HYMENEAL
DARGAVEL—MacDONALD
A quiet autumn wedding, witnessed only by the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, was solemnized at the Knox church manse yesterday afternoon, November 2, at 2:30, when Sarah Florence, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDonald of Durham, became the bride of Mr. William Herbert Dargavel of Vancouver, B. C., son of Mrs. Dargavel and the late Robert Dargavel of Dornoch.

The ceremony was performed before a bank of autumn leaves, ferns, mums and roses, Rev. W. H. Smith being the officiating clergyman. The wedding march was played by Mrs. (Rev.) Smith. The bride, who was unattended and was given away by her father, was lovely in a wedding gown of navy blue and gold georgette, with corsage bouquet of yellow roses. She wore the gift of the groom, a necklace of pearls. Mr. and Mrs. Dargavel left on the afternoon C. P. R. train on their honeymoon, the bride travelling in a vella bloom coat with sable collar and cuffs, and hat to match. They will remain in the East until after Christmas after which they will reside in Vancouver.

The best wishes of Durham friends go with them for a happy married life.

KRESS—McCRAE
An interesting autumn wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCrae, Durham, on Saturday afternoon, October 29, when their daughter, Stella, was united in marriage to Mr. Harry Kress, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kress, Durham. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. H. S. Fiddes in front of a bank of roses, mums and ferns. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a period frock of yellow georgette. She wore a bandeau of pearls and rhinestones and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Earl McDonald. After a dainty buffet luncheon Mr. and Mrs. Kress left on a motor trip to northern points. The bride's travelling costume was a dress of blue satin-faced crepe, trimmed with flesh, blue coat trimmed with mole and a small blue hat. On their return they will reside in Durham.

The young couple were the recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts, among which were a floor lamp from the hockey club and Bird of Paradise dinner set from the Queen Street church choir and congregation.

SWEET—ROGERS
A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized Saturday at Carlton Street United church, Toronto, when Mildred Mae, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Rogers of Holstein, became the bride of Dr. Theo. L. P. Sweet, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Sweet of Portage La Prairie. Rev. Ernest Crossley Hunter officiated. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a bouffante frock of softly sheer georgette, shading from palest pink into rich rose, a charming chou of velvet ribbon centred the interest in the hip line. Her broad chapeline hat was in rose velvet, and her stockings and shoes were in the same lovely shade. Her bridal shower was of sunset roses. Miss Florence Turner attended as bridesmaid. Dr. Harry B. Elliott assisted the groom. Mr. Forsythe played the bridal music and the bridal hymn was sung by Miss Grace M. Kent. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at Sherbourne House.

SOUTH AFRICAN FLAG TROUBLE ENDED

The bitter controversy over the new South African flag bill, which has raged for a number of months, has now ended happily. General Smuts, leader of the Opposition (left), and General Hertzog, Prime Minister of South Africa, met this week in an effort to arrive at a satisfactory solution to this trouble, which was threatening to disrupt the political parties of the entire Union. The outcome of their conference was that the Union Jack should be placed beside the new flag of the Union of South Africa wherever the latter is flown.

Club when Mr. and Mrs. Rogers received. Later in the afternoon Dr. and Mrs. Sweet left for their honeymoon, the bride looking lovely in a frock of beige crepe with matching beige coat, swathed in bleached seal. Her chic little hat was in the same smart shade. On their return they will reside in Portage La Prairie.

CHURCHES
PRICEVILLE UNITED CHURCH

The regular monthly meeting of the W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid of St. Columba church, Priceville, was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Parslow on October 19.

The president, Mrs. McCormack, was in the chair and conducted the opening exercises.

Mrs. Frank Reiley read a clipping from the Owen Sound paper regarding the bales received by the Presbyterial. It was a very gratifying report.

Sentence prayers were offered by several of the members and Mrs. Fred Karstedt read a missionary pamphlet.

