The gigantic setting was filled with court dignitares, palace guards in their striking military costumes, and guests from neighboring principalities. There was also a display of strikingly fantastic gowns, and then an ecclesiastical procession headed by an archbishop of the church, immediately preceeding the entrance of the bride, flanked by bridesmaids with flowing trains of pearls.

Anita Stewart and George Sidney have excellent roles in "The Prince of Pilsen." The 'supporting cast includes not only Myrtle Stedman, but Allan Forrest, Rose Tapley and Otis Harlan, Paul Powell directed.
