HOT DOG STARTS COMPLICATIONS IN "MAN CRAZY"

A "hot dog" stand on the old Boston Post Road starts the complications that make "Man Crazy", First National's amusing romance of New England, which is showing at the Veterans' Star Theatre on Friday and Saturday, June 1 and 2, one of the most entertaining pictures of the year.

"Man Crazy" co-features Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall. Miss Mackaill is cast as the granddaughter of an aristocratic old lady of one of the "fine families" of New England. She horrifies her grandmother by establishing a hot dog stand on the Boston Post Road to help out a crippled boy.

Then Mulhall, driving the fastest truck on the highway, comes along and promptly falls in love with the pretty "waitress" at the hot dog stand. From that point complications come thick and fast, culminating in a breath-taking auto chase, a hold-up and other stirring events.

"Man Crazy" is from George Sarton's famous Saturday Evening Post story, "Clarissa and the Post Road", which was directed by John Francis Dillon, and produced by Charles R. Rogers for First National release.

Included in the capable cast are Edythe Chapman, Phillips Smalley, Walter McGrail, Ray Hallor and many others.

For an evening's entertainment "Man Crazy" is to be warmly recommended, and it is an ideal vehicle for the talents of the clever Mackaill-Mulhall team.

LUPINO LANE ON STAGE BEFORE THE AGE OF TEN

Lupino Lane, who is starred in the Educational-Lupino Lane Comedy, "Naughty Boy" coming to the Veterans' Star Theatre Friday and Saturday, June 1 and 2, appeared on the English stage before he was five years old.

But ever since that initial appearance, he has been before the public almost constantly, and most of the time on the comedy stage. He has played in every leading theatre of England as well as at the Folies Bergere, Paris.

HEENEY MAY NOT BE IN GOOD CONDITION

Persistent Report Says New Zealander is Neglecting Training For Coming World's Championship Bout With Gene Tunney.

The big ballyhoo for the Tunney-Heeney world's championship heavyweight contest this summer has started. So far we have not heard any disquieting rumors from Tunney's camp, but it is openly rumored that Tom Heeney, his antipodean contender, is not tending to his knitting as he should for a bout of this magnitude. This may or may not be true, and with the manner in which the present day championship fights are run it may be but a method of pulling the public to lay some of their shekels on Heeney at attractive odds so that the wise boys can clean up some money. Anyway, here is what the New York correspondent of the Chicago "Referee" sends his paper under date of May 25:

Gene Tunney may, as he said the other day, be ready to fight a championship battle within three weeks, but Thomas Heeney, booked to oppose the titleholder in the affair of July 26 is a long way from being in shape and, as the days flit on, he is showing what amounts to a decided disinclination toward training of any kind. His tactics have aroused considerable gossip as to whether he believes he has a chance and whether it is worth while to go through the grind.

Heeney balks at every suggestion that he go off somewhere in the open country to do his conditioning. He wants the life of the city around him. Possibly there is something of the rouser in the honest blacksmith from New Zealand, after all. Thoughts of Saratoga Lake, Orangeburg or even Atlantic City for his training camp bother him.

"When I came here first nobody cared where I trained or if I didn't train at all," says Tom. "Now everybody is picking spots for me. I always got in good shape up in St. Nicholas Rink. I always entered the ring feeling fit and ready. Why should things be any different for this fight?"

So bulky Tom is going along his own way, not even bothering to take long walks while Tunney, certainly not the greatest champion that ever lived but probably the smartest, has hied himself away to Speculator, N. Y., miles from even a railroad. And when the time comes to enter the ring, it is quite likely that Heeney will clamber into the ring farther from the peak of form than will the noted Shakespearean scholar.

If pipe ashes burn the palm of your hand they are hot enough to set fire to the bush. Watch out. It doesn't take much to start a million-dollar fire some times and places. Once burnt over a forest area may be useless for generations.

If every man, woman and child in Canada would realize the danger of fire, practise carefulness at all times, and back up the fire ranger in his efforts to control fire outbreaks, Canada would save millions of dollars worth of timber every year.

Only teas grown 4,000 to 7,000 feet above sea level are used in "SALADA" Orange Pekoe Blend—the flavour is therefore richer, more fragrant and much more delicious than other teas. Only 43c per 1/2-lb.—Buy it at any grocery store.

WASHED AND DIRTY EGGS A MENACE

The elimination of washed and dirty eggs would mean a saving of thousands of dollars annually to the egg producers of Canada. This is the opinion expressed by officers of the Canadian Produce Association, and the Cooperating Marketing Association in Eastern Canada. At this season the average is as high as 3 dozen soiled eggs to a case, which means a loss on each dozen in the case of from 1 1/2 to 2 cents. This covers only the dirty eggs, those that have been washed are a greater menace to the egg trade. The loss from washed eggs can only be determined when eggs are removed from storage.

One prominent authority says "we have occasionally recanted eggs out of storage in which a large proportion of eggs showed black rot, this in all probability resulting from washing the eggs. If only one or two shippers washed their eggs and these were placed in cold storage, they could do untold harm to the reputation of our eggs. This at once reacts on the producer in the form of lower average prices."

As a general rule "clean nests and clean houses mean clean eggs". After taking all possible precautions if dirty eggs are still found they should be used for home cooking. Until a few years ago very little attention was paid to the production of eggs in Ireland. The hens were not properly housed and little or no provision was made in the way of clean nests, with the result that all Irish eggs were stained and dirty. During the past two or three years this condition has been changed entirely. Clean houses and clean nests have been provided and the Irish eggs are commanding practically top prices on the English market.

Any temporary advantage in price which the individual producer may get by removing dirt from eggs by washing is more than offset by the bad effect such eggs have on markets as a whole. Individual producers should realize that they are part of a hundred million dollar industry, and that Canada's reputation as an egg exporter depends in large measure upon the care exercised by the individual in the marketing of a high grade product.