The special feature of the meeting was an address by Miss Macmillan of Flesherton, one of the vice-presidents of the Grey Presbyterial. She spoke on the conditions and problems which the foreign element of our population present to the Christian church of Canada and she stressed the importance of giving to these people the gospel of Christ, for unless we lead them upward, they will drag us downward. The address was very interesting and the audience expressed their appreciation by hearty applause.

The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and the Lord's prayer repeated in unison.

The Ladies' Aid then met with the president, Mrs. L. McArthur presiding.

The chief business consisted of arrangements for the fowl supper and entertainment to be held on the evening of Thanksgiving Day, November 7.

At the conclusion of the meeting lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

PRESBYTERIAN W. M. S.
The regular meeting of the W. M. S. of the Presbyterian church was held at the home of Mrs. N. McCannel on Thursday, October 20. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Derby opened the meeting with devotional exercises. The meeting was a special thanksgiving one and the text, "Let us give thanks unto the Lord", was the thought of all present, brought to mind by the hymns, scripture reading and prayer. The reports of the various committees were received and new business discussed.

Mrs. Kellar took the topic on Moslem Women. The chapter taken this month told how, gradually, under the influence of the Christian religion, these women are giving up the veil and taking their places side by side with the men. Mrs. Hepburn read a letter from Mrs. Gorfth.

After the closing hymn and prayer Mrs. McCannel served lunch and a pleasant hour was spent.

PARALYSIS CAUSED DEATH OF YOUNG BOY

9 Years-Old Charlie Talbot, Who Lived Out From Flesherton, Died in Hospital.

Three passed away in Collingwood Hospital Thursday morning, Charlie Talbot, aged 9, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Talbot, who live about one and one-quarter miles from Flesherton, from infantile paralysis. The little lad had been in good health and attended school every day until a week before his death. On Thursday evening, October 20th, after attending school all day, he was attacked with pains in his back. Dr. Lively, of Flesherton, was summoned and the next morning he was rushed off to the Collingwood Hospital, where everything was done to save the youngster's life. The funeral took place the same day to Flesherton cemetery. He will be greatly missed by his school mates. Much sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family.

Douglas was ill, and his friend Donald took a bottle of whiskey to him Donald gave the invalid one glass and said: "Ye'll git another one in the mornin'." About five minutes elapsed, and then Douglas suddenly exclaimed, "Ye'd better let me hae the ither noo, Donald; we hear o' sae many sudden deaths nooadays."

MAKING GOOD WITH BOSTON BRUINS

fied by his work with the Bruins to date and it is betraying no confidences to say that Ross is highly pleased with the lad's work. Lauder met his real test to-day when he faced one of the greatest centre players in the game, Frank Frederickson, who was at centre for the first real scrimmage. Frederickson was the pivot of the first string forward line and had Galbraith and Oliver on the wings, with Shore and Clapper for a defence, and Hal Winkled in goal. The youngsters had Harry Conner on left wing, Lolo Couture on right wing, Lauder at centre, Gaynor and Clark on defence, and Frenchy Lacroix in goal.

HELD CROKINOLE PARTY

There was a good crowd and an enjoyable time had at the progressive crokinole party given in Queen Street church last Monday night under the auspices of the Mission Circle. Following a session at crokinole, the prizes for which were won by Mrs. Robert Campbell, James Milligan and Norman Falkingham, a short musical programme was given, followed by an enjoyable lunch of sandwiches and pumpkin pie.

WILL EXHIBIT COLTS

Mr. C. P. Kinnee informed us on Monday of this week that he had purchased from Ed. Foster of Dobbin-ton, in Bruce County, a pair of colts one year, "the best animals he had ever seen" at this age. Mr. Kinnee informs us that he intends to break them in and exhibit them at the fall fairs in the next year or two and expects to make a grand cleanup of first money in this district.

He: "See that man over there? He's a bombastic ass, a vacuous nonentity, a conceited humbug, a parasite, and an encumbrance to the earth." She: "Would you mind writing those down? He's my husband and I'd like to use them on him some time."
