Famous Indian

DURHAM CHRONICLE

at the office, Garafraxa Street, Durham, Ontario, by Frank Irwin, Editor and Proprietor. The Chronicle is mailed to any address in Canada at the rate of $2.00 per year, $1.00 for six months, 50 cents that the business of shinning up the for three months, 25 cents for one steeple of St. James' or washing month. To any address in the the face of the City Hall clock was United States of America, $2.50 per an occupation involving a consideryear, $1.25 for six months, 65 cents able amount of risk. Indeed, the for three months. Foreign sub- high wages paid to the human flies scription rates on application. Member Canadian Weekly News- duties would give color to the impression that it is a job that few papers Association.

Thursday, October 20, 1927

SANE LAW ENFORCEMENT

the land. The law as it is written is intended to guide the citizens. punish those who persist in disobedience, but at the same time who may inadvertently run foul of chances. When a horror-stricken show mercy and guidance to those the law. The saying, "ignorance of crowd below sees one of the fraterthe law is no excuse", is all very well and good, but if all the laws on building upon which he is working one curious adventure he had our statute books are to be enforced it may appear that a chance is her to the letter, then the sooner the it may appear that a chance is bemost of us are shuffled off this old ing taken. This is misapprehenterrestrial sphere the better for our-

that any law shall become the play- dental death. I've had lightning chair over the edge and began work. Down the home of the borne of toy of the police force or magis-trates for the purpose of collecting worked on the top of a steeple. Once trates for the purpose of collecting worked on the top of a steeple. Once high stone slip from the noose a monday last to bring back the memrevenue. The lawmakers place the revenue. The lawmakers place the revenue in a supposedly dead fire purpose of collecting worked on the top of a steeple. Once high stone slip from the noose a monday last to bring back the memlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William Willis, Sr., on ent part in the Conservative conlaw and Mrs. William various laws on our statutes in a slowly and without my quite realizmanner that admits of little arguing what was taking place, made him Had it crashed over it would be been law-enment, but at the same time, law-en- me unconscious on top of a 100-foot forcing officials are intended to use stack-and I lay down on the nartheir heads. A city policeman has row top just as everything went no rule of thumb to go by, and des- black. Another time a maniac cut pite the assertion that everyone the ropes that held my chair to should be dealt with equitably, we the side of a steeple, and I managed think no one will dispute us when to catch hold of the little rusted we say that a man who disobeys spikes they put on every steeple the law intentionally is not entitled for the benefit of the jacks, and by to the same consideration as the the same means to climb down to man who does not comply with a window. So it's no wonder I DIED ON MONDAY some minor regulation for the look upon this sudden death bogey simple reason that he may be ig- as a wily old galoot with a bagful norant of its existence.

the fact that Chief Allan had been forced to pay a fine because he inadvertently crossed over a through Mr. Dow's interesting theory is speed for caution, were prosecuted. his lunch.

The object of the latest order-inthrough streets is to curtail acci- He was half way across when a and Our Present Needs, As I See It." like the pleasant tints of autumn. dents, not to collect fines, and it is gust of wind drove a shower of and turning to the ladies present, —Signed on behalf of the Allan Park to be hoped that the police author- the steel fillings in his face and he said: "Jack Miner gets credit for Women's Institute. guided when in the discharge of ciating, blinding. It was as though hundred dollars to know just how available evidence to show that the There he stood, swaying with and what he would have accom- thank their many friends for kindstop street regulations are not some- pain on the narrow steel beam, plished, providing he had married ness during their late bereavement. cur at busy intersections.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

about business when a man is en- edge of the beam with his knee. couraged to buy a pleasure car on Then he threw his arms about it credit and told that his bread or and made an outcry. Loyal comgroceries must be cash with order rades saw his plight and brought or he cannot have them.

means the wreckless driver.

