Meandering with Marjorie

By MARJORIE ADAMS

Two-piece dresses are undoubtedly the outfits to wear on all occasions from sport to opera. This is good news for most of us because it means that small pieces of material and partly worn frocks can be utilized in their making.

Usually those for morning and sport wear consist of a woolen or jersey skirt and sweater while those for more formal occasions consist mostly of combinations of velvet and metal cloth satin, crepe or moire. In the latter, the velvet more often makes the skirts while the other material forms the blouse or jumper.

For Winter Wear

A gay conceit of the winter months is the silk muffler affected by the modern miss. It is like a man's scarf—in fact, I think most of those I have seen were purchased at a haberdashery—and may be of any color or combination of colors that is desired.

This year, however, the scarf is not tied as it was last season but is thrown around the neck or wrapped loosely about the throat of the wearer.

RECIPES

Chocolate Fudge

3 cups of sugar 6 tablespoons of cocoa 1 1/2 cups of rich milk 2 tablespoons of corn syrup 2 tablespoons of butter 1 tablespoon of vanilla. Mix sugar, cocoa, milk and corn syrup. Cook without stirring over a low fire until mixture forms a soft ball in cold water. Remove from fire and add butter. Cool slightly by placing pan in a vessel of cold water. Add vanilla and beat until light brown in color and creamy in consistency. Pour on buttered platter and let cool. Cut in squares.

Spanish Macaroni

2 cups of macaroni (broken into 1-inch pieces) 1 1/2 cups of milk 1 tablespoon of butter 1 teaspoon of mustard 1 teaspoon of salt 1/2 cup of minced ripe olives 1/2 cup of cheese, grated 1/2 cup of cooked green peppers (chopped) 2 tablespoons of chopped pimientos 1/4 cup of buttered crumbs Pepper Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Make a white sauce of the flour, milk, butter, mustard and salt; add cheese and green peppers and cook slowly until cheese is melted. Put a layer of macaroni into a buttered baking dish, then a layer of the cheese mixture and olives and pimientos; repeat until all ingredients have been used; cover with buttered crumbs and bake in a moderate oven for twenty minutes.

PENITENTIARY TERMS FOR GANG OF ROBBERS

With the sentencing of three daring robbers to terms in Kingston penitentiary, one of the most persistent bands of robbers in Owen Sound district in years has been broken up. Ernest Corbett was sentenced to three years, while the others, Earl Carr and Jack Jamieson each were sentenced to two years. All pleaded guilty to a large number of thefts in Owen Sound and also in the country surrounding.

The three were all living at Jamieson's farm, in St. Vincent Township, and it was from there that they operated. They were to stay all winter and get their supplies by stealing. Provincial police in Owen Sound and Meaford and C. P. R. police were all responsible for the capture of the trio.
