Darkies' Corners

(Our Own Correspondent) Quite a number have commenced ploughing in the vicinity. Since we last wrote Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Atcheson and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kellar have moved into our neighborhood. We extend a hearty welcome to them.

Mrs. Joseph Atkinson returned home after visiting her daughter Mrs. Joseph Patterson, Chesley. We are indeed sorry to report the sudden death of Mr. Anthony Lawrence, an old resident of this neighborhood. We extend sympathy to the bereaved widow and family.

Miss Eliza Patterson spent Sunday with Miss Jean, Floyd, Holstein. A number of ladies and gentlemen from No. 9 attended the U.F.O. and U. F. W. O. meeting held at the home of Mg. and Mrs. Earl Mead, on Friday evening last, and enjoyed a pleasant evening.

Sorry Mr. Walter Nichol has been on the sick list.

Mrs. A. G. Kellar, Varney, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kellar,

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Patterson, Chesley spent a day recently with the Patterson and Atchison families.

The Original Confederation Medal

Plans are under way by the National Committee in charge of the celebration of the Diamond Jubiless of Conferedation for a historical issue of postage stamps and a medal to commemorate the events of this eventful year. The dies are now being prepared in England. Here are shown the two sides of the medal struck in 1867 in honor of the union of the four original provinces, represented allegorically by the figures of four young women to whom Britannia is presenting a scroll instribed "Confederation". In the hands of thefigures are: a sickle and a sheaf of grain; a canoe paddle; a spade and an axe. The face of the medal shows Queen Victoria as a young woman.
