ALPHABET OF A LAZY BOY

A is for Arithmetic, numbers and fractions, which twist themselves up into terrible distractions.
B is for Books, which are heavy to pack, and heavy to read from the front to the back.
C is for Chirography, writing is fine. There's nobody but me can ever read mine.
D is for Drill, calisthenics, and such, I really can't say that I care for it much.
E is for Eraser, mine doesn't last long, from rubbing out things that I've written in wrong.
F is for Father, who comes home at night and helps with my studies and can't get them right.
G is for Geography, countries and maps, and facts about people like Zulus and Lapps.
H is for Holidays when I am free, they can't have too many of these to suit me.
I is for Ink, which gets on my fingers, and there it just lingers and lingers and lingers.
J is for July, when I'm rolling in clover, because all my studies for one year are over.
K is for Kings, whom I read of in history, but why I must study that stuff is a mystery.
L is for Latin, I haven't yet had it but soon to my troubles I fear they will add it.
M is for Mother, who read my report and always remarks: "It's a very bad sort."
N is for Notes that I pass to my friends, and notes to my folks that the principal sends.
O is for a mark which I often receive although it means nothing—or so I believe.
P is for Principal, boss of the school, I meet him whenever I've busted a rule.
Q is for questions the teacher will ask. She knows all the answers, why set me to task?
R is for Rules which are terribly plenty; whatever you do you break fifteen or twenty.
S is for Spelling. I always have found you never can spell words the way that they sound.
T is for Teacher who never is through thinking up lessons that I have to do.
U is for Universe—yes, the whole show, chuck full of things they expect you to know.
V is for Vacation, I mentioned before. Though we get quite a lot, I could use a lot more.
W is for Whispering, a terrible crime for which I get spoken to time after time.
Y is for Yawns over lessons concerning whatever it is I'm supposed to be learning.
Z is for Zeal in my studies. I guess in time I'll have more, for I couldn't have less.

CHURCHES

VARNEY LADIES' AID HAD SUCCESSFUL MEETING

Despite the stormy weather, about a dozen ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. James Marshall on Wednesday, February 1, for the monthly Ladies' Aid meeting. The president opened the meeting with hymn 113, "Faith of Our Father" after which the Lord's Prayer was repeated. Scripture lesson, Proverbs 5, was read by Mrs. Elmer Kerr. After the program, the minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Arrangements were made for a St. Valentine's social to be held on Tuesday, February 14 at which a good time can be expected. Miss Janette Kerr's paper on "What a Choir Means to a Church" was well prepared, showing how helpful this organization is in spreading the gospel. The Misses Lennox gave a duet. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Marshall. After the program, the hostess served a dainty lunch and brought to a close a very enjoyable and instructive meeting.

A. Y. P. A. MEETING

The A. Y. P. A. of Trinity Church held an interesting missionary meeting on Monday night in the club rooms. The president, Mrs. McGowan, presided over the meeting. After the devotional exercises three splendid papers were read and enjoyed by those present. Miss Florence Kress gave the first paper on Mahomedism. Mr. J. Stedman dealt with Buddhism in a very interesting manner. A paper on Confucianism, given by Miss Reta Lawrence, was also very interesting. The papers were all lengthy discussions of the origin and progress of these oriental religions.

The Young Women's Auxiliary, Knox church, held their annual snowshoe party on Monday evening, February 6th. On returning from the hike they met in the church where lunch was served and a social hour spent. About $19.00 was realized.

Any former residents of Priceville in the city will be made welcome. The committee in charge were D. J. Gillies, Jos. Black, H. Richardson and Ed Sullivan.

DURHAM SCHOOL COSTS LOWEST IN COUNTY

Reeve Brigham of Hanover in interview with "Post" Newspaper Reporter Gives Information of Interest to Durhamites.

