Paving Nearly Done
Tuesday night only about 1500 feet of the Highway paving between Melancthon station and Shelburne remained to be completed, and, granted favorable weather and not too much trouble with supplies, the connection with the paving already in use to the cemetery corner north of Shelburne will likely be made in time to hang out the "It's All Over" sign at Shelburne's celebration on Friday.—Shelburne Economist.

Old Settler Dies
Another of the very old settlers of the Township of Melancthon has passed away in the person of the late James Morrow, who died at his son's residence in Mulmur last week. For very many years he lived on lot 20, concession 1 of the township of Melancthon. He was twice married, his first wife being Esther Tanner, who died in January 1874, and his second wife was Jane Ewing, who died in August 1899. He leaves behind him one son and one daughter and a number of grandchildren. Deceased was a straightforward, honest man, well read, and a good neighbor. He was at one time a great poultry fancier. The funeral took place last Friday afternoon after a service at the house, to Hornin's mills Cemetery.—Shelburne Economist.

Car Hit Steam Roller
Mr. Harold Shewfelt had a very narrow escape on Wednesday evening last while coming in over the Durham Road that is undergoing rebuilding. The huge steam rollers working on this road are parked at one side of the road for the night and red lights strung on them. However, the heavy loose rocks at the points where the construction is going on make it exceedingly dangerous travelling and while coming over this Mr. Shewfelt lost control of his Chevrolet coach and rammed one of the big steam rollers. A mere automobile has no chance whatever in connection with one of these big ironers and the bus was smashed beyond repair. The driver was fortunate in escaping without injury.—Kincairdine Reporter.

Had Thrilling Experience
Seeing some parties making off with his car during the street-paving opening celebration in Mildmay on Wednesday night, Harold Scott, of Walkerton left off swinging his partner in the community dance on the asphalt and galloped down the macadam after his bus. Catching up with the fleeing machine, he hopped on to the running board and pulled out the ignition plug to shut off the engine just as the culprits shoved him from his perch into the cement road. Although his face was badly cut and bruised in the fall, he had the satisfaction of seeing the car stall some distance down the street, and the bandits promptly deserted his gas wagon.—Walkerton Bruce Herald and Times.

F. Tate Purchased Laurel Store
Mr. Frank W. Tate of Waldemar, recently purchased the general store business at Laurel from Mrs. S. Hutchinson, who purchased the business from Mr. W. Grosskurth in March last. The deal also includes the property. Mr. Tate took possession on October 5th. Mr. Tate sold his 230 acre farm, lot 3, concession 10, Amaranth, together with stock and implements, to Mr. Hutchinson, who is now in possession.—Star and Vidette.

Married Recently in Bruce
A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Brown, Bruce Township, when their third daughter, Florence Julia, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Mr. Leonard Bland Davey, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Davey, of Kincairdine, the Rev. Mr. Sinclair of Tiverton, officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming frock of ivory georgette and lace, with veil and coronet of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Miss Ella, who wore pink tulle and georgette and carried white roses and maiden hair fern. The groom was supported by Mr. Thos. Miller, of Western University, London. The young couple took their places under an arch of evergreen with white aster and bells, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Mary Davey of Toronto, sister of the groom. Following the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous fowl supper. Mr. and Mrs. Davey left on a motor trip to Toronto and eastern points, the bride travelling in a coat of navy blue and sand hat and wore the groom's gift, a brown fox fur. The many beautiful gifts received by the young couple testify to the high esteem in which they are held. On return their many friends will welcome them to Kincairdine where they will reside. The groom is a brother of Mr. J. S. Davey of Bentinck.—Kincairdine Review-Reporter.

Late Mrs. Kaufman
Lydia Kaufman, beloved wife of Menno Kaufman, who has been a traveller for the firm of Krug Bros. for several years, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Russell, Paisley, on Sunday, and interment took place in Paisley cemetery on the 25th inst. Mrs. Kaufman was for several years a resident of Elmwood and afterwards of Chesley. Besides her husband there are left to cherish the memory of a noble Christian wife and mother, one son, Dr. Stanley Kaufman of Edmonton, who was present at his mother's funeral, and Mrs. Wm. Russell, wife of Paisley's station agent. Mrs. Kaufman was in her 75th year. Rev. Mr. Buell, pastor of Paisley United church, who had charge of the funeral, paid a beautiful tribute to the memory of the deceased; a woman of great faith, abiding trust in her Saviour and devotion to those near and dear to her.—Chesley Enterprise.

