Our anticipation of having a beautiful day on Sunday for our anniversary services was fully realized. Good congregations attended both services. In the evening especially, every available space was taken up and seats had to be placed in the aisles. The church was prettily decorated with maple leaves, cut flowers and plants. Special music for the occasion was supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Hanover, Mr. Allan Bell, Durham, Mrs. J. F. MacLean, Misses Nancy Boyd and Elsie and Blanche Boyce. The Rev. T. R. Richards of Hanover and he was given an exceedingly warm welcome by the members of the congregation. His two discourses during the day were delivered with commanding earnestness and power. In the morning he spoke from Phil. 3: 10, "That I may know Him", subject, "The secret Paul had a purpose worthy of his strongest zeal; second, Paul was possessed of that purpose; third, in pursuit of that purpose Paul permeated his life with influences which came, prayer, communion and study of Scripture.
In the evening he based his remarks on Acts 26: 28 "Almost thou persuaded me to be a Christian." Subject, "The Almost Christian." Mr. Richards showed how near a person may come to the Christian life and yet lack the one thing necessary. In closing a strong appeal was made that all might become not an "almost Christian" but an altogether Christian. Rev. Mr. Richards is an eloquent and convincing preacher and both of his sermons were greatly appreciated by the congregation.
