(Our Own Correspondent)
Quite a number of farmers are wishing there was less moisture on Mondays. Quite a bit of grain to be sown yet, and the ground is mucky for getting in root seeds.
Mr. John Boyd of Glenroadin was along the 6th last week snipping the fleeces off the nannies.
Miss Reta Harbour, teacher in No. 5, spent from Saturday till Monday eve at the old home in Egremont.
Mr. and Mrs. Ransome, newly-weds, Mr. John Wylie and son of Berkeley were guests the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Williams at Hayward's Falls.
Dr. Theodore Fallaise of Pickering, and his mother, Mrs. J. P. Fallaise of Toronto, visited their kindred for a few days.
The canaries arrived last week and join in the songs of the orioles and the robins, while the black-birds are fighting the plundering crows from their offspring. There's many a tragedy in the treetops besides the melody of the songsters.
This corner of the township has always been considered more or less conservative in their views and actions, but they are rousing up to modern modes of travelling. New Ford touring cars were purchased last week by Messrs. J. H. Robson, Graham and Herb Timmins and Owen Peart. The first two are freshmen at the steering wheel, yet have held their glittering Licenses in the middle of the king's highway. The Robson family visited Mr. and Mrs. R. Corlett at Dornoch, the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Colin McIntyre, son A. D. and Miss Mary were guests at Mrs. John O. Greenwood's on Sunday.
A trio of pariah dogs have been on the rampage for the past two weeks their depredations extending from the Irish Lake to the base line on the west. Mr. Dan McMillan of the 5th con. lost 12 lambs, Mr. John O'Neill a ewe and two lambs, Mr. W. J. Cook 3 lambs, Connor Bros. 3 or 4 lambs, Mr. Jas. Watson had the tendons of a 2-year-old steer so badly cut and torn that it had to be put out of its misery. The leader of the three outlaws is a gaunt hound, the other two common curs. Prompt action by the municipal authorities would have saved these heavy losses and the owners of these curs must be aware of the continued absence of their destructive pets.
Mr. and Mrs. John Laughlin and Miss Glenny Young, Mrs. Thos. Laughlin and Mrs. McKechnie, Sr., visited Owen Sound relatives the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Robertson of Molesworth arrived on Saturday to spend some time among their many friends. George had the ill luck to fall from a loft and got bad shaking up so is compelled to take a vacation, but it has not impaired his geniality. They are a most highly esteemed couple.
Mr. and Mrs. Carman Caswell and family of Euphrasia accompanied by Mrs. M. Dods of Berkeley spent the first of the week at the Fifth home.
Mr. Jas. Banks and Mrs. M. Smith motored to Arthur on Sunday and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Vaughan. Miss Rebecca Banks of Toronto, who was visiting there returned home with them.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert McNally spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Timmins.

Eugenia
(Our Own Correspondent)
It rained all day Monday in our vicinity. This aided the trees greatly in forming their mantel of green. They will soon be out in full leaf.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell and little son of Toronto visited over the week-end with relatives in this vicinity.
Sorry to report Mr. Robert Laughlin still in a poor state of health.
Mr. Joseph Weber has moved from Markdale suburbs and has taken up residence in Mr. Fred Jamieson's house which was recently vacated by Mr. Alfred Genoe. Miss Mary is keeping house for him.
Little Miss Falconer of Durham spent the past week with her brother Harold and family here.
Miss Marge Lever, stenographer for the Maxwell Fur Co. Toronto and friend, also sister Miss Gertrude Lever of Flesherton visited on Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Charles Martin.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Graham and family of Clarksburg visited the Cameron, Pedlar and Graham families here on Sunday.
We are informed that Mr. Geo. Graham has rented Mr. Tudor's residence in the suburbs and will take possession soon.
Mrs. Will Martin and daughter, Miss Wilda of Owen Sound, Mr. J. J. Patterson of Ceylon, Mr. and Mrs.

Priceville
(Our Own Correspondent)
We are getting more rain this spring than we really require. Seeding is being held up generally. Crops that are in the ground, however, are making up nicely.
Our sick folk, Mrs. A. J. McVicar and Miss A. Spontford are improving nicely. Mr. R. McEachern is following much improvement, we are sorry to say.
Mrs. M. A. McConkey returned home from Detroit where she has been spending the winter.
Mrs. S. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. H. Falkingham and Mr. Alex. McLean called on friends in our village on Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. D. M. McDougall and Mr. Aussum spent Sunday with friends in Egremont.
Miss Minnie McLean returned home after spending a few months in Toronto.
Some inconvenience was caused on our highway when a bad hole developed in the platform of the cement bridge over the Saugeen River. Several cars had tires torn on Sunday evening through not noticing the danger spot. However we believe Mr. Nichol is working on it to repair this hole and soon we will be normal once more. Some one suggested that it was one of the large trout struggling that was the cause of the damages.
Mr. E. Hogg and party motored to the Beach on Sunday. Roads are good now.
Mr. George McLoekin and party spent Sunday with his brother here.
Mr. Angus McArthur is using the heavy road roller to smooth road surface between Priceville and Durham, parts of which are very rough.