Vancouver, makes a plea for a the temporary paralysis brought United Canada. We are glad to about by cramps than by any other recognize Henri's change of heart. cause. They must work in a more Usually this fiery French-Canadian or less awkward position, their judging from the past, seems more legs and arms at an involuntary bent on causing disruptions than tension, and sometimes when they cementing friendships.

Farming As It Isn't

sympathy for the pood farmer be- working with water, as he is when cause of his cold job in harvesting cleaning the front of tall buildings. his winter wheat, is equal in agricultural knowledge to the one who expressed a desire to see a field of Once when working with another tobacco plugging out. But the girl man on the twenty-fourth story of bakery. And one damsel on her cramps. He stood helpless on his return from a visit to the country who was asked if she ever saw anyone milk a cow replied: "Oh, yes, of his platform began to run. Dow indeed I have; it just tickled me to death to see uncle jerk two of the a seven foot leap from his own cow's faucets at the same time.

Published every Thursday morning HUMAN FLY'S JOB NOT SO PERILOUS

It might seem to the average man who perform these and kindred men have the hardihood to tackle. Whosoever is afraid of submit-known steeplejacks on the continting any question, civil or religious, deal more dangerous than it is. So more in love with his own opinion hair-trigger brain, and an utter absence of fear the work of a steeplejack is not particularly onersteeplejack is not particularly onersteeplejack. ous, nor is it as thrilling, perhaps, as diving into the middle of the ocean in an airplane intended for land purposes only. Mr. Dow, in an interview with a New York World reporter, says that his job does not seem unduly hazardous to him. If it were really dangerous would it have been possible for him to have If there is one thing more than any other that requires a sense of humor coupled with intelligence it is the enforcement of the laws of the land. The law as it is written

The High Lights

He points out philosophically that the steeplejack does not really take doing what he can to save himself Church, in Brooklyn. The stones from instant death. As Mr. Dow were very heavy, as was later found In framing the law it is a necessity to make it appear very strict—high lights of the way a steeple jack high lights of the way a steeple jack beats that old bogey—sudden accithat any law shall become the playof tricks-tricks any good man can A week or two ago we reported beat, if he will!"

A Steeple Jack's Philosophy

street without stopping. A few that sudden, accidental death is days later Magistrate Laidlaw was just like a dog-let it know you are said to have done the same thing. not afraid of it and it never will The death occurred Monday at the have a pleasant evening in their While we are not making excuses hurt you. It may be so with death, home of his brother, Mr. W. D. home. The remainder of the evenfor either of these officials, as but it is not so with dogs, as fear- Connor here, of James Connor, for ing was spent in singing and dancthey certainly should have known less people know who have been some years a resident of Glenelg. ing. Many friends will join in the better, we cannot say we are en- bitten by cowardly curs. Mr. Dow He was in his 60th year. tirely in sympathy with their pro- takes his chances, but he takes The late Mr. Connor, who was a spared to enjoy many more years secution. Neither are we in sympa- them straight and without sitting bachelor, was born in Elderslie together. Following is the address: the other day we were rather pleased when he informed us that he had never laid an information against anyone who gave any sign that he had observed the "Stop" signs. He had had ample opportun the other day we were rather pleased when he informed us that he had observed the "Stop" signs. He had had ample opportun the other citizen for a similar offense. It gives us great pleasure to gather here together to celebrate to this brother here, suffering from this is illustrated by what Mr. Dow admits was his closest call. He was working on a structural iron job at other through not near relatives. signs. He had had ample opportun- working on a structural iron job at day morning. ity for the laying of informations the Jersey Sinc Works in Palmingagainst motorists who had failed to ton, Po., and several six-inch beams come to the full stop, but as these were delivered which were found to had retired from active work and Doubtless the labor and troubles had slowed their cars down to a be a foot longer than the specifica- leaves, beside his brother here, an- you have had were often hard to couple of miles an hour and entered tions required. It was decided to other brother, Mr. John Connor, at bear, but you bore them and now the through highway cautionsly, he hoist them into place and shorten present living in Durham. Inter- you have the satisfaction of seeing thought they had complied with the them there, 150 feet above ground. ment took place yesterday to Dur- the results. We would indeed be spirit of the law and let them go. Dow got them up and spent the ham cemetery. Others, however, who to all appear- morning cutting them. Then he ances paid no attention to the signs arose and proceeded to walk along and entered the through highway at the six-inch beam to the temporary what he considered too great a platform and ladders to descend for ities of the province will be so eyes. The sudden pain was exeru- a lot of things that I would give a their duties. There is plenty of acid had been poured into his eyes. far Jack Miner would have gotten thing fanciful, as all who read may afraid to move and yet feeling a high-kicking meat-axe, instead of easily learn that fully ninety per that in a moment he would lose a home-building balance wheel. cent of the automobile accidents oc- consciousness. He began to kneel Ladies, I wish you knew your guinea hen has been kidded into down, though not to pray, conscious that the slightest miscalculation would send him hurtling to the There must be something phoney ground. Finally he felt the cold him to earth. He was weeks in the hospital before he completely re-The reckless driver is by no covered. One of the most terrible things a steeple jack has to contend Henri Bourassa, in a speech at have met their death as a result of try to change their position they find themselves powerless to move. There is an especial danger of The girl who expressed so much cramps when the steeple jack is

