DURHAM MIDGETS ARE CHAMPIONS

had about as much of the ball as their opponents but somehow or other could not connect for a tally. Four minutes after the Fergus team scored, the Durhams got their first tally and the period ended 1-1, with the Fergus 2-goal lead still intact.

Someone has said that we do not know what is in front of us in this life, and it is a good thing that we don't. This proved true in Saturday's game. During the second period there was little to choose between the teams. Fergus looked as good as Durham and Durham looked as good as Fergus. Both teams were fielding well, and from the playing no one would have been foolish enough to have predicted that the Fergus score of the first period would be their last. In the second session the locals ran in three goals and at half time were one up on the roand.

The third period was about the best of the game. While the visitors were unable to score the Durhams working their hardest only netted the rubber twice and retired at three-quarter time with a lead of one up on the roand.

The final period was the surprise of the game, the Durhams running in a total of five goals in 9 minutes. It took them 9 minutes, however, to score their first in this period and then they went wild. They got their next corner in 6 minutes and scored three others in three minutes, making the full-time score 11-1.

It must not be inferred, however, that they were alone in the argument, for the Fergus team went down fighting and had a good many shots on goal, though always at some distance out. They were badly outlucked on one shot which hit the goal post, while McEachnie, the Durham goaler, picked the others off like a veteran.

While a disappointment from the standpoint of a close contest, the game was a hard-fought one from the first gong, and while they lost by an overwhelming score, the Fergus team went down with colors flying and fighting to the last. We did not see the first game at Fergus and have not followed lacrosse very close this summer and must confess we expected to see the local lads extended to the limit, but anyway, it was a good game for the series and there are boys on both teams who will be the lacrosse stars of tomorrow.

Judge: "So you broke a bat over that man's head, did you? Well, what can you say for yourself?" Prisoner: "It was an accident, your Honor."

Judge: "An accident? Impossible." Prisoner: "I didn't mean to break the bat."

"What system of heating have you in your flat?" "The solar system just at present."

digestive value than that of practically any other animal. The milked rabbit, for instance, produces a proportionally large amount of "white meat", and should not be confused with the wild rabbit, as it is entirely different both in flavor and texture.

It is pointed out in the bulletin that a ready market for properly dressed, cleanly packed rabbit meat is to be found in the larger cities at hospitals, clubs, hotels, or at leading poultryers at prices ranging from 25 to 30 cents per pound. Given proper care and management, there is no reason why rabbits as a side line, either on the farm or in the back yard, should not prove to be an appreciable source of revenue.

TIGHT SHOES MAR BEAUTY SAYS MARIE PREVOST

Star Comedienne Avers It Is Folly to Force a Two Shoe On a Four Foot As the Result Is Decidedly Painful.

Marie Prevost, beautiful star of "Up in Mabel's Room," the new Al Christie fun feature coming to the Veteran Star Theatre Friday and Saturday, August 19 and 20, believes that beauty, like other things, starts with the feet at he ground and goes upward.

"Not so many years ago, the Chinese were put to shame by Occidental women in their ruthless efforts to force a number two shoe on a number four foot," says Miss Prevost. "That period and these attempts are happily relegated to the same musty and medieval category, along with the wasp waist, free speech and the dodo.

"However, it isn't a bad idea to remember that the difference between comfort and discomfort—sometimes only a half-size—can scarcely improve the look of one's foot, but it surely can play havoc

NO MORE "DULL" SEASONS

Once an ingenious merchant discovered that the logical time to advertise was when business was slow and in the periodic dull seasons of the year. Ridiculous as it may seem, before that discovery the average businessman slowed down. He generally ended up the dull seasons with a quarterly sale, but as far as his newspaper was concerned there was no advertising when there was no business.

The modern businessman holds a different conception of the purposes and uses of newspaper advertising. When business is not up to his satisfaction he brings it up through increased advertising so that now the merchant, schooled in productive advertising, knows no dull seasons nor diminished business.

There are a few phases of business which have always been known to all businessmen. Among these are the alternating busy and dull periods of the year, month, week and day. A systematic, effective and economic plan of advertising had to be constructed upon a full knowledge of this business cycle.

Business has ever come without coaxing at Christmas, at Easter time and in the fall. Extensive advertising has been found to be the only remedy for the business depression epidemic between these three rush seasons. People have a habit of confining their shopping to the last of the month, the last three days of the week and the later shopping hours of the day.

From experience merchants have learned that newspaper advertising has successfully eliminated the rush periods and spread the volume of business more evenly over the day, week, month and year. It has prevented congestion, simplified salesmanship and merchandising and increased business.

RABBIT MEAT

The meat of a well fed rabbit is not only extremely tasty and palatable, but it also has a very high nutritive and digestive value, at the same time there is probably no meat the value of which has been so underestimated by the Canadian public. Unfortunately, in too many instances the rabbits exposed for sale are underfed, badly killed, and poorly packed, with the result that their appearance is far from appetizing.

In a bulletin of the Dominion Department of Agriculture on the general subject of rabbits, the author states that official analyses and the expressed opinions of dietetic experts have demonstrated beyond doubt that the meat of properly fed rabbits has a higher nutritive and with one's poise when it's lacking. "Young and old people are so sensible nowadays that they realize that foot comfort is as necessary as a powder puff. No matter how heroic it may be to hide any expression of the pain brewed by a pinching pump, one's good looks are sure to be damaged by the effort.

The American Bishop was visiting the woolier and more Western portion of his diocese and on his arrival at his destination was met by a prominent church official who in his business capacity was the principal bootlegger of the district. After an exchange of greetings the Bishop remarked: "Is there any special subject you can suggest, Mr. Bangs, that I could base my address on?" "Wal, Bishop," replied the worthy Bangs, "you must remember that this is a tough town, and if you want a quiet religious meeting tomorrow don't say to much about the Ten Commandments."—Manchester Guardian.