Sam Croft and sons of Flesherton were Sunday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Martin and family.
Miss Marguerite Pedlar spent the past week or so with Mrs. Geo. Proctor in Kimberley.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sloan and son of Toronto spent week-end with her former's mother, Mrs. Sloan, here.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Graham and family of Walkerton spent Sunday with friends here.
Mrs. Park and son Russell visited with friends near Durham on Sunday.
Miss M. Acheson and friend of Walfertalls spent Sunday with Miss M. Park.

(Our Own Correspondent)
Tomorrow is Victoria Day. No doubt most people will spend the holiday by fishing or go to Pike Lake.
Still our incessant rains continue. A little is helpful but too much might prove harmful.
Miss Elizabeth Leibold visited her sister Mrs. Theo. Schenk last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Claude Witherow and baby visited on Sunday with the latter's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Thos. P. McMullen spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Wm. Edwards of Letter Brecon.
Miss Agnes Orchard visited her sister, Miss Mabel in Stratford on Saturday.
Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Smith, Miss Pearl Smith and Mr. Thos. McDougall spent Sunday in Durham.
More new cars have made their appearance on our lines. Mr. Claude Witherow purchased a new Ford touring last week and Dave Hilgardener has a McLaughlin touring.
Mr. David Hilgardener and his sister Miss Laura visited relatives in Poole on Sunday.

Confederation and After—Sixty Years of Progress

SIXTY YEARS OF PARLIAMENT
In the structure of Confederation, the parliament of Canada was the keystone. It was the one creation of the British North America Act about which the walls of the nation were erected. The Act passed the British House of Commons in the early spring of 1867. On March 29, 1867, it was given Royal Assent in the House of Lords. By proclamation it came into effect on July 1, and on November 6, of that year, the first session of the first parliament was opened by Rt. Hon. Viscount Monk, the first Governor General of the Dominion.
The first session of the first parliament lasted until May 1868. The parliament under the premiership of Sir John A. Macdonald, lived through five sessions, dissolution being granted by the Earl of Dufferin, the Governor General in 1872. Fifteen parliaments have been summoned and dissolved since July 1, 1867, and 1927 finds Canada between the first and second sessions of the sixteenth parliament.
Fourteen ministers have held office under the Crown. Of these eight have been Conservative, two have been Unionist and four have been Liberal. Ten citizens of Canada have held the high office of Prime Minister and thirteen Governors General have represented three reigning sovereigns in this Dominion since July 1867.
Four times during these sixty years Canadians have stood to arms and on two of these occasions troops have fought abroad. These occasions were the Fenian Raids, the North-West Rebellion, the South African War, and the Great War of Europe. With these interludes the story of the Dominion has been a domestic one. It has been a story of immigration, industry and administration, and over all three phases the parliaments of Canada have exercised the dominant influence.

Quite apart from considerations of parties and the rise and fall of political movements the chronicle of Confederation is without a parallel in the history of democratic government. Never before has such a mere handful of people occupied a vast area of country. Even now—sixty years after—the world can look to Canada for lessons in administration. With a population not much greater than some of the cities of the world but spread over half a continent, democracy functions in all its branches and the citizens prosper. It is not only a tribute to administrative ability, it is a tribute to British parliamentary government, which has been proven equally adaptable in the compact little crowded islands over the seas and in this great sprawling nation of British North America.
To the men who have led the governments of Canada more than to any others belong the credit for the administrative achievements of the six decades. The Ministers of the past sixty years are as follows:
Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald, (July, 1867-November, 1873).
Hon. Alexander Mackenzie (November, 1873-October, 1878).
Rt. Hon. Sir John A. Macdonald (October, 1878-June, 1891).
Hon. Sir J. J. Abbott (June, 1891-December, 1892).
Hon. Sir John Thompson (December, 1892-December, 1894).
Hon. Sir M. B. B. (December, 1894-April, 1896).
Hon. Sir Charles Tupper (May, 1896-June, 1898).
Rt. Hon. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, July, 1896-October, 1911).
Rt. Hon. Sir Robert Borden (October, 1917-July, 1920).
Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, (July,

A big manufacturer makes a radical change
A very well-known manufacturer with 70 dealers in Western Ontario now uses Long Distance Sequence Calls to call them once a month to get their orders — so they will always have full stocks. A postal card sent in advance notifies them when the call will be made, and they are ready.
These calls, at first made Person-to-Person, are now all made Station-to-Station. It proves to be just as satisfactory — is much quicker — and about 20% cheaper. The saving each month surprised them.
