

Traverston

(Our Own Correspondent) These drizzly, dribbling days are making the grain and grass crops fairly jump up. Mangels, corn and potatoes are mostly in the soil.

Shingles by the thousands! Mr. George Street has Rob and Owen Peart in shares with him in cutting and are tumbling the bunches out in piles.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Tuck of Toronto motored up to Mr. J. A. Beaton's on Sunday, bringing him home after spending a week's well-earned holiday in the city.

Mrs. James Hopkins of town spent several days of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Allen.

Mrs. Briscoe and three children of Detroit are holidaying at Mr. James Dunbar's.

Miss Hannah Smith is not so well of late and Mr. Will Timmins had a nasty attack of bronchitis.

Mr. John O. Greenwood has been a very busy woman this spring. Besides the ordinary routine she has been re-fitting up the old stone home, unoccupied for some years, preparatory to moving into it.

Last week she had a furnace installed, which will add to its comfort and healthfulness.

Mrs. Ben Mays and Miss Isobel left for Guelph on Wednesday of last week, to rejoin her husband and Miss Elsie, who had gone the week before.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bryan and family of Varney were guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ryan the first of the week.

On Sunday night, Mr. W. J. Cook had one lamb killed and three worried by dogs, apparently. Surely it would not be asking too much of dog owners either to shut them up or chain them at night.

Glencel had a monster sheep bill to pay last year.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Montgomery, Mr. E. W. Hunt and Miss Florence of Toronto and Mrs. Percy Hunt of Ceylon visited Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Peart on Saturday afternoon and recalled many events of former days.

The six deer that came out of the swamp and lined up in a row to watch Mr. Hinchey seed on lot 7 on the 5th concession, would have made a fine snap shot. This township is surely going back to pioneer days, with the exception of the town and city folk swiping the speckled trout out of the streams. We wish they would turn their attention to groundhogs.

W. H. Edwards was home from Eugenia for a day or so last week and his dad thought it a suitable time to have the potatoes "dropped".

Mrs. G. E. Peart and son Rob motored to Toronto on Friday morning to visit kindred and returned on Sunday evening. There was another guy down there, too; but he did not take his mother. However, he got safely back.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McArthur spent the 24th with Mr. and Mrs. Jim Grutechley at Dornoch.

Mr. Rob Cook and Miss Millie of Ceylon were guests of the Cook household.

This nine years since Mr. Sam, Jack of Winnipeg visited kindred and the old schoolmates and neighbors, but the years pass lightly over him. He is just as genial, full of life and fun as in days of yore and just as popular too. He has made good out in the West.

Misses Margaret Greenwood, Katie May and Gladys Firth and Mr. Ed. Cook were up from this part to the graduating exercises at Owen Sound General and Marine Hospital on Friday night.

Misses Iona Beaton and Gladys Baker returned home recently after spending winter months in Toronto.

Mr. Beaton of Kincardine was a recent visitor among the Beaton families.

Calderwood

(Our Own Correspondent) May 28—By the coldness of the weather near the end of the week, one would imagine that spring was going backwards.

The Queen's Birthday was spent in fishing, the day being fine for that. At night all roads led to Pike Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer and son, Clarence, of Mount Forest, spent Sunday with Mr. William Nelson.

Mr. Oliver Henry visited on Sunday at Allan Halliday's and Nelson Carmount's.

This community received a shock on Saturday when it became known that Mr. Henry Hilgartner, who had been in very poor health for some time past, we extend our deepest heartfelt sympathy to Mrs. Hilgartner and the family, in the loss of a loving husband and father.

Mrs. George Leibold spent several days in Ayrton last week with her mother, Mrs. Andrew Schenk.

Eugenia

(Our Own Correspondent) There were quite a number who came to fish in the Hydro Lake on the 24th, but met with little success. There must be some good trout in the lake as Mr. James Porteous recently caught a dandy which measured 19 1/2 inches, while Postmaster Park caught one 14 inches long.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sloan and family of Toronto spent the holiday with the former's parents here. Little Miss Ioleen remained with her grandmother and will attend school.

Mr. Joe Brown of Bentinck is in the neighborhood this week putting in a crop on the Thomas B. Tucker farm.

Mr. George Lawrence has taken charge of Mr. Richard Morrison's farm and is rushing in the crop. The people of this part welcome him back to the neighborhood, and St. Paul's people to the church, where he was valued member.

Mr. Thomas Daley has been on the sick list for a week and for a time his case seemed most serious. We are pleased to say he is recovering.

Last year the late seeding prevented many from attending the Malpewood cemetery here, which takes place early in June. We hope this year will fully make up for it. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mighton attended the funeral of the latter's grandfather near Hanover last Wednesday.

