The floral tributes laid on the casket were beautiful and included those by the family; H. N. Burnett and family; the Constable family, nephews and nieces, Toronto; Knox Church Choir, Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blyth and family, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. T. Henderson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Aldred.

We extend sympathy to Mr. Blyth and family, and to all other relatives, in their hour of sorrow.

FRANK GILMOUR

Mr. George McKay, of town, received word last week-end of the death on Friday of his nephew, Mr. Frank Gilmour, of Lorraine, Ohio.

Mr. Gilmour had returned from work and had retired to his room, being apparently in good health. Shortly afterwards his wife thought she heard him fall, but when she entered the room found he had expired.

Mr. Gilmour was fairly well known in town and visited here with Mr. and Mrs. McKay for a few days each fall. He was employed in the sales department of a large manufacturing company in Lorraine, and, being in apparent good health, his sudden death was a shock to his Durham relatives and friends.

Interment was made on Monday afternoon of this week at Lorraine, the funeral being attended by Messrs. W. McKay of St. Marys and Frank McKay, of Windsor.

JOHN C. KERR

Last week we referred to the death of John C. Kerr, whose death occurred at Caledon Sanatorium, Gravenhurst, on Wednesday of last week. Mr. Kerr was a son of the late James and Mrs. Kerr of Varney, and was born in Normanby 31 years ago.

When 18 years of age, he entered the Standard Bank as a junior and was stationed at Woodville, in Victoria County. Before entering the bank he had attended business college. After a time in the Standard, Mr. Kerr entered the Dominion Bank, being stationed at Welland. He was made teller and sent to Exbridge, where he enlisted in the artillery and went overseas. He never got any farther than England, however, as he had been there only a short time when he contracted a severe attack of pleurisy and pneumonia. He was returned to Canada after the armistice and after his discharge re-joined the Dominion Bank and was sent to Niagara Falls. His next move was to Orillia, where he remained for some time, when he left and joined the staff of the Lincoln Motor Car Company in Detroit. Here he was very successful and rose to the position of production manager, which position he held when he was taken ill.

The late Mr. Kerr was married two years ago last August to Miss Alexandra Ritchie of Orillia, who survives him.

In March of 1926 Mr. Kerr took the flu and an X-ray examination showed that he was suffering from lung trouble, apparently contracted when he lay in hospital in England. He first went to Northville, near Detroit, but last October went to Gravenhurst, where he was for a time at the Cottage Sanatorium, but was later taken to Caledon, one of the best and newest hospitals there. Though he received the best of treatment and attention, he could not recover, and passed away on Wednesday of last week.

The funeral was held on Friday at St. Andrew's cemetery, Orillia, under Masonic auspices. It was largely attended and many from a distance were present at the service. Among these were Mr. Crookes of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Flake and Mr. and Mrs. Bell, Elora; Mrs. James Kerr and Mr. Norman Kerr, Varney; Mr. Kenneth Kerr of Toronto, and Miss Janet Kerr of Albany, N.Y.

Amongst the floral tokens laid on the casket were those from the Board of Deacons of the First Presbyterian Church, Detroit; Lincoln Motors, Detroit; Boys of 203 Apartment, Delaware avenue, Detroit; Miss Derby, Detroit; Lincoln Masonic Lodge, Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Laramie, Detroit; Jean, Margaret, William and John Derby, Toronto; Pharmacists, friends, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Strong, Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Flake, Detroit; D. Hazleton, Detroit; and the following from Orillia friends: Presbyterian choir, St. Andrew's Club, The Gleaners Class, Masonic Lodge, Canadian Legion Branch, the Manager and Staff of Dominion Bank, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Ritchie, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ritchie, B. Ritchie, Alex. and Francis Ritchie, Ritchie Store staff, West End School staff, Mr. and Mrs. Will Calvert, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Serjeant, Mr. and Mrs. R. Bamel, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Thomson, Norma and Arthur Thomson, Norma Mc-

Donald, Elora, Ontario, and Miss Janet Kerr of Albany, N.Y.

Of the original family of ten, several survive, namely, Mary A. (Mrs. Wm. Watterson of Markdale); Levia (Mrs. Norman Hurd) Winnipeg; Susie (Mrs. Arch Robinson), Maggie (Mrs. Ghas. Watson), both of Brandon; John and Joseph on the 10th con, and Will of St. Thomas all being present at the burial. The sisters from the West arrived on Saturday and will remain a couple of weeks.

Among the many outsiders present we noticed, Mr. John Marshall and son, Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Marshall, Messrs. W. R. Wallace, and Andrew Marshall of Knox, Normanby; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mead and Mr. Stanley Mead of Egremont; Mr. and Mrs. John McNally, Miss Irene McNally and Mr. Will Marshall, of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Arch. McLean of Bentinck, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Grutche of Dornoch and about forty members of Markdale L.O.L. No. 1045, of which deceased was a member and after the church service, they conducted that of the order. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Oren Pearl, James Goodwill, Wm. Stoddart, John Hannah, Bert Burrell and Semple, brother Oranegen. The floral tributes were, wreath from the family; wreath, L. O. L. No. 1045; spray, Will Marshall and sister Jessie; spray Mrs. Redfern and Mrs. Shelly of Owen Sound. The deceased was a staunch Conservative, a most hospitable and obliging neighbor, ever cheery and genial and a man of splendid physique, towering head and shoulders above his fellows. The deepest sympathy is felt for his loving and lonely partner and little son, Marshall, and for the sisters and brothers, the family bond being a strong one.