A Steel Spray

Two Close Calls

who asked which cow gave the but- a Broadway building his partner termilk is entitled to the whole became powerless because of platform, landed on the platform

A TASTE OF HIS OWN MEDICINE (France has put a tariff on imports, which is troubling the United States very much.)-Talburt in the Washington News.

nity make a leap from his platform and grab at a projection upon the building upon which had fallen to a department of the bad fallen to a dep of the steeple of old St. Augustine's Mr. and Mrs. William Willis Honor- Hamilton visited with friends in new gown when you saw her?"

The stone weighed 450 pounds.

THE RIGHT HELPMATE

Three Months.

ding Anniversary. The members and their families Mr. and Mrs. John R. MacNicholl, have carried Dow and his chair to Mr. Gunn and took up home-making outstanding politicians of the prothe ground with it. Acting on the on their farm in Bentinck, where vince. We were pleased to meet spur of the moment he stood up, they have lived ever since. They him Sunday evening at the residand went to meet that stone. As it have shared joys and sorrows in ence of Hon. Dr. Jamieson and reached the edge of the roof he put their long life together, one sorrow learned with pleasure that he re- Hay, per ton 8.00 to 10.00 his shoulder under it, and held it being the loss of a son, who was gards the choice of R. B. Bennett of Eggs until comrades came to his rescue. killed in action. There are two sons Calgary for the leadership of the Butter and one daughter remaining.

During the evening, Mr. M. Byers called the assemblage to order and asked Mr. and Mrs. Willis to come FROM HEART TROUBLE forward, when Mrs. M. Byers read a very appropriate address, and, at the suitable time, Mrs. Ed. Bailey presented Mr. Willis with a gold-Late James Connor Had Lived His headed cane and pipe, while Mrs. J. Whole Life in Ontario, and Was Sharp presented Mrs. Willis with a Resident of Durham for Past gold brooch and purse. Mr. Willis made a very suitable reply, thanking them all and wished them to hope that this estimable couple be

Although not near relatives, your The deceased was a farmer, but friends and neighbors are with you. such an occasion as this to pass without in some way showing our appreciation of your fellowship. After splendid tributes had been | We would ask you to accept these paid to Jack Miner by the citizens, gifts, and we trust you may long be of his home town, Kingsville, where spared to enjoy them, and may your he delivered an address on "Canada remaining years be golden bright

CARD OF THANKS

Miss McAnulty and family wish to

Many a girl with a voice-like a

Keep Stock Healthy Healthy horses, cows and hogs cost less for feed and care do more work. Pratts, Animal Regulator than sick ones. They are worth more money and will puts stock in fine shape and will prevent and cure common ailments. Given to cows it is guaranteed to crease the milk yield and make it richer. It saves time fattening hogs and keeps horses in prime condition, strong and vigorous. Guaranteed or Money Back 25 lb. pail $3.50; also small packages and 100 lb. bags. Pratts Veterinary Remedies are all guaranteed. A special remedy for every ailment.