Mr. Dolphie Lawrence has clipped about one thousand sheep this spring and has got it down to an art, having clipped eighty-nine in one day.

Inspector Wright is paying official visits to the schools in Egremont. He was well pleased with the work done in No. 2 and 12.

Mr. William Acheson is again going the rounds with his new horse, purchased near Owen Sound.

Swinton Park

(Our Own Correspondent) Victoria Day was passed quietly here. Most of the farmers stayed home and worked on the land while a few took to fishing or motoring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hardy, Mrs. Mary Hardy and Richard, spent last Sunday at Owen Sound.

Miss M. Knox of Toronto spent the week-end at her home here.

ANTHONY—HAW

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday, May 19, at Centenary United Church, Dovercourt Road, Toronto, when Ruby May Haw, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haw of Swinton Park, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Garfield Anthony, of Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Anthony, Sydney, N. S.

Rev. J. McKay, pastor of the church performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives. The bride entered the church on the arm of her uncle, Mr. T. Haw of Toronto, and was dressed in mauve taffeta and tulle with mauve mohair hat to match and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Mr. Charles Littler supported the groom. The church organist played the wedding march.

Following the ceremony the bridal party motored to the home of Mrs. Strong, where a buffet luncheon was served. Immediately after the bridal party left for the bride's home in Swinton Park, where a wedding supper awaited them. The dining room was decorated in pink and mauve, the table being centered by a three-store, bride's cake. The bride travelled in a blonde canton crepe dress with coat and hat to match.

Following a short honeymoon in Swinton Park Mr. and Mrs. Anthony will reside at 37 Pauline Avenue, Toronto, where we wish them much happiness.

GETS HIGH POSITION WITH NEW COMP...
Harvey W. Wilson, Superintendent of Durham Stone and Sand Company's Plant Here, Is Now Nominating Superintendent of $1,200,000 Company to Be Known as Consolidated Sand and Gravel Limited.

The merging of the John E. sell sand and gravel interests in new $1,200,000 company last week has made some changes in the sonnet of the managerial staff last Thursday the word came that Harvey W. Wilson of this city who has been superintendent of local plant since it started operations here some six or seven ago, that he had been appointed the superintendent of the new plants in the merger. These include the plants at Durham, W. Ford, two plants at Paris, and at Fuller, Ontario, near Belleville.

The new company is to be known as Consolidated Sand and Gravel Limited, has an authorized capitalization of $1,200,000, all of which has been issued. The number of shares authorized to be issued is 100,000, of these 70,000 have been issued, leaving 30,000 shares reserved for conversion preference shares.

The new company occupies enviable position financially, that it has the confidence of local men was evidenced by the rapidity with which the stock purchased when placed on the market. The directors are Mr. John E. Russell, President; Mr. Robinson, General Manager; Mr. Thompson, Assistant Manager; W. L. Newmarch, Director, all are well and favorably inclined to the trades to which they cater, and are men of ability, experience, the consolidation a bright outlook to the new industry.

The Durham plant is the plant in the new company, since its inception has proved a money-maker. It is an asset this town, and during the spring, summer and fall it employs approximately 50 men in its operation. The products of the Durham plant is regarded the best in Western Ontario. It is no doubt his outstanding success as superintendent of plant that led the management of the new company to place Wilson as the superintendent of the plant in the consolidation.

Locally, Wilson is well known. He has held the position of superintendent of the plant for some years. He is a member of the Durham Commission, but is as well a enthusiastic sportsman in the sports of the town. His appointment is a popular one generally, and all will join in wishing him the same success in his new position as he enjoyed the past.

TORONTO LEADS IN STREET LIGHTING
Claims Best System At Proportionate Cost
Toronto leads all other cities this continent in the matter of excellent street lighting at a lowest proportionate cost according to a statement issued by the City Engineer, Mr. J. H. Chisholm, in a report on the street lighting in use. With a total of $483,833. This lights 33 miles of city and 675 miles of streets. Montreal has 50 miles and 760 miles of streets, the cost per annum is $1,000,000. Windsor, with an area of 100 square miles and a street lighting of $4,234 lamps, which the municipality $73,720 per annum. London figures are not in this tabulation.

Anyway, the new freedom youth requires less prevention than was necessary to establish old-time alibis.

Rev. Father Joseph R. Rubenstein, priest, was accused of curing a feigned marriage between himself and Mrs. Eleanor F. Beaton and Manitoba. He was shown here. The priest denied the charges. He said he was met by a woman, who said she was a divorcee, and that she knew the nature of a ceremony, the judge ruled.
