(Our Own Correspondent) An interesting debate will be held in the church on Tuesday ev-ening February 21, the subject will be: "Resolved that the advancement of a country depends more upon its natural resources than upon its people." The affirmative will be taken by Miss Jessie Twamley and Mr. Irvin Sharpe, the negative by Miss Elizabeth Allan and Mr. Herman Bierworth. This promises to be a good debate. Everybody come! Mr. A. C. AYTON BAD MAN FINED TUESDAY

Man Who Staged Rough House in Normanby's Capital Some Days Ago Up Before Magistrate This Week.-Companion Also Paid for Fun.

They take their police court cases seriously down in Ayton, the chief city of Normanby Township, and when Magistrate Laidlaw opened his court there on Tuesday he was greeted with a "standing room only" audience to hear the case of disorderly conduct reported in these columns last week.

The defendants were men named Doyle and Thomas, the latter a returned soldier, and the cause of all the trouble. In the evidence it was shown that Thomas had entered one of the Ayton stores, and had approached a young German just out from Germany who could not understand English, and, with no provocation on the part of the latter, had started the whole trouble As the trouble progressed, the village constable was sent for, but for some reason did not show up to make the arrest and another man Dave Schenk, was soon on the scene. In the melee a window in front of the store was broken. Thomas, who is a returned sold ier, still sees red when he meets German and this is supposed to have been the cause of the trouble rathe than anything that was done by the young German lad about 20 years of age. In his evidence Thomas tol the magistrate that because of hi returned man's button, which h wears conspicuously, the German had no use for him. but this wa discounted by the bench in givin judgment.

Both Thomas and Doyle waite around until after milnight intend ing to press the matter further, an about that time followed Schen down the street. Thomas saying that now as they were alone he wa going to even matters up wil Schenk for his interference. Schen turned around, put his pipe in hi pocket, and trimmed Thomas down to the proper size with the resu that, while the trial took place to days after the altercation.