Neither Driver Had Permit
On Tuesday morning, about 10.30 o'clock, cars driven by Mr. George Eckenswiler, of the Walkerton-Mildmay Road, and Mrs. John Fennell, of Paisley, collided on Durham Street, near Bell's Garage. The running board of the former's auto was broken, and the radius rod and one fender of Mrs. Fennell's car bent. The serious part of the affair is that, when Chief Ferguson asked them to produce their drivers' permits, neither motorist could do so. Mr. Eckenswiler has one but did not have it with him at the time of the accident, it appears. It is understood informations will be laid against the offenders.—Walkerton Telescope.

Death of August Meisener
The death of August Meisener, which occurred on Sunday, October 23, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. George Becker, came as a shock to the family and friends. He has been in failing health since the sudden death of his life partner eight months ago, but no one realized the end was so near. Mr. Meisener was a native of Germany, immigrating with his wife and family to Canada forty-four years ago. For many years he farmed on the 2nd of Carriek, moving to Clifford twenty-two years ago. For many years he years ago, where he acted as the general hostler at the Mansion House and latterly as laborer about town, and his happy disposition made him a host of friends. On October 21, 1926, Mr. and Mrs. Meisener had a happy reunion of the family and friends at the 50th anniversary of their wedding. On February 25th, this year, deceased was bereaved by the sudden passing of his wife, and since that time has been with his only daughter, Mrs. George Becker in Minto township. Deceased is survived by this one daughter, four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The funeral took place this afternoon to Clifford cemetery and was largely attended by sympathetic friends and neighbors.—Clifford Express.

Evening Coat is of Sapphire Velvet With White Fox

The fabrics used for evening wraps are more gorgeous than ever this season, and though the use of fur is less lavish, it is no less effective. The coat sketched above is of sapphire blue velvet with collar of white fox. Above the cuffs of the fur the blue velvet is cut in points to show the white underneath, and embroidered.

Accident Near Teviotdale
On Saturday week a serious motor car accident occurred on the Arthur-Kincairdine Highway between Teviotdale and Harriston. As a result Mr. Wm. Martin is in the Palmerston Hospital with a broken leg, and Mr. Calder Dalgarno is in the same institution suffering from severe injuries to his back. It was at first reported that his back had been broken, but fortunately this did not prove to be the case. The two unfortunate young men with Mr. Chester Martin, driver of the car, who escaped with only minor injuries, were motoring to Harriston. The car struck some loose gravel and turned turtle, turning over two or three times. Assistance was soon secured, medical aid was sent for and the two injured young men were removed to the Palmerston hospital, Mr. Dalgarno is in an unconscious condition. While their injuries are quite serious, both are reported to be making satisfactory progress toward recovery.—Mildmay Gazette.

Leg Badly Injured
Edward Weis, 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Weis of town, had his leg badly cut in an unusual accident at Mildmay last Wednesday. The young fellow, who is a member of the Hanover Band, was over to Mildmay with that organization for the ceremony in connection with the opening of the new pavement. He was walking down the street when he stepped into an open grate and cut his leg very badly, 14 stitches being required to close the wound.—Hanover Post.

New County Bridge Here Open
The long-delayed bridge over the Saugeen River on the county line at the north end of Hanover, near the park, is finished and opened for traffic at last. The new bridge is a splendid structure, replacing the old one which was partially swept away in Spring freshets a year ago last spring. It is of steel structure, with a concrete floor and is about ten feet longer, two feet higher and considerably wider than the old one.—Hanover Post.

As You Like It
"I say, old man, whatever is the matter with your face?" asked Smith.
"Accident," said Brown.
"How did it happen?"
"Why, yesterday I was crossing the bottom of Parliament street, and a workman carrying a pickaxe stumbled against me, hitting me in the mouth and knocking out a tooth."
"Oh, I say, what a shame! That was quite a dental operation."
"The chap said it was axedental."
"Ha, ha! Oh, that's too thin!"
"No, it was tooth out!"

The New History
This is an extract from a child's essay on Nelson, recently uncovered in the "Spectator" (London):
"Oh Harding, kiss me again" were the bruteful words of a heroic mortal who won a battle with one eye and a wooden leg. Before the bloody context arose, this motto was muttered by him, "The Queen expects every man to do his duty." Nelson was a brave man, but his morals was not respectable. Once a lady whose name was Mrs. Hamington, nursed him, and he said "Oh heavens, heavens, why do I live! When he died, the queen met him in a boat, and he went to St. Paul's and was buried. This is a marvellous lesson to me and to all schoolboys. Do your duty to your pasters and marsters, and then even with a single leg you can say, "With this simple thing I will do my duty."
"Some men are born great, some achieve greatness and some just grate upon you."
