(Our Own Correspondent)
The sale of sawlogs this year is Grey County's salvation from the bailiff.

After spending a couple of weeks among the old neighbors near Markdale and kindred at Massie, Mr. Wm. Matthews returned to his son's home near Mount Forest on Friday.

Miss Gladys Firth spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Harold Lawrence, in Egremont.

Mrs. John Laughlin of the 10th concession is spending a couple of weeks with kindred in Toronto.

Tis nearly three-quarters of a century since Mr. Thomas Blair, Sr. came out from the mining district in the north of England and settled on Lot 6 on the 6th concession, acquiring as well, two of the other corner lots at Zion. His judgment was good for he selected one of the finest farms in the township. At his death it passed to his son George and when he passed away, the farm, with lot 7, on the 5th concession became the property of his younger son, Arthur G., who has added greatly to its value in the erection of the finest silo in the township, the building of a large implement house the drilling of a deep well and the installing of a fine water system and many other improvements. But the lure of the city has wooed him and his partner, so last week they sold this fine property to Mr. Emerson Peart, eldest son of Mr. G. E. Peart for somewhere in the neighborhood of $8,000. It was good buying as the buildings alone would cost more to erect. On Friday evening of last week a big crowd of neighbors, old and young, gathered at the fine old home and in a lull in the gay time, Mrs. W. J. Greenwood called the crowd to order and the host, hostess, son George and Miss Hannah Smith became the center of interest, when Miss Mina Edwards read an address, that expressed deep regret at the severance of ties so long formed and deeply-rooted; that recalled the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Blair on many occasions when their home became the meeting place for the big annual garden parties; for their helpfulness in school, church and community life and wound up by wishing them every success in their new life in Detroit. As a little token of good will a gift of money was presented to them by Mr. Oren Peart and to Miss Smith by Miss Margaret Greenwood in behalf of the community. Mr. Blair made a most feeling reply, after which Mrs. J. O. Greenwood sang a solo and others spoke kindly words. Mr. Blair is holding a big sale on Thursday of this week and expect to leave shortly afterwards for the "City of the Straits".

Wedding Bells are ringing around the Rocky.

Dornoch
(Our Own Correspondent)
We regret to see January pass as it has been such a pleasant month. Here's hoping that February is as good.

Messrs. Howard Smith and Artie MacIntosh spent the week end in Paisley.

Miss Olive Heath has returned to the burg again.

Mr. John Sweeney had a very successful wood-see last week.

Sorry to hear Mr. Harold Morton, mail-carrier on route 2, Durham, is unable to be on the route on account of sickness. We hope to see him around again soon.

Mr. I. Corlett is at present engaged with his cousin Mr. Joseph Corlett of Moorburg.

Mr. J. Lang is wearing a broad smile these days on account of the return of his wife and son after an absence of two years.

The work of hauling logs from James Park's bush to Durham has been completed this week.

The annual meeting of the Presbyterian church was held on January 19th. Showing that 1926 proved a very successful year in which the church was cleared of debt and a substantial sum remains in the treasury. This good work is due to the faithfulness of our pastor, Rev. Mr. MacWilliam, who has fulfilled his many duties in the congregation and has been present every Sabbath during the year.

Corner Concerns
(Our Own Correspondent)
Mr. Pinder of Guelph spent over the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Lennox, and is at present visiting relatives at Holstein.

Miss Minnie Schenk of Mt. Forest vicinity visited over the week-end with the Matthews family and attended St. Paul's church on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baird, Mr. David Hamilton and Mrs. William Hunter, the latter three brother and sisters, spent a few days last week at the home of Mr. Farr Lawrence, reviving old memories of the past as well as talking of the wonderful present.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mighton entertained a number of friends last Wednesday night. It was an anniversary of their wedding day.

An enjoyable evening was spent on Thursday night in the home of Mr. James Hargrave, in games and dancing. Good music contributed much to the enjoyment.

A sleigh load of light hearts from this line attended a dance on Wednesday night at Mr. John Ferguson's, new survey. A good time is reported. The night was clear and very cold, but weather conditions were never known to interfere with a dance, at least if it ever did we do not know of it.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gilmour of Burgessville, combined pleasure with business by visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. William Hunter, also brothers and sisters, as well as other friends, and at the same time disposing of some of their Normanby lands. They returned home Thursday.

Mr. E. Pratt is drilling a well back at No. 12 section. The people of that section have every confidence in him and would have no other.

This has been one of the finest winters for weather and roads we have had for a long time, and our people are trying to make it the most sociable one we have had since the good old pioneer days. There are church socials, Institute gatherings, community dances, etc., down here in Egremont, while up in Glenelg the folks are dancing like whiteheads.