Pratts Poultry Regulator is a guaranteed egg producer. It will make money for you. It keeps your birds healthy and free from disease by keeping the digestive pails $2.50; also small packages and 100 lb. bags.

Ask for Pratts New Edition of "POULTRY WRINKLES" Cross & Sutherland Hardware Co., Limited.

Mrs. Robert Vollet returned last week after spending three weeks with Timmins friends. She motored up with Mr. and Mrs. Blodget who have been spending a month here. Miss Edith Torry of Toronto is rect.

visiting her aunt, Mrs. F. Reay. Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Groves of Toronto were recent visitors with Rev. and Mrs. Fiddes at the Queen Street eye to the charms of other women.

Lane, all of Toronto, but formerly close shave—not a railway crossing.

A lot of people go suddenly blind Mrs. Adam Weir and family, the when opportunity stares them in two latter going on to Port Elgin the face. where they spent the week-end with friends. Recently Dr. Elgin you're no good, and knows enough has been rather seriously ill with to forget it. blood poisoning and had to submit "Gawsh", said the sparrow as a to the amputation of one finger.

Mr. and Mrs Bert Smith Guelph visited the first of the week with the former's mother, Mrs. A. Weir, and family. Mrs. Will Loughran and daughter, Miss Mary, of Moorefield, and Miss Helen Christie and Miss Oliver of Boothville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Burgess.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gray of Hamilguests of Mr. and Mrs. J. McGowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Martin of sees so many physical wrecks. Swinton Park visited Mrs. M. J. Doctor - "And remember, you Martin and daughter Minnie, at the can't eat too much fruit for your home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas health. Brown here, before Mrs. Martin and daughter, who left on Tuesday of this week, left for their homes in Seattle, Washington.

Mrs. Thomas Brown and Mrs. A. Scotchman-"That's a go-and if 50 YRS. MARRIED Henry spent a couple of days in you find it we'll split fifty-fifty." Toronto this week. Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Heddle of ed by Members of Women's Insti- town last week and were accomtute on Occasion of Their Wed- panied home by the Misses McLean, who will spend the winter in Ham-

Dominion Conservative party as the best that could possibly be made. Miss Nellie Mervyn, nurse-intraining in the Hanover Hospital is spending two weeks' holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Mervyn, in town.

ISN'T IT THE TRUTH?

It is easier to be critical than cor-

A lot of men keep their ideals high by putting them on the shelf. A good husband closes at least one The modern Romeo usually has an Mrs. Neil McKinnon and son, Mr. empty purse because of what Juliet. Bobs McKinnon, and Dr. and Mrs. A barber's shop is a place for a.

14-inch shell just missed it, "they must be hard up for meat.'

Friend (to sailor on shore leave) -"How did you get all the scratches on your face?" Sailor-"The wife's teaching me to eat with a fork." The luxury of yesterday is the necessity of today. The truth hurts, and so would you if you were stretched so much. It is hard to believe that self-pre-Patient-"But, er-er-Adam did." Specialist-"I'll examine you for

Wife. "Was Mrs. D. Style in her

Mudinew
	Corrected	Oct.	13,	1927
Hogs Wheat			٠.	1.1
Oats		.40
Barley			-	.70
Buckwheat			@	.70
Peas		1.10	@	1.1
Mixed Grain	n, per cwt			1.2
Horr non to		800	to	100

Just Arrived—A Shipment of Kitchen Cabinets

As a special offer we are giving—absolutely free-with Ruddy's Kitchen Cabinet, a box of first class groceries of well-known brands.

