned to her home in Durham after spending a time at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Patterson motored to Flesherton on Saturday, taking Florence as a competitor in Miss Macphail's public speaking contest.

Miss V. Mervyn spent an evening last week at the home of Mrs. Robert Matthews.

The Durham A.Y.P.A. are putting on an play in Dromore on Friday night at 8 p.m. This is the play "Anne What's-Her-Name" and by all reports it is a good one. Everybody come and bring your friends.

South Bentick

(Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. Fred Corbett, who has been visiting his mother for a time returned to Detroit the first of the week.

Miss Bessie Grierson visited a few days with her brother Dr. N. B. Gall.

Mrs. William Hill of the Rocky visited for a time with her daughter, Mrs. George Turnbull.

The Corbett and Milligan families spent a day in Owen Sound recently.

Cornutting is over and threshing is well on the way. The majority of the farmers have their potatoes up.

Read the Classified Ads. on Page 7

CHESLEY MEMORIAL WORKS

Manufacturers of High-Class Monuments

Estimates Given and Designs Submitted Free

All work guaranteed first-class

Hugh McDonald, Thos. Soper,

Durham Chesley

Traverston.

(Our Own Correspondent)

Tis not the fault of nature if the Great Lakes are not filled up to their highest margin.

There are very few winter apples in this part of the country. We're going south on Hallowe'en.

Most fellows feel like springing in the air when a much needed job is completed, but Mr. Basil Davis unintentionally celebrated the shelling of the home on Thursday evening of last week by gliding off the slippery roof to the green lawn below. Just a wee bit sore next day!

Mr. William Hunter spent the weekend with his machine filling silos for the neighbours, or at least putting what corn they had in them.

Mr. Wesley Andrews has leased the farm of Mr. George Pollock at Pollock Corners and will get possession in the spring.

Mr. George McKelvey had a very successful sale on Monday everything being sold for very good prices.

The damp weather of this week is holding back potato digging. They are a good crop with some while others are not so fortunate.

Those who attended the Varney church fowl supper on Tuesday night spent a most enjoyable time both in the hall where supper was served, and in the church, where a pleasing program was presented.

Green Grove Beef Ring held its annual meeting last Thursday and settled up the accounts for the year and put things in order for 1927.

Deputy Reeve John A. Ferguson has the sincere sympathy of his colleagues and many other friends in the death of his brother at Durham Hospital the beginning of the week.

Mr. Lorne Allan is being looked upon as a general handy man and is kept busy. Last week he put in stabling in Mr. E. Lindsay's new barn and shingled a building for Sandy McDonald.

Next Sunday will be as special day at St. Paul's Church, at least to the lay workers, as Judge Sutherland of Owen Sound, who is well posted and much interested in the work, will deliver an address at 3 p.m. All who wish to get a right idea of their duty should avail themselves of the privilege of hearing him.

Mr. Wesley Andrews has the sincere sympathy of the neighborhood in the sad accident to her brother, Mr. Arthur Baker of Lovering, Ont., who was engaged as section foreman and was assisting in removing the hand car from the track before an oncoming train. He was so badly injured that he died in less than half an hour, although he got on to his feet and talked and remained conscious almost to the last. The remains are being buried from Hanover this Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Art Fischer is leaving this week for Woodstock.

Mr. R. Gadd is making rapid progress to recovery from his recent illness and will open the shop in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Millan have gone to Buffalo to visit her sister.

The Anniversary Services of the Presbyterian Church were held on Sunday last. Although the weather was inclement there were good congregations at both services which were conducted by Rev. Strachan of Owen Sound. On the Monday evening the fowl supper and entertainment were well attended. The Rupert Legate Company consisting of Himself, Comedian Harry Cameron, Violinist, Mr. Dunbar, Pianist and lady impersonator and Miss Ayearst Elocutionist was of a high class and was much appreciated by those present. Some $133 was realized on Monday evening.

Under Auspices Ladies' Aid Amos Church

(Our Own Correspondent)

Some of the farmers were unfortunate in not getting their potatoes up before the snow storm, while others got theirs raised in the dry weather.

A number from these parts attended the anniversary services in the Presbyterian church at Holstein last Monday evening and reported a good time.

Mr. Wallace Hooper has left for Detroit where he contemplates spending the winter.

Miss Mary Mather has returned to her home in Durham after spending a time at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hunter.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Patterson motored to Flesherton on Saturday, taking Florence as a competitor in Miss Macphail's public speaking contest.

Miss V. Mervyn spent an evening last week at the home of Mrs. Robert Matthews.

The Durham A.Y.P.A. are putting on an play in Dromore on Friday night at 8 p.m. This is the play "Anne What's-Her-Name" and by all reports it is a good one. Everybody come and bring your friends.

Read the Classified Ads. on Page 7

Darkies' Corners

(Our Own Correspondent)

Wedding bells are ringing!

Silo filling and threshing are almost completed in this vicinity.

Mrs. McIntyre Sr. of town visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichol.

Mr. Joseph Atkinson is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. McRae, in Palmerston.

Mrs. S. Patterson and daughter Eliza visited last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Mustard, Stratavon.

Miss Kathleen Firth spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Palmerston.

Quite a number from this burg attended G. McKelvie's sale on Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. James McGivern, Will and Margaret, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart.

Mr. Nelson Dowling of Regina spent a few days recently with Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson.

S. S. No. 9 Sunday school intend holding their annual entertainment on Friday, October 29.

Read the Classified Ads. on Page 7

Men's Tan Grain Blucher $3.90

Men's Calf Blucher $3.75

Men's Mahogany Blucher . .