In an interview on Monday with Mr. Robert Brigham, Reeve of Hanover, The Post was informed that Hanover is very likely to secure the usual rebate of a shade over $1,300 from the county for road purposes. The county has been rebating 50 per cent of the money paid in by the town for road purposes, and while Hanover received no rebate last year on account of the county spending a great deal more than $1,300 in repairing the county line, it is expected that the rebate will be forthcoming again this year. Mr. Brigham reports that the sessions were carried through without any particular fireworks, and only on a few occasions was the serenity of the council disturbed. The Hanover Reeve made his "maiden speech" on the question of a grant to the Salvation Army rescue home at London. The finance committee had recommended a grant of $100, but, after hearing a S.A. officer lay the matter before them and being informed that there were six young women from Grey received in the home during the past year, Mr. Brigham urged that the grant be increased to $300 and this carried.

Cost of Running High Schools

Figures presented at the County Council regarding the cost of operating High and Continuation Schools were "taken down" by Mr. Brigham, and he informs us that Hanover's cost is the second lowest in the county and is much less than in some centres. The figures are as follows, being the cost per school day per pupil:

Meaford 55c.
Durham 22c.
Hanover 28c.
Dundalk 51c.
Markdale 58c.
Singhampton 59c.
Collingwood 41c.

The fact that Hanover High School receives considerably less in grants from the county as compared with some other schools in the county is due, said Mr. Brigham, to the fact that all of the Hanover school's grant does not come from Grey. He cited Meaford as a good instance, that town being about the same size as Hanover, but they receive $4,918.20 from Grey county while Hanover gets only $3,748.34. This is due to the fact that Meaford's pupils are all from Grey and get no grants from other counties. Hanover, on the contrary, is on the boundary line and gets substantial grants from Bruce and Wellington, as well as from Grey.

Brings Home Cheques

Mr. Brigham brought home two good-sized cheques, one for $500 being the usual grant to the Hanover hospital, and he also secured the $3,748.34 school cheque instead of waiting until March for it, and thus obviating the necessity of borrowing money from the bank to pay current expenses. Mr. Brigham sponsored the application of Constable Beamish of Hanover for the position of High Constable for Grey, on the understanding that it is not part of the Sheriff's work and that the new Sheriff was not particular about holding this office too, but he withdrew the application when Sheriff Brees expressed himself favorably toward accepting this $250-a-year position and was appointed.

The appointment of a traffic officer for the county roads was shelved by the Council, An Owen Sound young man applied for the job on a commission basis, and felt he could make $3,000 a year for the county, but the council felt that an officer working on a commission basis would be an intolerable nuisance on county roads and would be continually seeking for the slightest offence on which to base a charge. If a traffic officer is appointed, Mr. Brigham felt it would be better to pay him a straight salary.

Durham Gets School Fair

Although the Hanover, Bentinck and Brant Agricultural Society has approved of having the championship school fair of the county held here this year and although Mr. Brigham made an effort to secure it for Hanover, the Agricultural Committee of the county council voted it to Durham. About half a dozen centres were after it, and the Fair will likely go around and Hanover is sure to have it at some future date.

ON FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 17, AT Edge Hill School house, a box social and play entitled "Examination Day at Edge Hill School" will be held. All welcome. Admission 25c. Ladies bringing boxes free.

Satisfaction in Selection
There exists in all of us a certain amount of Native vanity, in that we feel that our judgment in matters affecting our own requirements is superior to that of a stranger. And this is quite in order and absolutely justified. We know the requirements of our own business as to quantity required; we have, by experience and actual practice, concluded that a certain grade, color or quality suits our purpose best.
In Printing
We have made our choice, and usually know pretty well what we want and how we want it. Co-operation in securing this can best be obtained from the home printer, for it is his desire, in fact his duty, to see to it that he secured for you just what you want, and that he carries this regularly in stock. In the printing, also your wishes can be carried out by consultation and co-operation.
The carpet-bagger, however, will always try to sell many times your ordinary requirements; he will most likely try to work off a job lot of paper. And as for style of work, since there is no chance to consult, and as no proof is submitted, the customer must take it as supplied, regardless of his own ideas.
Therefore, in order to get what you want, and when you want it, in the matter of your printing requirements, consult with