60 YEARS AGO TUESDAY PROVINCES OF CANADA BEGAN CONFEDERATION

Last Tuesday was the sixtieth anniversary of the passing by the British Parliament of the British North America Act, binding the nine provinces of the Dominion of Canada into confederation. It was on March 29th, 1867, that B.N.A. was given final touches at Westminster. It came into operation on July 1 of that year, the day now celebrated throughout Canada as Dominion Day, and which will see the opening, this year, of the Jubilee celebration of Confederation.

Leola Enid Farlton, Elsie Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Haines, Mrs. Thomson and Christine, Mr. and Mrs. Todd, Mr. and Mrs. McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Mundell, Mrs. James Kerr and family, and his sorrowing wife.

The funeral was very largely attended and showed the esteem in which Mr. Kerr was held in Orillia where he had formed an extensive acquaintance during his residence there while in the employ of the Dominion Bank.

ANTHONY LAWRENCE With little or no warning that he was to be so soon taken, death came with startling suddenness to Mr. Anthony Lawrence, Lambton street, at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning of this week. The cause of death was intestinal obstruction.

Mr. Lawrence, who was in his 76th year, was a man of excellent physique, and though he had failed a little during the past year was quite strong and rarely missed a meal. Tuesday night he had partaken of his supper as usual, but was taken so suddenly ill some time afterward that it was found necessary to summon the doctor, but it was of no avail, his condition becoming so serious that he passed away on Wednesday morning.

The late Mr. Lawrence was born at Cookstown and passed his 75th birthday last August. He was one of the pioneers of Glenelg, coming here with his parents when a mere boy and settling on Lot 1, on the 3rd concession where he remained until he moved to his late residence on Lambton street just outside the town limits.

He was married 51 years ago last 12th of July to Miss Charlotte Wright of Glenelg, who survives, and since then have spent their whole lives in their native township. Mr. Lawrence was a man highly thought of by all who knew him. He was a man of integrity and honesty, and his passing, even at an advanced age, is deeply regretted.

Besides Mrs. Lawrence, he leaves a family of six daughters and three sons to mourn their loss. They are: Mary (Mrs. P. Lawrence), Durham; James, in Glenelg; Charlotte (Mrs. W. Porter), of Durham; Annie (Mrs. Angus Hooper), of Glenelg; Alice (Mrs. B. G. Hopkins), of Bentinck; William W., in Detroit; Susan (Mrs. P. Patterson), of Normanby; Robert, on the homestead in Glenelg; and Nancy (Mrs. Findlay MacCuaig), of Bentinck. A daughter, Martha, died in 1910.

The deceased was a Conservative in politics and an Anglican in religion, and the funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence on Lambton street. Interment will be made in Trinity church cemetery.

To the sorrowing members of the family The Chronicle extends the sympathy of the community.

JAMES McNALLY (Traverston Correspondence) Mr. Jim McNally succumbed to the severe attack of pneumonia at 3 o'clock on Wednesday morning of last week and a happy home is in deepest grief and a wide circle of relatives, friends and neighbors mourn deeply the loss of one so popular, always so cheery and bright. He was named after his father and was born on the old homestead on the 9th con., fifty-one years ago. For some years after his mother's death he lived alone but four years ago, on New Year's Day was most happily wedded to Miss Aggie Marshall of Egremont and it was truly a most happy union. A baby boy came to the home two years ago and life's joy was full; but so short, sometimes, is earthly bliss. He was a fine type of physical manhood, head and shoulders above the common and being so genial and sociable was a general favorite. The blow fell suddenly and heavily on his devoted partner, who in her own family circle knew a good deal of sorrow. The funeral was delayed until Sunday to give his three sisters from the West a chance to be present and it was one of the largest ever held in the community. Zion was packed full and many couldn't find even standing room. The deceased has been a member of Zion church for many years and his pastor, Rev. J. E. Peters conducted a brief service in the home prior to leaving. The service was intensely impressive, Rev. Mr. Peters being specially inspired his message carrying comfort and encouragement as well as a solemn warning.

Of the original family of ten, several survive, namely, Mary A. (Mrs. Wm. Watterson of Markdale); Levia (Mrs. Norman Hurd) Winnipeg; Susie (Mrs. Arch Robinson), Maggie (Mrs. Ghas. Watson), both of Brandon; John and Joseph on the 10th con, and Will of St. Thomas all being present at the burial. The sisters from the West arrived on Saturday and will remain a couple of weeks.

Among the many outsiders present we noticed, Mr. John Marshall and son, Andrew, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Marshall, Messrs. W. R. Wallace, and Andrew Marshall of Knox, Normanby; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lennox, Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Mead and Mr. Stanley Mead of Egremont; Mr. and Mrs. John McNally, Miss Irene McNally and Mr. Will Marshall, of Durham; Mr. and Mrs. Arch. McLean of Bentinck, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Grutche of Dornoch and about forty members of Markdale L.O.L. No. 1045, of which deceased was a member and after the church service, they conducted that of the order. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Oren Pearl, James Goodwill, Wm. General Change of Provincial Force Is Forecast

General reorganization of the criminal investigation of Ontario is forecast at the Parliament building. The Government has been contemplating a reorganization of provincial police for some time and the passage of the liquor control bill will implement the change.

The Ontario license board will cease to function when the liquor bill becomes operative in May. It is known that the resignation of James Hales, K.C., chairman of the board is already in the hands of the Government.

The changes in the criminal investigation department of the provincial police will affect the status of several of the senior inspectors.

This request is made following a special meeting of the School Board with Principal Graham and Inspector Wright, when the local school situation was fully discussed. (Signed) THE BOARD, W. S. Hunter, Secy.
