Eugenia (Our Own Correspondent)
Mothers' Day was observed in the church Sunday. There was a good attendance.

On Friday evening of last week about 65 friends and neighbors invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Turner who were recently married and spent a very pleasant evening in music and games. About midnight a dainty lunch was served by the ladies, to which all did ample justice. A presentation of a miscellaneous necessities was made to the newly-weds. Mr. Turner, in behalf of his wife replied in a few well chosen words thanking all for their kindness. The party dispersed in the wee sma' hours of the mornin' wishing the bride and groom many happy and prosperous years of wedded bliss.

Mr. Harold Falconer has purchased a car. We wish the family much pleasure with it.

Weeks ago, when driving at night north of Kincardine. Apparently a motorist had run into difficulty and had pressed into service "Old Dobbin." The horse, a white animal, was apparently giving the motorist new experience, for he could be seen, by the light of the lamps of the car, dashing across a field, dragging the auto and its driver. When the officers returned the "bus" was asked by the side of the fence.—Halkerton Telescope.
