The Clew He Needed A well-known minister, famous for absent-mindedness, once met an old friend in the street and stopped to talk with him. When about to separate the minister's face assumed a puzzled expression.

"Tom," he said, "when we met, was I going up the street or down?" "Down," replied Tom.

The minister's face cleared. "It's all right then. I had been home to lunch."

GLENELG COUPLE HONORED BY FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Watson Received Tokens and Good Wishes From Glenelg Admirers Who Assembled at Their Home on Different Occasions.

On Thursday evening, October 13, the friends and neighbors of Edge Hill and Zion gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Watson, where a pleasant evening was spent in games and dancing.

During the evening Mr. H. H. McDonald called the party to order, and after a short speech, called on Miss Ethel Anderson who read a short address to the young couple who were presented with a wicker rocker, a hearth rug and brass fern pot. The presentation was made by Mr. Howard Ritchie, Misses Myrtle Robinson and Glennie Firth.

Following is the address from the Edge Hill and Zion friends: Durham, Oct. 13, 1927 Dear Mr. and Mrs. Clark Watson: For many years we have mingled in your society in the varied walks of neighborly and social intercourse. You have contributed abundantly toward making life pleasant in the circle in which you moved.

Often in our "Young Peoples" meetings, when we found our programme was lacking in numbers, you, Frederica, with your violin, very cheerfully helped us along; so we could all say when it was over how much we had enjoyed the program. This and many of your other helpful deeds will be very much missed when we fully realize that you have departed from our section.

In just one boat you two must float On life's stream rugged flowing; May music sweet in your hearts beat And keep the sunshine glowing.

Years will be few, to each be true, Life is just what you make it. When time is done, when age is run, Life's best you'll not forsake it.

May you have health and also wealth And all the good things going; And may you find the world is kind While good deeds daily sowing.

As a small expression of our love and esteem we ask you to accept these gifts and trust they will ever call to mind girlhood memories of Edge Hill and Zion. Signed, Clarence Robinson, Melville Anderson, Clifford Cook.

The friends and neighbors of No. 9 section, Glenelg, assembled at the home on Friday evening last. At the proper time Mr. Joan McGirr called on the young couple, when an address was read by Mr. Reginald Arnot and a presentation of two wicker chairs and tray made by Messrs. Wm. McGirr, Ben Whitmore and Arthur Lindsay, after which the evening was spent in games and dancing. Following is the address:

Glenelg, Oct. 21, 1927 To Mr. and Mrs. Clark Watson Dear Friends:

We are assembled here this evening as your neighbors and friends to show our esteem for you and to shower you with good wishes for your future. Also we wish to extend our welcome to Mrs. Watson as our new neighbor.

We have had Clark in our community for some years and his genial disposition has made him many good friends.

Mrs. Watson, although not living in our midst, has lived near enough that she is well known by many present tonight. She is a bright and cheery young woman, full of ambition and we are glad to have her in our neighborhood that we may know her better.

We wish to show our esteem and good wishes by asking you to accept this gift and may your future life be blessed by good health and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of this section, Wm. McGirr, Arthur Lindsay, Ben Whitmore.