See Our Window Display For Something New In Kitchen Cabinets

ED. KRESS & SON

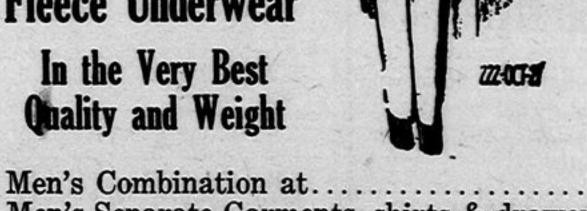

Household Furnishings

Phone 10

Durham

Prepare for the Cool Weather

Fleece Underwear In the Very Best Quality and Weight

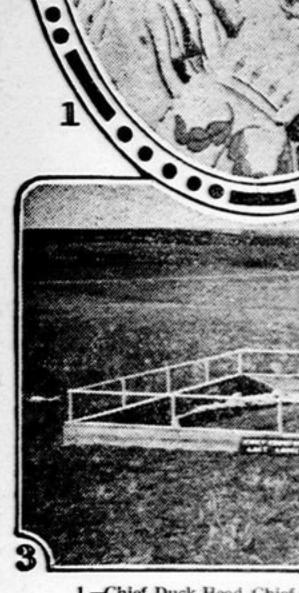

Men's Separate Garments, shirts & drawers $1.00 Boys' Combination at$1.00 Boys' separate shirts and drawers at60c.

We have all these lines in any size you require. Give us a call. We guarantee to please you. Cash in your Discount Bonds.

> D. M. Saunders MEN'S AND BOYS' READY-TO-WEAR

"MORE FOR LESS" One Door South of D. C Town, Jeweller, Durham

of Chief Crow Foot.

Cifty years ago, or in the summer of 1877, only a few before the first locomotive et entered Western Canada, the important treaty between the (dian Government and the India the plains was signed. It was treaty No. 7, the one brought peace to the great plain threw open a new empire for s ment. The historic document signed on the banks of the Bow I just east of Calgary and near Canadian Pacific Railway static Cluny. It is, possibly, a gr tribute to the red men than t white brothers that the terms of treaty has been lived up to in

On September 22, 1927, the fit anniversary of the memorable sion, hundreds of people from walks of life, representative various tribes of Indians and of of the Royal Canadian Mor Police gathered at the historic for an impressive memorial se where a cairn and tablet had and interesting in each of provinces. Human nature was the same of them, especially as it at the young boys and girls and h inclined to believe that ev passing of a century made but change in this side of huma ture. Writers of the past com ed of the young people of the for going "too fast socially", was just as true today, for eve knows that there is a certain of the populace who are conti bewailing the fact that the people are going down to per as fast as they can navigat An extensive report of the meeting of the Ontario Edu Association in Toronto was by W. J. Messenger of the Ma Public school. His report good one and took up consitime, but was well worth i Messenger went to consider trouble to give the meeting · facts, and the addresses of Pr Dearness of London, Miss Dunham, author of "The T the Conestoga", and Secretary les G. Fraser were dealt with Messenger advised as many t as possible to attend the Easter meetings of the O. E.

SOUTH GREY TEACHERS HELD SUCCESSFUL MEET HERE LAST 1

(Continued from page 1)

Herman Bierworth of No. tinck, dealt with the organ and work of a rural school classes. He illustrated his with drawings on the blac and gave an altogether ad address that contained m benefit to teachers in a rural A vivid description of the M trip by boat was given by Hume of the Ayton school.

Dr. White's Address The address of the afterne by Dr. E. T. White of Lond mal school, who dealt with t ject of Arithmetic in Junior The subject of Arithmetic teaching of correct mental Much of it was necessarily but theory is very necess intelligent practice. He ga results that had been atta scientific tests deciding sp accuracy in results in Ar and advised much drill in ations until they become "Make you metic questions practical a sonable within the range mentality of the children." speaker, who also advised to encourage the slower or address was much appreciate the audience, who saw an taught possibly as they ha seen it done before, and the ideas will assuredly be throughout the South Grey from now on.

Inspector Wright, speak the address of Dr. White