St. Paul's vestry meeting showed a balance on hand despite the fact that the ranks this year have been so badly broken by deaths and removals. The following officers will hold forth for the coming year: health and other conditions permitting: Mrs. E. V. Matthews, Vestry Clerk; Mrs. John Queen, Organist; J. Tucker, Lay Delegate; E. V. Matthews, Rector's Warden, and Messrs. Arthur Lee and Walter Ferguson, Auditors.

Swinton Park.
(Our Own Correspondent)
We are having a nice snow fall today after the mild week-end and there is very little snow at present. The roads are excellent for teaming. The severe weather in the middle of the week gave the people a real taste of Old Man Winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Knox have moved to Mr. J. Knox's farm, 19th concession and Mr. Fred. Knox and Mrs. B. Knox have moved to the Knox homestead at Swinton Park. They are now all settled in their new homes and all ready for the coming spring.

A play entitled "The Dutt of the Earth" was put on by the Ventry young people in the church here and was enjoyed by all.

A number from here attended the funeral of the late Arthur Burnett on Monday. Much sympathy is extended to the Burnett family in their sad bereavement.

Mr. H. Montgomery of Dundalk was a welcome visitor at Mr. G. Haw's on Sunday.

Miss Nellie Haw of Hopeville spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. W. Knox.

Miss M. Kinnell, Miss Ruby Haw and Delbut Haw left for the Queen City Friday last.

Miss Cora Richardson of Proton spent the week-end at her home here.

A number from here attended a party at Mr. Wm. Dingwall's, South Line, on Friday night and report a good time.

Crawford
(Our Own Correspondent)
Mrs. Thos. Stinson was called on Sunday to attend her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Brown of Glenelg. Mrs. Brown has been suffering from an attack of la grippe which has been followed by complications.

Miss Laura Kaufman has returned home after spending a month at the home of her brother, Louis, in Sullivan.

Miss Elsie Boyce is enjoying a couple of weeks with Durham friends.

We are sorry to hear of the critical condition of Miss Eliza Green who is well, and favorably known to Crawford people having at one time attended the local church. She suffered a paralytic stroke last week at the home of Mr. John Boyd, Owen Sound. Very slight hopes are held out for her recovery.

A splendid missionary program is being prepared by the younger members of the C. Y. P. S. for the meeting this Thursday evening, February 3rd. It is being directed by Mrs. Alex. McDonald with Miss Blythe assisting in the training of those of school age. Missionary dialogues, hymns, recitations will be the chief features of the program.

Mulock
(Our Own Correspondent)
The social evening held under the auspices of the Mulock Young People on Tuesday evening was a decided success. Mr. and Mrs. Dan McLean very kindly lent their home for the occasion. Crokinole was the initial feature of the evening. There was a goodly number present making the contest keen. The prizes were won by Mrs. Fletcher McLean for the ladies, while the gentleman's prize went to Mr. Prosper Porter. At the close of the program lunch was served.

Mrs. Annie McKechnie is at present visiting at the home of Mr. Donald McDonald.

Every sympathy is extended to the bereaved sisters and brothers as well as the large circle of friends of the late Mr. Thomas O'Neill of Winnipeg, who passed to the higher life on Jan. 16th. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Neill, former residents of this place. Mrs. Charles Habermehl and Mrs. Milton Peppier, of Hanover are sisters of deceased.

Mrs. George Brown received the sad news Sunday morning that her oldest brother, Mr. Wm. Jacklin, had passed away at his home near Chesley. Mr. and Mrs. Brown left Monday to attend the funeral, which takes place Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Dougald McDonald of Crawford is a niece of the deceased. We extend deepest sympathy to the bereaved friends.

Mrs. Hooper of Mount Forest, spent a day with her brother, Dr. J. M. Leeson.

Mrs. Robinson, nee Jean Allan, who spent the past month with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Allan, returned to her home in Chicago on Monday.

AN OMISSION
In our report of the farce comedy, "Mail Order Brides" last week, we regret failing to mention the excellent music supplied by the orchestra composed of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McDonald and Mr. J. D. McAuliffe. During the performance, the medal donated by the Northern Business College, Owen Sound, for the best penmanship at the Fall Fair, won by Miss Helen Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young, was presented by Mr. John McGirr.

CARD OF THANKS
Mr. Hugh McDonald and family desire to thank their many friends and neighbors for the kindness shown during the long illness and subsequent death of their beloved wife and mother, the late Mrs. Hugh McDonald.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our sincere thanks to friends, neighbors and others for the many kindnesses shown us in our recent bereavement by the death of husband and father, the late Dan. C. MacDonald. Mrs. MacDonald and family
